

In the opinion of Bond Counsel, assuming continuing compliance with certain requirements described herein, under existing statutes, regulations and court decisions, as presently interpreted and construed, interest on the Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds earned by the respective owners thereof is excludable from gross income for federal income tax purposes pursuant to Section 103 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended; however, interest on the Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds constitutes a specific item of tax preference for purposes of the federal alternative minimum tax for individuals and corporations. The Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds and interest thereon will be includable for purposes of computing taxes imposed by the State of Mississippi to the same extent as would be the case if interest on the Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds were not excludable from gross income for federal income tax purposes. See "TAX MATTERS" herein for a discussion of additional federal tax consequences affecting owners of the Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds. Interest on the Series 2000-A-3 Notes is not excludable from gross income for federal income tax purposes or for purposes of computing taxes imposed by the State of Mississippi.

The rate of interest on the Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds for a period beginning on and including the date of their initial delivery and ending 36 days thereafter (May 18, 2000 and including such 36th day) will be determined on or about April 12, 2000. Interest on each Series of the Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds will be payable semi-annually on each March 1 and September 1, commencing September 1, 2000, until a Conversion Date with respect to such Series, if any, or a change in Interest Payment Dates, if any. Each Series of the Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds will bear interest for each Auction Period at an Auction Rate, based upon a 35-day Auction Period as determined by the Auction Agent pursuant to the Auction Procedures described herein (but in no event greater than 14% per annum) until a Conversion Date with respect to such Series of Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds, if any, or the date of a change in the length of any Auction Period with respect to such Series of the Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds, if any. The 35-day Auction Period for such Series of Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds may be adjusted to an Auction Period of not less than 7 days nor longer than one year pursuant to the procedures set forth in the hereinafter described Indenture. See APPENDIX D, "AUCTION PROCEDURES—AUCTION RATE TAX-EXEMPT BONDS—Changes in Auction Terms". See "DESCRIPTION OF THE OFFERED OBLIGATIONS—Conversion; Mandatory Tender of the Auction Rate Securities".

The rate of interest on the Offered Taxable Notes for a period beginning on and including the date of their initial delivery and ending 28 days thereafter (May 10, 2000 and including such 28th day) will be determined on or about April 12, 2000. Interest on the Offered Taxable Notes will be payable on the first day of each Auction Period, commencing May 11, 2000, until a Conversion Date with respect to the Offered Taxable Notes, if any, or a change in Interest Payment Dates, if any. See "DESCRIPTION OF THE OFFERED OBLIGATIONS—Conversion; Mandatory Tender of the Auction Rate Securities".

With respect to the payment of principal and interest on each principal and interest payment date and upon an Event of Default and acceleration of the Offered Obligations, the Series 2000-A-2 Bonds and the Series 2000-A-3 Notes (collectively, the "Offered Senior Obligations"), any Outstanding Prior Series Senior Obligations and any Additional Senior Obligations (collectively, the "Senior Obligations"), and other Senior Beneficiaries, if any, have certain payment priorities over the Series 2000-B-2 Bonds (sometimes referred to herein as the "Offered Subordinate Obligations"), any Outstanding Prior Series Subordinate Obligations and any Outstanding Additional Subordinate Obligations (collectively, the "Subordinate Obligations"), and other Subordinate Beneficiaries, if any. See "SECURITY AND SOURCES OF PAYMENT FOR THE OFFERED OBLIGATIONS—Certain Payment Priorities". As long as the Senior Obligations are outstanding or amounts are owed to other Senior Beneficiaries, failure to pay principal of and interest on the Subordinate Obligations or any amounts owed to any other Subordinate Beneficiaries is not an Event of Default; however, interest continues to accrue on the Subordinate Obligations to the date of payment thereof. See APPENDIX B, "CERTAIN DEFINITIONS AND SUMMARY OF CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF THE INDENTURE—Events of Default and Remedies".

Additional Obligations

The Indenture authorizes, subject to certain conditions, the issuance of additional Series of Taxable Notes and additional Series of Tax-Exempt Bonds. All Tax-Exempt Bonds and Taxable Notes (other than the Offered Obligations) hereafter issued under the Indenture are respectively referred to herein individually as the "Additional Tax-Exempt Bonds" and the "Additional Taxable Notes", and, collectively, as the "Additional Obligations". The Offered Taxable Notes, along with any Outstanding Prior Series Taxable Notes and any Additional Taxable Notes hereafter issued are collectively referred to herein as the "Taxable Notes". The Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds, the Outstanding Prior Series Tax-Exempt Bonds and any Additional Tax-Exempt Bonds hereafter issued are collectively referred to herein as the "Tax-Exempt Bonds", and the Taxable Notes and the Tax-Exempt Bonds are collectively referred to herein as the "Obligations." Additional Obligations may be issued under the Indenture on a parity with, or subordinate to, the Senior Obligations and other Senior Beneficiaries. Additional Obligations may also be issued under the Indenture on a parity with, or subordinate to, Subordinate Obligations and other Subordinate Beneficiaries. See "SECURITY AND SOURCES OF PAYMENT FOR THE OFFERED OBLIGATIONS -- Certain Payment Priorities" and APPENDIX B, "CERTAIN DEFINITIONS AND SUMMARY OF CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF THE INDENTURE -- Events of Default and Remedies".

General Purposes of Issuance of Offered Obligations

The Offered Obligations will be issued generally to (i) acquire Eligible Loans, (ii) replace funds advanced to or drawn by the Corporation under an outstanding line of credit to so acquire Eligible Loans, (iii) pay outstanding principal of the Series 1994 Refunded Bonds, (iv) fund a portion of the Reserve Requirement attributable to the Offered Obligations, (v) capitalize interest on the Offered Obligations and (vi) pay certain fees and expenses incurred in connection with the issuance of the Offered Obligations. See "THE CORPORATION'S STUDENT LOAN PURCHASE PROGRAM -- Description of Eligible Loans To Be Acquired".

Source of Revenue and Security

The Obligations, including the Offered Obligations, are special, limited revenue obligations of the Corporation. The Obligations and rights of any Other Beneficiaries are secured by and payable solely from the trust estate (the "Trust Estate") created by the Indenture. With respect to the payment of current principal and interest payments on each principal and interest payment date or upon the occurrence of an Event of Default and the acceleration of the Obligations, the Series 2000-A-2 Bonds and the Series 2000-A-3 Notes (collectively, the "Offered Senior Obligations"), the Prior Series Senior Obligations and any Additional Senior Obligations, and other Senior Beneficiaries, if any, have certain payment priorities over the Series 2000-B-2 Bonds (the "Offered Subordinate Obligations"), the Prior Series Subordinate Obligations and any Additional Subordinate Obligations, and other Subordinate Beneficiaries, if any. See "SECURITY AND SOURCES OF PAYMENT FOR THE OFFERED OBLIGATIONS -- Certain Payment Priorities" and APPENDIX B, "CERTAIN DEFINITIONS AND SUMMARY OF CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF THE INDENTURE -- Events of Default and Remedies".

Redemption

The Offered Obligations while bearing interest at Auction Rates will be subject to redemption, in whole or in part, prior to maturity at the option of the Corporation upon not less than 15 days' (but not more than 60 days') notice, at a redemption price equal to the principal amount of such Offered Obligations being redeemed, plus accrued interest, if any, to the date of redemption on the first day following the end of any Auction Period from any moneys of the Corporation.

The Offered Obligations while bearing interest at Auction Rates will be also subject to redemption, in whole or in part, prior to maturity at the option of the Corporation upon not less than 15 days' (but not more than 60 days') notice, at a redemption price equal to the principal amount of such Offered Obligations being redeemed, plus, unless the redemption date will be an Interest Payment Date with respect to the Offered Obligations to be redeemed, accrued interest, if any, to the date of redemption on the first day following the end of any Auction Period for the Offered Obligations to be redeemed from moneys transferred to the Redemption Subaccount from the Surplus Account.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, no Offered Subordinate Obligations will be optionally redeemed unless after such redemption, the Senior Asset Requirement will be met. See "REDEMPTION - Optional Redemption of Offered Obligations".

The Offered Obligations will be subject to mandatory redemption, in part, at a redemption price equal to the principal amount of such Offered Obligations being redeemed, plus, unless the redemption date will be an Interest Payment Date with respect to the Offered Obligations to be redeemed, accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the date of redemption on the first day following the end of any Auction Period for the Offered Obligations to be redeemed from moneys transferred from the Original Proceeds Subaccount, the Transferred Proceeds Account and/or the Revolving Subaccount of the Acquisition Account to the Redemption Subaccount.

A portion of the Series 2000-A-2 Bonds are subject to mandatory sinking fund redemption on September 1, 2009, from amounts credited to the Senior Sinking Fund Subaccount. See "REDEMPTION--Mandatory Sinking Fund Redemption".

Guarantee Agencies

It is expected that substantially all Pledged Eligible Loans to be purchased with the proceeds of the Offered Obligations, as well as Pledged Eligible Loans purchased with the proceeds of the Prior Series Obligations, will be guaranteed by United Student Aid Funds, Inc. In addition, Eligible Loans may be acquired from time to time under the Indenture guaranteed by Tennessee Student Assistance Corporation, Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority, Pennsylvania Higher Education Assistance Agency, Louisiana Student Financial Assistance Commission (each a "Guarantee Agency") or by any Other Qualified Guarantor, provided that the Corporation shall have provided to the Trustee written evidence from each Rating Agency that the acquisition of Eligible Loans guaranteed by such Other Qualified Guarantor does not cause the withdrawal or reduction of the ratings then applicable to any Series of Obligations issued under the Indenture. See "THE GUARANTEE AGENCIES AND THE GUARANTEED STUDENT LOAN PROGRAM".

The Servicers

SunTech, Inc. ("SunTech") and Pennsylvania Higher Education Assistance Agency ("PHEAA") will service substantially all of the Pledged Eligible Loans purchased with the proceeds of the Offered Obligations. The Corporation is permitted under the Indenture to use additional and other Servicers, including the Corporation and/or the Foundation, to service the Pledged Eligible Loans. It is anticipated that prior to the repayment period (as defined by the Higher Education Act) a portion of the Corporation's Student Loans, including a portion of the Pledged Eligible Loans, will be serviced by the Corporation and/or the Foundation. See "THE CORPORATION'S STUDENT LOAN PURCHASE PROGRAM -- Servicing and Due Diligence".

Ratings

It is a condition precedent to the issuance of the Offered Obligations that (i) Moody's Investors Service, Inc. ("Moody's") assigns its rating of "Aaa" and Fitch IBCA, Inc. ("Fitch") assigns its rating of "AAA" to each Series of the Offered Senior Obligations and (ii) Moody's assigns its rating of "A2" and Fitch assigns its rating of "A" to the Offered Subordinate Obligations. See "RATINGS" herein.

Events of and Remedies on Default

Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default and acceleration of the Offered Obligations, the payment of principal of and interest on the Outstanding Senior Obligations (which will include, but will not be limited to, the Offered Senior Obligations and the Prior Series Senior Obligations) and other Senior Beneficiaries, if any, will have priority over the payment of principal of and interest on the Outstanding Subordinate Obligations (which will include, but will not be limited to, the Offered Subordinate Obligations and the Prior Series Subordinate Obligations) and any other Subordinate Beneficiaries. AS LONG AS SENIOR OBLIGATIONS ARE OUTSTANDING AND AMOUNTS ARE DUE TO OTHER SENIOR BENEFICIARIES, IF ANY, THE FAILURE TO PAY PRINCIPAL OF AND INTEREST ON SUBORDINATE OBLIGATIONS AND AMOUNTS DUE TO ANY OTHER SUBORDINATE BENEFICIARIES IS NOT AN EVENT OF DEFAULT, AND THEREFORE THE OWNERS OF THE SUBORDINATE OBLIGATIONS AND OTHER SUBORDINATE BENEFICIARIES, IF ANY, ARE NOT ENTITLED TO EXERCISE ANY REMEDIES. If there are insufficient moneys available on an Interest Payment Date to pay all or a portion of the interest on the Subordinate Obligations then Outstanding, or amounts due to other Subordinate Beneficiaries, if any, when due and payable, such interest or amounts will be deferred until moneys are available to make such payment; however, interest on such overdue installment of interest or on such overdue amounts will accrue at the same rates as were borne by the Series of Subordinate Obligations or by amounts due to other Subordinate Beneficiaries, if any, respectively, with respect to which such installment of interest or such amounts are in default during any period for which such interest or amounts have been deferred from the date that the payment should have been made, up to, but not including, the actual payment date. See "SECURITY AND SOURCES OF PAYMENT FOR THE OFFERED OBLIGATIONS -- Certain Payment Priorities" and APPENDIX B, "CERTAIN DEFINITIONS AND SUMMARY OF CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF THE INDENTURE -- Events of Default and Remedies".

See "THE CORPORATION". The Corporation is organized exclusively for the purpose of making or acquiring certain loans under the Federal Family Education Loan Program described in APPENDIX C, "DESCRIPTION OF THE FEDERAL FAMILY EDUCATION LOAN PROGRAM". Each Pledged Eligible Loan is required by the Indenture to be a fully or partially disbursed Student Loan which: (a) is either Insured by the Secretary or Guaranteed and (unless the Corporation has provided to the Trustee written advice from each Rating Agency that treating an Insured or Guaranteed Loan which is not an "eligible loan" for purposes of receiving Special Allowance Payments as an Eligible Loan will not cause the withdrawal or reduction of any rating or ratings then applicable to any of the Obligations) is an "eligible loan" for purposes of receiving Special Allowance Payments; (b) is either (i) a PLUS Loan, a Consolidation Loan or an SLS Loan, (ii)(A) an "eligible loan" under the Higher Education Act for purposes of receiving Interest Benefit Payments or (B) if Interest Benefit Payments are abolished by any change in any law or regulations or the official interpretation thereof, loans which provide for payment of interest by the borrower thereunder and such payment of interest is either Insured or Guaranteed and not subject to any deferment or (C) an unsubsidized Guaranteed Loan made under Section 428H of the Higher Education Act (with respect to which Interest Benefit Payments will not be made) or (iii) a type of loan authorized under law enacted subsequent to the date of the Original Indenture, if the Corporation has provided to the Trustee written advice from each Rating Agency that treating such a type of loan as an Eligible Loan will not cause the withdrawal or reduction of any rating or ratings on any of the Obligations; (c) except to the extent affected by an Approved Borrower Benefit Program, bears interest at a rate not less than 1.00% below the maximum applicable interest rate permitted under the Higher Education Act with respect to the Student Loan in question at the time such Student Loan was made; (d) was either originated by the Corporation or the Trustee acting on behalf of the Corporation or was purchased by the Corporation, directly or indirectly, from a Lender pursuant to a Student Loan Purchase Agreement; (e) does not exceed the maximum outstanding loan limitations described in the Higher Education Act; and (f) has not been tendered at any time for payment to and rejected by either the Secretary or any guarantee agency, including any Guarantor, for payment, unless all defects which caused such rejection have been cured. See

“THE GUARANTEE AGENCIES AND THE GUARANTEED STUDENT LOAN PROGRAM”. The Corporation also covenants in the Indenture that it will cause the Pledged Eligible Loans to be serviced in accordance with the Higher Education Act. See “THE CORPORATION’S STUDENT LOAN PURCHASE PROGRAM -- Servicing and Due Diligence”.

Proceeds of the Series 2000-A-2 Bonds and Series 2000-B-2 Bonds will be applied to acquire Eligible Loans that are fully or partially disbursed. Proceeds of the Series 2000-A-2 Bonds will also be applied to pay $15,000,000 of outstanding principal of the Series 1994 Refunded Bonds (as hereinafter defined). Proceeds of the Series 2000-A-3 Notes will be used to acquire Eligible Loans that are fully or partially disbursed and to replace funds advanced to or drawn by the Corporation under an outstanding line of credit. Proceeds of the Offered Obligations will be applied by the Corporation for the purposes generally of: (i) funding a portion of the Reserve Requirement attributable to the Offered Obligations, (ii) capitalizing interest on the Offered Obligations and (iii) paying certain fees and expenses incurred in connection with the issuance of the Offered Obligations.

The Indenture authorizes, subject to certain conditions, the issuance of Additional Taxable Notes and Additional Tax-Exempt Bonds. All Taxable Notes and Tax-Exempt Bonds hereafter issued under the Indenture, other than the Offered Obligations and the Prior Series Obligations, are respectively referred to herein individually as the “Additional Taxable Notes” and the “Additional Tax-Exempt Bonds” and collectively as the “Additional Obligations”. The Offered Taxable Notes and the Outstanding Prior Series Taxable Notes, along with any Additional Taxable Notes, are collectively referred to herein as the “Taxable Notes”. The Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds and the Outstanding Prior Series Tax-Exempt Bonds, along with any Additional Tax-Exempt Bonds, are collectively referred to herein as the “Tax-Exempt Bonds”, and the Tax-Exempt Bonds and the Taxable Notes are collectively referred to herein as the “Obligations.” Additional Obligations may be on a parity with, or subordinate to, the Senior Obligations and other Senior Beneficiaries (“Additional Senior Obligations”). Additional Obligations may also be on a parity with, or subordinate to, Subordinate Obligations and other Subordinate Beneficiaries (“Additional Subordinate Obligations”).

Descriptions of, among other things, the Offered Obligations, the Corporation, its activities, the Indenture and the Higher Education Act are included in this Official Statement. The information and descriptions in this Official Statement do not purport to be complete, comprehensive or definitive. Statements regarding specific documents, including the Indenture and the Offered Obligations, are summaries of, and subject to, the detailed provisions of such documents and are qualified in their entirety by reference to each such document, which will be on file with the Corporation at its office at 2600 Lakeland Terrace, Jackson, Mississippi 39216 (telephone number: (601) 981-9425). All such descriptions of documents are further qualified in their entirety by reference to laws relating to or affecting the enforcement of creditors’ rights generally. This Official Statement does not constitute a contract between the Corporation, or the Underwriter, and any one or more Holders and Beneficial Owners, if any, of the Offered Obligations.

SECURITY AND SOURCES OF PAYMENT FOR THE OFFERED OBLIGATIONS

General

The Offered Obligations will be special, limited revenue obligations of the Corporation, secured by and payable solely from the Trust Estate. The Indenture grants a pledge of, and a security interest in, and assigns to the Trustee all of the Corporation’s rights in, the Trust Estate to secure the payment of the Obligations (which will include the Offered Obligations upon their issuance) and performance by the Corporation of any Swap Agreement, Credit Enhancement Facility or Remarketing Agreement, subject to the provisions of the Indenture permitting application of funds for the purposes of and on the terms and conditions set forth in the Indenture and their release pursuant to the terms of the Indenture. The Trust Estate includes all rights, title, interest and privileges of the Corporation: with respect to Pledged Student Loans (including the evidences of indebtedness thereof and related documentation); in, to and under all Guarantee Agreements, all Contracts of Insurance, all Certificates of Insurance, all Student Loan Purchase Agreements and all Federal Reimbursement Contracts insofar as they relate to Pledged Student Loans; under any Swap Agreement or Swap Counterparty Guarantee; and the revenues, moneys, evidences of indebtedness and securities in and payable into the Trust Estate Fund in the manner and subject to the prior applications provided in the Indenture. See APPENDIX B, “CERTAIN DEFINITIONS AND SUMMARY OF CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF THE INDENTURE”.

THE OFFERED OBLIGATIONS DO NOT CONSTITUTE A DEBT, A LIABILITY, OR A LEGAL OR MORAL OBLIGATION OF THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI OR ANY AGENCY OR POLITICAL SUBDIVISION THEREOF OR A PLEDGE OF THE FAITH AND CREDIT OR THE TAXING POWERS OF THE STATE OR ANY AGENCY OR POLITICAL SUBDIVISION THEREOF FOR ANY PURPOSE WHATSOEVER. THE CORPORATION IS NOT AN AGENCY OR INSTRUMENTALITY OF THE STATE OR ANY AGENCY OR POLITICAL SUBDIVISION THEREOF.

The Corporation expects that the revenues pledged to secure the payment of the Offered Obligations and all other Outstanding Obligations will be sufficient to meet principal and interest payments on the Offered Obligations and all other Outstanding Obligations, and to pay all Administrative Expenses, Bond Fees and rebate or other required payments to the United States Treasury, if any, on the Tax-Exempt Bonds. The immediately preceding sentence is a forward-looking statement, and actual results may vary from stated expectations. APPENDIX G, "CASH FLOW ASSUMPTIONS AND OTHER CONSIDERATIONS" describes certain assumptions used by the Corporation in estimating such revenues and Administrative Expenses and Bond Fees, and describes certain factors that could affect the sufficiency of such revenues to meet such payments. For a discussion of some additional factors that could likewise affect the sufficiency of such revenues to meet such payments, see "RISK FACTORS". For a description of the terms and conditions of the various payments relating to the Pledged Eligible Loans, see "THE CORPORATION'S STUDENT LOAN PURCHASE PROGRAM", "THE GUARANTEE AGENCIES AND THE GUARANTEED STUDENT LOAN PROGRAM", and APPENDIX C, "DESCRIPTION OF THE FEDERAL FAMILY EDUCATION LOAN PROGRAM".

Certain Payment Priorities

With respect to the payment of current interest and principal payments and payment of any other obligations to Beneficiaries, Senior Obligations (which include the Prior Series Senior Obligations and will include upon their issuance the Offered Senior Obligations and any Additional Senior Obligations) and any other Senior Beneficiaries have certain payment priorities over Subordinate Obligations (which include the Prior Series Subordinate Obligations and will include upon their issuance the Offered Subordinate Obligations and any Additional Subordinate Obligations) and any other Subordinate Beneficiaries. If and to the extent that at any time funds pledged to the payment of the Obligations and amounts due to Other Beneficiaries are not sufficient to pay when due the interest thereon or principal on the Obligations and any amounts due to Other Beneficiaries, such funds will be applied first to the payment of interest on and principal of the Senior Obligations then Outstanding and any amounts due to Other Senior Beneficiaries before any of such funds are applied to the payment of interest on or principal of any Subordinate Obligations, or to any amounts due to Subordinate Beneficiaries. So long as any Senior Obligations are Outstanding or amounts are owed to other Senior Beneficiaries, failure to pay when due any principal of or interest on any Subordinate Obligations or any amount owed to a Subordinate Beneficiary does not constitute an Event of Default under the Indenture. If an Event of Default occurs and is continuing, so long as any Senior Obligations are Outstanding or amounts are owed to other Senior Beneficiaries, specific percentages of the holders of Senior Obligations and any Other Senior Beneficiaries will constitute the "Acting Beneficiaries Upon Default" for purposes of directing remedial proceedings. See "SECURITY AND SOURCES OF PAYMENT FOR THE OFFERED OBLIGATIONS -- Description of Flow of Revenues" and APPENDIX B, "CERTAIN DEFINITIONS AND SUMMARY OF CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF THE INDENTURE".

Description of Flow of Revenues

The Indenture establishes in the Trust Estate Fund a Revenue Account which is divided into a Principal Repayment Subaccount and an Income Subaccount. The Indenture requires the deposit into the Revenue Account of (i) all amounts received as principal and interest in repayment of Pledged Student Loans, including all federal interest subsidy payments, insurance and guarantee payments, and Special Allowance Payments received with respect to each Pledged Student Loan and proceeds from any sale of Pledged Student Loans, (ii) any premium paid by a Lender on the repurchase of a Pledged Student Loan pursuant to a Student Loan Purchase Agreement, (iii) all amounts received as earnings on or income from Investment Securities in the Trust Estate Fund, and (iv) any amounts permitted to be transferred to the Revenue Account from the Escrow Interest Account or the Rebate Account in the Non-Trust Estate Fund. The Trustee is required to credit all such revenues received as payments of principal of Pledged Student Loans to the Principal Repayment Subaccount, and to credit all other such revenues and amounts (including revenues received as payments of interest on or Special Allowance Payments with respect to Pledged Student Loans and income from Investment Securities) to the Income Subaccount.

The Indenture requires the Trustee to pay, or reimburse the Corporation for payment of, Bond Fees and Administrative Expenses, to make certain refunds and to transfer moneys on a monthly basis from the Revenue Account to the following Accounts and Subaccounts in the following order: (a) Senior Current Debt Service-Interest Subaccount; (b) Senior Current Debt Service-Principal Subaccount; (c) Senior Credit Enhancement Fees Subaccount; (d) Senior Sinking Fund Subaccount; (e) Subordinate Current Debt Service-Interest Subaccount; (f) Subordinate Current Debt Service-Principal Subaccount; (g) Subordinate Credit Enhancement Fees Subaccount; (h) Subordinate Sinking Fund Subaccount; (i) Reserve Subaccount (such amount, if any, as shall be necessary in order for the balance in such subaccount to equal the Reserve Requirement); (j) Original Proceeds Subaccount or Transferred Proceeds Subaccount (an amount equal to any charges to such Subaccounts for Debt Service); (k) Revolving Subaccount (such amount as shall have been specified by the Corporation and as shall not be reasonably expected to be needed for the payment of Debt Service, Administrative Expenses or Bond Fees, or for transfer to the Escrow Interest Account or the Rebate Account); and (l) Surplus Account.

From time to time amounts shall also be transferred from the Revenue Account to the Rebate Account and the Escrow Interest Account as specified in or determined in accordance with the "nonarbitrage certificates" executed by the Corporation in connection with the delivery of one or more Series of Tax-Exempt Bonds.

Balances in the Trust Estate Fund credited to the Surplus Account may be applied to pay Carry-over Amounts and may be transferred from time to time to the Senior Current Debt Service - Interest Subaccount, the Senior Current Debt Service - Principal Subaccount, the Senior Sinking Fund Subaccount, the Senior Credit Enhancement Fees Subaccount, the Subordinate Current Debt Service - Interest Subaccount, the Subordinate Current Debt Service - Principal Subaccount, the Subordinate Sinking Fund Subaccount, the Subordinate Credit Enhancement Fees Subaccount, the Redemption Subaccount and the Revolving Subaccount. Funds may be disbursed from the Surplus Account for other purposes determined by the Corporation upon receipt by the Trustee of: (1) a certification by the Corporation that, based on reasonable projections, any moneys to be so used are not reasonably expected to be needed for the payment of Debt Service, Administrative Expenses, Credit Enhancement Fees or Bond Fees, or for transfer to the Escrow Interest Account or the Rebate Account; (2) an opinion of counsel that such use is authorized and will not violate Mississippi law or adversely affect the exclusion from gross income for federal income tax purposes pursuant to Section 103 of the Code of interest on any of the Tax-Exempt Bonds; (3) evidence that, after taking into account any such application, (i) the aggregate of the Balances in the Trust Estate Fund in excess of Budgeted Administrative Expenses, Credit Enhancement Fees (if any) and Bond Fees for the next succeeding twelve months will be at least equal to 102% of the principal amount of, plus accrued and unpaid interest (net of any amounts owed by or to the Corporation pursuant to any Swap Agreements), on the Outstanding Obligations, and (ii) the Senior Asset Requirement will be met; and (4) a Cash Flow Certificate.

Balances in the Reserve Subaccount will be used and applied solely for the purpose of paying Debt Service.

The Indenture also establishes a Non-Trust Estate Fund into which the Trustee is required to make deposits and to apply the Balances therein in accordance with the "nonarbitrage certificates" executed by the Corporation in connection with the issuance of one or more Series of Tax-Exempt Bonds.

For a more detailed description of the receipt and application of moneys in the Trust Estate Fund, see APPENDIX B, "CERTAIN DEFINITIONS AND SUMMARY OF CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF THE INDENTURE -- Applications of Funds and Accounts".

Senior Asset Requirement

"Senior Asset Requirement" under the Indenture means: (a) with respect to expenditures and other uses of funds in the Surplus Account permitted by the Indenture and release of Student Loans from the lien of the Indenture under certain circumstances, (1) that the ratio of (A) the Balances credited to the Trust Estate Fund to (B) the aggregate principal amount of all Outstanding Senior Obligations plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon

(or, if greater, the aggregate outstanding notional amount of all Senior Swap Agreements plus accrued net obligations of the Corporation thereunder) is at least equal to 112% and (2) that the ratio of the Balances credited to the Trust Estate Fund to the aggregate principal of and accrued and unpaid interest on all Outstanding Obligations is at least equal to 103%; (b) with respect to redemption of Obligations, including redemption of Subordinate Obligations by operation of Sinking Fund Requirements, but excluding redemption of Senior Obligations by operation of Sinking Fund Requirements and with respect to all other cases not specifically addressed in (a) above, (1) that the ratio of (A) the Balances credited to the Trust Estate Fund to (B) the aggregate principal amount of all Outstanding Senior Obligations plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon (or, if greater, the aggregate outstanding notional amount of all Senior Swap Agreements plus accrued net obligations of the Corporation thereunder) is at least equal to 110% and (2) that the ratio of the Balances credited to the Trust Estate Fund to the aggregate principal of and accrued and unpaid interest on all Outstanding Obligations is at least equal to 102%; or (c) in any such case, such lower percentage as shall be set forth in either a Supplemental Indenture (including but not limited to a Series Supplement) or in a Corporation Order delivered to the Trustee and accompanied by: (1) if Senior Obligations are Outstanding which are rated on the basis of the assets in the Trust Estate (and not on the basis of any Credit Enhancement Facility or Remarketing Agreement), evidence from each Rating Agency that applying the lower percentage set forth in such Corporation Order in computing the Senior Asset Requirement will not cause the withdrawal or reduction of any rating or ratings then applicable to any Obligations; (2) if no Senior Obligations are Outstanding, (A) evidence of approval by each Senior Swap Counterparty (if any) of the use of the lower percentage set forth in such Corporation Order in computing the Senior Asset Requirement; and (B) if any Obligations are Outstanding, evidence from each Rating Agency that applying the lower percentage set forth in such Corporation Order in computing the Senior Asset Requirement will not cause the withdrawal or reduction of any rating or ratings then applicable to any Obligations. For purposes of issuance of the Offered Obligations, the Senior Asset Requirement will be the following as set forth in the Series 2000-A-2&3&B-2 Supplement in accordance with item (c) above: that the ratio of (1) the Balances credited to the Trust Estate Fund to (2) the aggregate principal amount of Senior Obligations plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon (or, if greater, the aggregate outstanding notional amount of all Senior Swap Agreements plus accrued net obligations of the Corporation thereunder), is at least equal to (3) 109 %, and that the ratio of the Balances credited to the Trust Estate Fund to the aggregate principal of and accrued and unpaid interest on all Outstanding Obligations is at least equal to 98.3 %.

Reserve Requirement

The Obligations, including the Offered Obligations, will be secured additionally by amounts in the Reserve Subaccount established under the Indenture. Under the Indenture, the Corporation is required to maintain an amount of funds equal to the Reserve Requirement on deposit in the Reserve Subaccount. The Reserve Requirement is an amount equal to the greatest of: 2% of the Outstanding principal amount of Obligations; $500,000; or such greater amount as shall be specified in a Series Supplement.

Swap Agreements

Under the Indenture, the Corporation has the ability to enter into an Interest Rate Swap Agreement (the "Swap Agreement") with one or more Swap Counterparties. If the Corporation enters into such an agreement with a Swap Counterparty, such Swap Counterparty will agree to pay the Trustee on each date on which a Corporation Swap Payment is due, a fixed or variable swap rate on the principal amount, or part thereof, of the Series of Senior Obligations or Subordinate Obligations Outstanding to which the Swap Agreement relates; and the Corporation will agree to pay on each date on which such a payment is due, by causing the Trustee to pay to the Swap Counterparty, a fixed or variable swap rate. The Corporation expects that any such Swap Agreement will provide that the payment obligations of the Corporation and a Swap Counterparty to each other will be netted on each date on which such a payment is due, and only one payment will be made by one party to the other. Any payment from a Swap Counterparty to the Trustee under a Swap Agreement shall be deposited to the Trust Estate. At such times that the swap rate being paid by the Swap Counterparty is greater than the swap rate being paid by the Corporation, the Trustee's ability to make principal and interest payments on the Obligations may be affected by the Swap Counterparty's ability to meet its net payment obligations to the Trustee. See "RISK FACTORS" herein. The Indenture requires that no Series Supplement shall authorize the execution of a Swap Agreement unless, as of the date the Corporation enters into such Swap Agreement, either the Swap Counterparty or the party executing a Swap Counterparty Guarantee has outstanding obligations rated by each Rating Agency not lower than its third highest Specific Rating Category (or each Rating Agency has a comparable other rating with respect to such Swap Counterparty or party executing a Swap Counterparty Guarantee, such as a comparable rating of claims paying ability or deposits), and no such Swap Agreement shall be executed unless the Trustee shall have received written confirmation from each Rating Agency that the execution and delivery of such Swap Agreement will not result in the reduction or withdrawal of any rating or ratings then applicable to any of the Obligations.

Issuance of Additional Series of Obligations

The Indenture allows the issuance pursuant to Series Supplements of Additional Obligations from time to time and allows the granting of a lien in favor of owners of Additional Obligations either: (a) on a parity with the lien granted in favor of the owners of the Senior Obligations and any other Senior Beneficiaries; (b) subordinate to the lien granted in favor of the owners of the Senior Obligations and any other Senior Beneficiaries, and on a parity with the lien granted in favor of the owners of the Subordinate Obligations and other Subordinate Beneficiaries; or (c) subordinate to the lien granted in favor of the owners of the Subordinate Obligations and other Subordinate Beneficiaries. See APPENDIX B, "CERTAIN DEFINITIONS AND SUMMARY OF CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF THE INDENTURE". Under the Indenture, the Corporation does not have the right to issue Additional Obligations, notes, bonds or other obligations which constitute or create a lien on the Trust Estate senior to the lien granted in favor of the owners of the Senior Obligations.

RISK FACTORS

Payment by the Corporation of principal of and interest on the Offered Obligations is subject to certain risks. Particular attention should be given to the factors described below, which, among others, could materially and adversely affect the payment by the Corporation of Debt Service on the Offered Obligations, and which could also materially and adversely affect the market price of the Offered Obligations to an extent that cannot be determined. This section of this Official Statement does not include all risks to which such repayment by the Corporation is subject, but is an attempt to summarize certain of such risks. Each prospective purchaser of any of the Offered Obligations should read this Official Statement in its entirety. For a description of the Corporation's principal assumptions used in the preparation of its cash flow projections for the Offered Obligations and payment dates of the Offered Obligations and other investment considerations, see APPENDIX G, "CASH FLOW ASSUMPTIONS AND OTHER CONSIDERATIONS".

(i) Noncompliance with Higher Education Act. The Higher Education Act and the applicable regulations require that the lenders making Student Loans, guarantee agencies guaranteeing Student Loans and lenders and third-party servicers servicing Student Loans follow certain specified procedures in an effort to insure that Student Loans are properly made and disbursed to, and timely repaid by, the borrowers. Such procedures include, but are not limited to, due diligence procedures, to ensure among other things that (i) Guaranteed Loans are properly made and disbursed to or for the benefit of and repaid by eligible borrowers, (ii) applicable origination, guaranty and other fees are properly paid, (iii) claims for applicable interest subsidy payments and Special Allowance Payments are properly made and (iv) default claims to Guarantee Agencies or the Secretary, as applicable, are properly made. The procedures to make, guarantee and service Student Loans are specifically set forth in Part 682 of Title 34 of the Code of Federal Regulations (particularly 34 C.F.R. 682.206-.208, .406, .411, .500 and .507) and no attempt has been made in this Official Statement to completely describe those procedures. Generally, however, those procedures require lenders to process completed loan applications, determine whether an applicant is an eligible borrower under the Higher Education Act, determine the loan amount, explain to the borrowers their responsibilities under the loan, have each borrower execute a promissory note, and finally disburse the loan proceeds. Once a borrower becomes delinquent in repaying a loan, a holder (i.e., the Corporation as owner of the loan) must perform certain collection procedures (primarily telephone calls and demand letters) which vary depending upon the length of time a loan is delinquent. The Corporation fully intends to comply or cause the Servicers to comply with all requirements of the Higher Education Act with respect to such matters. However, there can be no assurance that failures or delays in compliance with the requirements of the Higher Education Act with respect to Guaranteed Loans in the Trust Estate will not occur or that the revenues to be derived with respect to the Trust Estate will be sufficient to pay the principal of and interest on the Offered Obligations, as and when due.

The procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph following disbursement of a Student Loan are generally performed for the Corporation by the Servicers, as third-party servicers. Effective July 1, 1994, the Secretary of the Department of Education adopted new regulations amending the Student Assistance General Provisions and the Federal Family Education Loan Program ("FFELP") regulations, affecting third-party servicers. These regulations, among other things, establish requirements governing contracts between institutions and third-party servicers, strengthen sanctions against institutions for violations of the program requirements of the Higher Education Act, establish similar sanctions for third-party servicers and establish standards of administrative and financial responsibility for third-party servicers that administer any aspect of a guarantee agency's or lender's participation in the FFELP. Under these regulations, a third-party servicer is jointly and severally liable with its client lenders for liabilities to the Secretary arising from the servicer's violation of applicable requirements. In addition, if a servicer fails to meet standards of financial responsibility or administrative capability included in the new regulations, or violates other FFELP requirements, the new regulations authorize the Secretary to fine the servicer and/or limit, suspend or terminate the servicer's eligibility to contract to service FFELP loans. The effect of such a limitation or termination on the servicer's eligibility to service loans already on the system or new loans under existing contracts is unclear. There can be no assurance that a servicer will not be held liable by the Secretary for liabilities arising out of its FFELP activities for the Corporation or other client lenders or that its eligibility will not be limited, suspended or terminated in the future.

Failure to follow such procedures and meet such standards may result in loss of Special Allowance Payments or in the Secretary's refusal to make reinsurance payments to a Guarantor on such loans or in a Guarantor's refusal to honor its guarantee on such loans to the Trustee. Failure of Guarantors to receive reinsurance payments from the Secretary could adversely affect their ability to honor guarantee claims made by the Trustee, and loss of Special Allowance Payments or guarantee payments to the Trustee could adversely affect the ability to pay principal of and interest on the Offered Obligations. The Corporation has the right to resell the Eligible Loans to the Lenders under certain circumstances or recover any lost Special Allowance Payments or guarantee payments from the Servicer who failed to properly service loans. See "THE CORPORATION'S STUDENT LOAN PURCHASE PROGRAM - Summary of Student Loan Purchase Agreements" and "Servicing and Due Diligence". However, there is no guarantee a Lender or a Servicer would be able to pay for such losses.

(ii) Actual Cash Flow Results May Be Materially and Adversely Different; Inability of Trustee to Liquidate Trust Estate. Actual receipt of revenues or actual expenditure results may vary greatly from the initial Cash Flow Projection which eventually may result in the inability of the Corporation to pay principal of and interest on the Offered Obligations when due. In such event, the Indenture authorizes the Trustee to declare an Event of Default, accelerate the payment of the Offered Obligations and the other Outstanding Obligations, and sell the Pledged Eligible Loans and all other assets of the Trust Estate. It may be difficult to find a purchaser in a timely manner, if at all, and the Pledged Eligible Loans may be sold below their par value, possibly resulting in an insufficient amount of money to pay all principal of and accrued interest on the Offered Obligations.

(iii) Prepayment of Pledged Eligible Loans. Pledged Eligible Loans which may have been acquired at a price in excess of the principal balance thereof may be prepaid by borrowers at any time. (For this purpose the term "prepayments" includes prepayments in full or in part (including pursuant to the FFELP Consolidation Loan Program and the Federal Direct Consolidation Loan Program) and liquidations due to default (including receipt of payments under the Guarantee Program).) The rate of prepayments on the Pledged Eligible Loans may be influenced by a variety of economic, social and other factors affecting borrowers, including interest rates, the availability of alternative financing and the general job market for graduates of institutions of higher education. In addition, under certain circumstances, the seller of the Student Loan will be obligated to repurchase, or the Servicer will be obligated to purchase, Pledged Eligible Loans from the Trust Estate as a result of breaches of their respective representations, warranties or covenants in their respective agreements with the Corporation. The volume of Pledged Eligible Loans that may be consolidated through the FFELP Consolidation Loan Program or the Federal Direct Consolidation Loan Program or that may be purchased or repurchased from the Trust Estate is not determinable at this time.

(iv) Changes in the Higher Education Act. In recent years federally enacted legislation has made substantial changes to the current guaranteed education loan programs under the Higher Education Act. Among other things, such legislation has established a Federal Direct Student Loan Program and amended the Higher Education Act in ways which affect existing programs, such as adjustments to the level of guarantee payments from time-to-time. See APPENDIX C --“DESCRIPTION OF THE FEDERAL FAMILY EDUCATION LOAN PROGRAM.” No prior amendments have been retrospective in their application to loans originated or disbursed prior to the effective date of such amendments. Nevertheless, there can be no assurance that the Higher Education Act will be reauthorized by Congress prior to or after the present authorization through June 30, 2003 or that such reauthorization will not change current provisions of the Higher Education Act or that future amendments will not be made to all or portions of the Higher Education Act, any or all of which may materially adversely affect the sufficiency of the Guaranteed Loans constituting the Trust Estate and the revenues to be derived with respect to the Trust Estate.

(v) Financial Status of Guarantors. In the event the financial status of any Guarantor and its ability to honor guarantee claims were to deteriorate over time, such event may result in an inability to make guarantee payments to the Corporation. One of the primary reasons for a possible deterioration in a Guarantor’s financial status is related to the amount and percentage of loans guaranteed by a Guarantor which were made to students attending proprietary or trade schools. Historically, proprietary school loans have defaulted at rates much higher than loans made to students or parents of students attending four-year schools or two-year schools. As described under the caption “THE GUARANTEE AGENCIES AND THE GUARANTEED STUDENT LOAN PROGRAM”, the percentage of federal reimbursement to a Guarantor of Eligible Loans is based upon the amount of federal reimbursement payments made to such a Guarantor as a percentage of the principal amount of such Guarantor’s guaranteed loans in repayment at the end of the preceding fiscal year. Default claims above specified percentile levels, as calculated annually, result in a reduction in the amount of federal reimbursement paid by the Department of Education to a Guarantor. A reduction in reimbursements resulting from default rates could thus financially weaken the Guarantor and cause the Guarantor’s reserve fund to fall below levels necessary in order to pay claims submitted by lenders. Under the 1992 Reauthorization to the Higher Education Act, the Secretary will collect annually information from each Guarantor to determine the Guarantor’s solvency. If the Guarantor fails to meet the requirements of the 1992 Reauthorization, the Secretary may terminate the Guarantor’s reinsurance contract with the Secretary and, among other things, permit the transfer of guarantees to another Guarantor or to the Secretary for the payment by the Secretary of any claims with respect thereto. If the Secretary has determined that a Guarantor is unable to meet its insurance obligations, the holder of loans insured by the Guarantor may submit insurance claims directly to the Secretary and the Secretary will pay to the holder the full insurance obligation of the Guarantor, in accordance with insurance requirements no more stringent than those of the Guarantor. Such arrangements will continue until the Secretary is satisfied that the insurance obligations have been transferred to another Guarantor who can meet those obligations or a successor will assume the outstanding insurance obligations. There can be no assurance, however, that the Secretary will ever make such a determination or will do so in a timely manner. The Secretary is also authorized, on terms and conditions satisfactory to the Secretary, to make advances to a Guarantor in order to assist the Guarantor in meeting its immediate cash needs and to ensure uninterrupted payment of default claims. See APPENDIX C, “DESCRIPTION OF THE FEDERAL FAMILY EDUCATION LOAN PROGRAM”.

The 1998 Reauthorization to the Higher Education Act also contains certain amendments affecting Guarantors, such as reducing the reinsurance rates from the Secretary for Eligible Loans disbursed after October 1, 1998 and reducing the default collection retention rate. The Secretary was also given authority to recover and restrict the use of Guarantor reserve funds under certain circumstances. See “THE GUARANTEE AGENCIES AND THE GUARANTEED STUDENT LOAN PROGRAM” and APPENDIX C, “DESCRIPTION OF THE FEDERAL FAMILY EDUCATION LOAN PROGRAM”.

(vi) Financial Status of Any Swap Counterparty Provider or a Swap Counterparty Guarantee. Whenever a Swap Agreement relating to any Series of Obligations is executed, at such times that the interest rate being paid by a Swap Counterparty is greater than the interest rate being paid by the Corporation, the Trustee’s ability to make principal and interest payments on the Offered Obligations may be affected by such Swap Counterparty’s ability or the ability of any provider of a Swap Counterparty Guarantee to meet its net payment obligation to the Trustee.

(vii) General Economic Conditions. Certain general economic conditions such as a downturn in the economy resulting in increasing unemployment either regionally or nationally may result in an increase in defaults by borrowers in repaying Eligible Loans, thus causing increased default claims to be paid by Guarantors. It is impossible to predict the status of the economy or unemployment levels or at which point a downturn in the economy would impair a Guarantor's ability to pay default claims. See "THE GUARANTEE AGENCIES AND THE GUARANTEED STUDENT LOAN PROGRAM".

(viii) Enforceability of Remedies. The remedies available to the Trustee, the Corporation or Holders upon an Event of Default under the Indenture are in many respects dependent upon judicial actions which are often subject to discretion and delay. Under existing constitutional and statutory law and judicial decisions, including specifically Title 11 of the United States Code (the federal bankruptcy code), the remedies provided in the Indenture may not be readily available or may be limited. The various legal opinions delivered concurrently with the delivery of the Offered Obligations are qualified as to the enforceability of the various legal instruments by limitations imposed by bankruptcy, reorganization, insolvency or other similar laws affecting the rights of creditors generally.

(ix) Consolidation of Federal Benefit Billing and Receipts and Guarantor Claims with Other Trust Estates. Due to a change in the Department of Education's policy with respect to the granting of new lender identification numbers, the availability of such numbers has become restricted. As a result, it may be necessary for the Trustee to utilize for its own lending operations, or to permit other student loan trust estates established by the Corporation to utilize, or to permit other issuers of obligations securitized by student loans to utilize the Department of Education lender identification number that is being used by the Trustee for the Trust Estate created under the Indenture. In that event, the billings submitted to the Department of Education for Interest Subsidy and Special Allowance Payments on Pledged Eligible Loans would be consolidated with the billings for such payments for student loans not in the Trust Estate. All such billings would use the same lender identification number. Payments on such billings would be made by the Department of Education in lump sum form. Such lump sum payments would then be allocated by the Trustee among the various student loans using the same lender identification number.

In addition, the sharing of the lender identification number by the Trust Estate with student loans not in the Trust Estate may result in the receipt of claim payments from the Guarantors in lump sum form. In that event, such payments would be allocated by the Trustee among the student loans in a manner similar to the allocation process for Interest Subsidy and Special Allowance Payments.

The Department of Education regards the Trustee as the party primarily responsible to the Department of Education for any liabilities owed to the Department or the Guarantors resulting from the Trustee's activities in the FFELP. As a result, if the Department or a Guarantor were to determine that the Trustee owes a liability to the Department or such Guarantor on any student loan using the shared lender identification number, the Department or such Guarantor would be likely to collect that liability by offset against amounts due the Trustee under the shared lender identification number, including amounts owed in connection with the Trust Estate.

In addition, in a given calendar quarter, the Trustee with respect to its own loans or any trust estate sharing a lender identification number with the Trust Estate may incur consolidation origination fees that exceed the Interest Subsidy and Special Allowance Payments payable by the Department of Education with respect to the Trustee's own loans or the loan held in such other trust estates. This could result in the consolidated payment from the Department received by the Trustee under such lender identification number for the quarter equaling an amount that is less than the amount owed by the Department of Education on the Pledged Eligible Loans in the Trust Estate for that quarter.

(x) Prepayment of the Offered Obligations Due to Failure to Acquire Student Loans. To the extent that moneys deposited into the Original Proceeds Subaccount and the Revolving Subaccount of the Acquisition Account are not used prior to the applicable date to purchase Eligible Loans, such moneys will be used to redeem Offered Obligations which would otherwise not have been redeemed or which would have been redeemed at a later date. See "REDEMPTION - Mandatory Redemption of Offered Obligations from Moneys in Acquisition Account".

THE CORPORATION

Organization and Powers

The Corporation is a Mississippi nonprofit corporation organized under Title 79, Chapter 11, Mississippi Code of 1972, as amended. The Corporation was organized in January, 1980, at the request of the Board of Trustees of State Institutions of Higher Learning of the State (the "Board of Trustees") and the Post-Secondary Education Financial Assistance Board of the State (the "Post-Secondary Board"), for the exclusive purpose of acquiring Student Loans incurred under the Higher Education Act in accordance with Section 103(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (subsequently recodified as Subsection 150(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended). The requests of such Boards were made on January 17, 1980, and January 18, 1980, respectively. Additionally, the Division of Federal-State-Local Programs within the office of the Governor of the State on July 30, 1981, requested that the Corporation be organized and exercise its powers and confirmed on behalf of the State the requests previously made by the Board of Trustees and the Post-Secondary Board. The Corporation is not an agency or instrumentality of the State or any agency or political subdivision thereof.

The Corporation has received Internal Revenue Service determination letters to the effect that it is a tax-exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code and that the Corporation is not a private foundation within the meaning of Section 509(a) of the Code because it is an organization of the type described in Sections 170(b)(1)(A)(vi) and 509(a)(1) of the Code.

The Corporation's Charter of Incorporation provides, among other things, that the Corporation is established and shall be operated exclusively for the purpose of acquiring student loan notes and shall devote any income (after payment of expenses, debt service and the creation of reserves for the same) to the purchase of additional student loan notes or to pay over any income to the United States. In the event of dissolution of the Corporation, the balance of money and other property received by the Corporation from any source, after payment of the Offered Obligations and all other debts and obligations of the Corporation, shall be paid over to the United States.

The Corporation is not an Eligible Lender under the Higher Education Act except for purposes of Consolidation Loans, and, therefore, the Trustee will be the holder of the Eligible Loans to be acquired by the Corporation as authorized by the Higher Education Act. Pledged Eligible Loans will be assigned to the Trustee, which is an Eligible Lender and which will hold the Pledged Eligible Loans in trust on behalf of the Corporation. The Trustee and the Secretary of Education entered into the Contract of Insurance on August 12, 1982, and the Trustee was at that time issued an Eligible Lender identification number by the Secretary of Education. The Trustee has entered into one or more Guarantee Agreements with one or more Guarantors.

The Corporation has no full-time staff members. Education Services Foundation (the "Foundation") began management of the Corporation as of May 1, 1997, pursuant to a management services agreement. In addition, the Foundation acquired all or substantially all of the operating assets of the Corporation (not including student loans), pursuant to an asset purchase agreement, dated as of April 11, 1997, for an amount based on their appraised fair market value. In connection with the transfer of such assets, the former employees of the Corporation were employed by the Foundation to manage the Corporation and administer its student loan secondary market activities. The Corporation pays a fair and reasonable management fee to the Foundation for such services. The Foundation currently employs a full-time staff consisting of 20 members, including administrative, marketing, program development, finance, accounting, auditing, default prevention and academic planning center staff. Mr. Smith is the Executive Director of the Foundation.

The persons who were, at the time, serving as the Board of Directors of the Corporation established the Foundation as a Mississippi nonprofit corporation on March 24, 1995, under Title 79, Chapter 11, Mississippi Code of 1972, as amended. The Foundation engages in a variety of activities intended to increase the level of appropriate quality education in the State and elsewhere. These activities relate primarily to education finance and to activities designed to increase the knowledge that parents and students have concerning the means necessary to achieve appropriate quality education. The Foundation also conducts a secondary market for student loans under the Federal Family Education Loan Program described in APPENDIX C, "DESCRIPTION OF THE FEDERAL FAMILY EDUCATION LOAN PROGRAM".

General Information Regarding the Foundation

The Foundation has received an Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") determination letter to the effect that it is a tax-exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code. The Foundation has also received an advance ruling for a period ending on December 31, 1999, from the IRS that the Foundation can reasonably be expected to be a publicly supported organization described in Section 509(a) of the Code. Within ninety days after the end of the Foundation's advance ruling period further information was required to be submitted to the IRS to determine if the Foundation has met the applicable public support requirements to continue to be treated as a publicly supported organization described in Section 509(a) of the Code. The Foundation submitted such information on or about March 27, 2000. If the Foundation establishes that it has been a publicly supported organization during the advance ruling period, it will be classified as a Section 509(a)(1) or 509(a)(2) organization as long as it continues to meet the requirements of the applicable support test. If it is determined that the Foundation is not an organization described in Section 509(a) of the Code, the Foundation would be treated as a private foundation for future periods. If the Foundation is classified as a private foundation, the Foundation will be treated as a private foundation from the date of its inception for purposes of Sections 507(d) and 4940 of the Code.

The Foundation provides a variety of services. These services include a toll-free financial aid telephone hotline, an Internet home page, and developing and operating a center for academic planning. The telephone hotline is intended to provide information to borrowers and prospective borrowers that will facilitate repayment of student loans by borrowers and minimize excessive borrowing by prospective borrowers. The Foundation has established a home page on the Internet to provide information relating to the application process for acquiring student loans, the associated costs, and default prevention techniques. The Foundation has established its first center for academic planning which helps students and their parents evaluate and plan for education financing. The Foundation intends to develop and operate additional centers for academic planning in the future. The Foundation has also established and operates a Delta Scholars program designed to assist students in the Mississippi Delta region of the State with college planning and related financial aid needs.

During 1998 the Foundation was designated by the Governor of the State as the single nonprofit private agency student loan lender for the State. The Foundation is in the process of completing contractual and other arrangements which will permit the Foundation to act as a lender. It is currently anticipated that the Foundation will commence lending operations on or about May 15, 2000 and that lending operations will be conducted under the name College Access Loan Services. The Foundation also may seek designation in the future to act as the lender of last resort (as defined by the Higher Education Act) for the State. Loans originated and retained by the Foundation are expected to be serviced by the Foundation until such loans have entered repayment. It is currently anticipated that some or all of the loans originated by the Foundation will be sold to the Corporation prior to the time the loans enter repayment. The Foundation may in the future provide servicing for some or all of such loans for the Corporation until the loans enter repayment.

It is anticipated that the Foundation will commence additional activities related to its stated educational purpose. Additional activities of the Foundation may include developing and administering other student loan finance programs, providing services to assist financial aid and related offices to operate more effectively and take full advantage of state and federal financial aid programs, providing student loan origination and in-school student loan servicing for third parties, providing scholarships to students to assist them in financing their post-secondary education, providing grants to schools to assist them in providing financial aid to students, and providing other needed charitable activities related to educational financial aid.

The Foundation's Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws provide, among other things, that the Foundation is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code. In the event of dissolution of the Foundation, the assets of the Foundation shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such asset not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the chancery court of the county in which the principal office of the Foundation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

The Foundation has no members. The directors of the Foundation are authorized to select their successors. All of the officers and the seven directors of the Foundation also serve as officers and directors of the Corporation. The Corporation has one director who does not serve as a director of the Foundation.

Other Outstanding Bonds and Notes of the Corporation and Related Student Loans

As of January 31, 2000, the Corporation had outstanding approximately $625,045,000 (including approximately $15,000,000 of Series 1994 Refunded Bonds) in principal amount of student loan bonds and notes and held a total of approximately $448,218,000 unpaid principal amount of Student Loans. Except for $166,000,000 in principal amount of Prior Series Obligations issued under the Indenture, all of these student loan bonds and notes have been issued under trust indentures other than the Indenture. Except for approximately $97,830,000 unpaid principal amount of Student Loans acquired with the proceeds of the Prior Series Obligations (and except for approximately $49,572,000 unpaid principal amount of Student Loans acquired on February 4 and 8, 2000 with the proceeds of the Prior Series Obligations), all of the Student Loans and other assets are held under indentures other than the Indenture and are subject to the lien of these other indentures. None of the assets or revenues from these other indentures are pledged to secure, or otherwise required to be applied by the Corporation to pay, the Offered Obligations, and none of the Student Loans or other assets and revenues to be acquired with the proceeds of the Offered Obligations will be pledged to secure, or will otherwise be required to be applied by the Corporation to pay, such other student loan bonds and notes.

Other Information

The Corporation's mailing address is Mississippi Higher Education Assistance Corporation, Post Office Box 5006, Jackson, Mississippi 39296, and its telephone number is (601) 981-9425. The Corporation will provide without charge to any Holder, upon written request of such Holder, copies of its audited financial statements.

THE CORPORATION'S STUDENT LOAN PURCHASE PROGRAM

General

The Corporation conducts a secondary market for Student Loans. The Corporation encourages Lender participation in the Program through the use of telephone calls, letters and meetings with Lenders, participation in financial aid officers' meetings and other conferences, and through the use of promotional materials. The objective of the Corporation's plan is to attract new Lenders and to encourage the continued participation of Lenders who already sell Student Loans to the Corporation by providing superior service and assistance to Lenders currently participating and by informing other Lenders of the Program.

As discussed under "CASH FLOW ASSUMPTIONS AND OTHER CONSIDERATIONS -- Changes in Federal Law", the Student Loan Reform Act of 1993 enacted a variety of changes in the Federal Family Education Loan Program, including the enactment of a new student loan program with direct lending by the Department of Education to students and other changes which may have a material adverse impact on the Corporation's Program. Among other things, the Student Loan Reform Act of 1993 provided that such a direct federal loan program could replace, in whole or in part, the Corporation's Program by academic year 1999-2000. However, the 1998 Reauthorization deleted all references to a "transition" to full implementation of the direct lending program.

The following table lists the approximate aggregate outstanding principal balances of all Student Loans acquired by the Corporation from the proceeds of its student loan revenue bond issues during each of the last five fiscal years.

Year Ended December 31	Student Loans Acquired
1995	$84,309,000
1996	$60,772,000
1997	$48,365,000
1998	$64,786,000
1999	$91,459,000

Description of Eligible Loans To Be Acquired

The Corporation expects to acquire Eligible Loans with certain proceeds of the Offered Obligations and with payments to be received from borrowers, the Guarantee Agencies, other Qualified Guarantors or the Secretary of Education with respect to Pledged Eligible Loans. See "APPLICATION OF THE PROCEEDS OF THE OFFERED OBLIGATIONS" and APPENDIX B - "CERTAIN DEFINITIONS AND SUMMARY OF CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF THE INDENTURE -- Application of Funds and Accounts --- Acquisition Account".

The Pledged Eligible Loans consist of Eligible Loans for which the beneficiary is in school, has commenced repayment of principal on a loan or is in a grace period or a deferment period with respect to repayment. Borrowers (other than borrowers of PLUS/SLS Loans) are required to begin repaying Student Loans after the six- to twelve-month grace period following termination of pursuit of at least a half-time course of study; in addition, repayment may be delayed during any deferment or forbearance period occurring after termination of the grace period. The repayment for borrowers of PLUS/SLS Loans begins after final disbursement of the loan by a Lender subject to certain deferral provisions. Borrowers of unsubsidized Stafford Loans are required to begin repaying principal after the six month grace period following termination of at least half-time school enrollment. Interest on unsubsidized Stafford Loans for which payments are not required during the in-school or grace periods or during deferment shall be paid by the borrower monthly or quarterly or capitalized not more frequently than quarterly by the lender.

The Corporation may in the future offer one or more Approved Borrower Benefit Programs which provide interest rate reductions, principal forgiveness and other financial benefits to borrowers. (See APPENDIX B, “CERTAIN DEFINITIONS AND SUMMARY OF CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF THE INDENTURE--Certain Definitions--“Approved Borrower Benefit Program”.

Summary Of Student Loan Purchase Agreements

The Student Loan Purchase Agreements relating to the sale of Eligible Loans to the Corporation (including Student Loan Purchase Agreements as amended from time to time) will include representations and warranties that all Student Loans purchased pursuant thereto are Eligible Loans, and will require that the Lender repurchase any Student Loan purchased by the Corporation thereunder, upon the request of the Corporation or its successors and assigns, if (a) any representation or warranty made or furnished by the Lender in or pursuant to such Student Loan Purchase Agreement shall prove to have been materially incorrect as to such Student Loan; (b) the Secretary of Education or the applicable Guarantee Agency, as the case may be, refuses to honor all or part of a claim filed with respect to such Student Loan (including any claim for Interest Benefit Payments, Special Allowance Payments, or reinsurance or guarantee payments) on account of any circumstance or event that occurred prior to the sale of such Student Loan to the Corporation; or (c) the Corporation rejects a Student Loan pursuant to the terms of such Student Loan Purchase Agreement because such Student Loan does not constitute an Eligible Loan.

Servicing and Due Diligence

Each of SunTech, Inc. (“SunTech”), and Pennsylvania Higher Education Assistance Agency (“PHEAA”) service the Corporation’s Student Loans, including the Pledged Eligible Loans, pursuant to Servicing Agreements with either the Corporation or the Foundation. It is also anticipated that prior to the repayment period (as defined by the Higher Education Act) a portion of the Corporation’s Student Loans, including a portion of the Pledged Eligible Loans, will be serviced by the Corporation and/or the Foundation.

The Corporation and SunTech have recently entered into a new Servicing Agreement, the term of which will (subject to certain conditions) extend until all principal of and interest on Student Loans serviced thereunder are paid in full. The term of the Servicing Agreement with PHEAA is scheduled to continue until such time as the principal and interest on the student loans serviced by PHEAA are paid in full. The Corporation has given notice of termination of its Servicing Agreement with UNIPAC Service Corporation (“UNIPAC”). The process of transferring its Student Loans from the UNIPAC servicing system to the SunTech servicing system was substantially completed on or prior to March 1, 2000.

SunTech, a Mississippi business corporation, is the Corporation’s primary servicer, but it is anticipated that PHEAA, a public corporation and governmental instrumentality organized under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, with its principal servicing operations located in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, will service a substantial portion of the Student Loans acquired with the proceeds of the Offered Obligations. SunTech and PHEAA have available to them the systems and services to enable them to process and service Student Loans in accordance with the requirements of the Higher Education Act. Under the Servicing Agreements, SunTech’s and PHEAA’s services include providing statistical information to the Secretary of Education to ensure payment of interest benefit and Special Allowance Payments, contacting borrowers in repayment, collecting payments, performing due diligence, and providing student loan origination services for certain lenders. Based on the Corporation’s review of audits and reports regarding the servicing operations of SunTech and PHEAA, the Corporation believes that SunTech and PHEAA are substantially in compliance with the servicing requirements of the Higher Education Act.

The Higher Education Act requires that “due diligence” be exercised in the making, servicing and collection of Pledged Eligible Loans. The Higher Education Act defines “due diligence” to require the holder of an Eligible Loan to utilize origination, servicing, and collection practices at least as extensive and forceful as those generally practiced by financial institutions for the collection of consumer loans. Additionally, the Higher Education Act provides certain minimum standards for due diligence procedures.

The Higher Education Act sets out procedures for establishing due diligence under the FISL Program and requires the Secretary of Education to disqualify an “eligible lender” (which could include the Trustee as a holder of Eligible Loans) from further Insurance if the Secretary of Education is not satisfied that the due diligence standard will be met. If the Corporation, or SunTech, PHEAA, the Corporation or the Foundation, as servicers, or any other servicer, fails to meet such standards, the Trustee could be disqualified as an eligible lender and its ability to realize the benefits of Insurance may be adversely affected. The Trustee's responsibilities with respect to servicing Pledged Eligible Loans are limited under the Indenture. See APPENDIX B, "CERTAIN DEFINITIONS AND SUMMARY OF CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF THE INDENTURE -- Certain Covenants -- Trustee's Duties to Monitor Servicing".

The Higher Education Act also requires that the Guarantee Agencies ensure that due diligence is exercised by Lenders in making, servicing and collecting Student Loans guaranteed by the Guarantee Agencies and that due diligence be exercised by each Guarantee Agency in collecting Student Loans which it holds. The Guarantee Agencies have established procedures and standards for due diligence to be exercised by Lenders which hold Student Loans that are guaranteed by the Guarantee Agencies. If SunTech, PHEAA, the Corporation or the Foundation, as servicers, or any other servicer, does not comply with the due diligence standards established by the Guarantee Agencies, then the Trustee's ability to realize the benefits of Guarantee payments and the Guarantee Agencies' ability to realize the benefits of federal reinsurance payments may be adversely affected.

Under the Indenture, the Corporation is permitted to engage additional Servicers and to replace Servicers, so long as the Servicers are selected by the Corporation in a competent, diligent and orderly fashion and in accordance with all requirements of the Higher Education Act, the Secretary of Education, applicable regulations of guarantee agencies and the Indenture.

The Corporation does not expect that TSAC, LASFAC, KHEAA or PHEAA will be guarantors on any material amount of the Pledged Eligible Loans acquired with the proceeds of the Offered Obligations, and consequently TSAC, LASFAC, KHEAA and PHEAA have not supplied similar information for this Official Statement.

United Student Aid Funds, Inc.

United Student Aid Funds, Inc. (herein referred to as "USAF") was organized as a private, non-profit corporation under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware in 1960. In accordance with its Certificate of Incorporation, USAF (i) maintains facilities for the provision of guarantee services with respect to approved education loans made to or for the benefit of eligible students who are enrolled at or plan to attend approved educational institutions; (ii) guarantees education loans made pursuant to certain loan programs under the Higher Education Act, as well as loans made under private loan programs; and (iii) serves as the designated guarantor for education loan programs under the Higher Education Act in Alaska, Arizona, Hawaii, Indiana, Kansas, Maryland, Mississippi, Nevada, Wyoming, and certain Pacific Islands.

In addition to the above-identified activities, USAF is affiliated with USA Group Guarantee Services, Inc. (formerly known as USA Services, Inc.), a Delaware private, non-profit corporation, which provides varying degrees of services to the following guaranty agencies: Student Loan Guaranty Foundation of Arkansas, Iowa College Student Aid Commission, Louisiana Office of Student Financial Assistance, Finance Authority of Maine, Michigan Guaranty Agency, Montana Guaranteed Student Loan Program, New Mexico Student Loan Guarantee Corporation, Northwest Education Loan Association, Oklahoma Guaranteed Student Loan Program, Oregon Student Assistance Commission, and Rhode Island Higher Education Assistance Authority. USAF contracts with USA Group Guarantee Services, Inc. for most of its guarantee services. Certain trustees and officers of USAF are also directors or officers of USA Group Guarantee Services, Inc.

USAF is also affiliated with USA Group Loan Services, Inc. (formerly known as Education Loan Servicing Center, Inc.). USA Group Loan Services, Inc. was organized under the laws of the State of Delaware in 1982 as a private, non-profit corporation to provide conversion services, data processing, and other assistance necessary in connection with the acquisition and servicing of education loans by primary lenders and secondary markets. Certain trustees and officers of USAF are also trustees or officers of USA Group Loan Services, Inc.

For the purpose of providing loan guarantees under the Higher Education Act, USAF has entered into various agreements with the Secretary of Education (collectively, the "USAF Federal Reinsurance Agreements"). Pursuant to the USAF Federal Reinsurance Agreements, USAF serves as a "guaranty agency" as defined in Section 435(j) of the Higher Education Act. The Higher Education Act allows the Secretary, after giving the guaranty agency notice and the opportunity for a hearing, to terminate the USAF Federal Reinsurance Agreements if the Secretary determines that the administrative or financial condition of the guaranty agency jeopardizes the agency's continued ability to perform its responsibilities under its guaranty agreement or to ensure the continued availability of loans to student or parent borrowers or that it is necessary to protect the Federal financial interest.

Reinsurance is paid to USAF by the Secretary in accordance with a formula based on the annual default rate of loans guaranteed by USAF under the Higher Education Act and the disbursement date of loans, and ranges from 100% to 75% of USAF's losses on default claim payments made to lenders. The Higher Education Amendments of 1998 reduced the reinsurance coverage for loans in default made on or after October 1, 1998 to a range from 95% to 75% based upon the annual default claims rate of the guaranty agency. Reinsurance on non-default claims remains at 100%.

The Higher Education Amendments of 1998 require guaranty agencies to establish two (2) separate funds, a federal reserve fund (property of the United States) and an operating fund (property of the guaranty agency). The federal reserve fund is to be used to pay lender claims and to pay a default aversion fee to the operating fund. The operating fund is to be used by the guaranty agency to pay its operating expenses. Pursuant to the Higher Education Amendments of 1998, existing Federal Family Education Loan Program reserves became part of the federal reserve fund.

The U.S. Department of Education (the "Department") has advised USAF that, pursuant to the Balanced Budget Act of 1997, USAF must pay approximately $209 million to the Secretary on September 1, 2002 and make annual restricted account deposits toward such payment beginning in fiscal year 1998 of approximately $41.8 million. Further, the Higher Education Amendments of 1998 require guaranty agencies to return to the Secretary $250 million in reserve funds from fiscal years 2002 to 2007. Each guaranty agency's share is based on a formula prescribed in the Higher Education Amendments of 1998. USAF is in compliance with the provisions of the reserve fund requirements of the Act.

As of September 30, 1999, USAF had total Federal Family Education Loan Program assets of approximately $679 million; guarantee deposits and advance funds, allowance for future defaults, and deferred revenue of approximately $269 million; and a fund balance of approximately $407 million. Through September 30, 1999, the outstanding, unpaid, aggregate amount of principal and interest on loans which had been directly guaranteed by USAF under the Federal Family Education Loan Program was approximately $36.1 billion. Also, as of September 30, 1999, USAF had Operating Fund assets and non-Federal Family Education Loan Program assets totaling approximately $98 million.

USAF's "claims rate" represents the percentage of federal reinsurance claims paid by the Secretary during any fiscal year relative to USAF's existing portfolio of loans in repayment at the end of the prior fiscal year. For the last five fiscal years, the "claims rate" (excluding Arizona, Hawaii and certain Pacific Islands for the fiscal years 1996-1995) was as follows: 1999--2.62%; 1998--3.96%; 1997--4.65%; 1996 -- 4.65%; 1995 -- 4.69%.

As of September 30, 1999, USAF employed approximately 159 persons and is headquartered in Indianapolis, Indiana. USA Group, Inc. will provide a copy of its most recent annual report upon receipt of a written request directed to its headquarters at 30 South Meridian Street, Indianapolis, Indiana 46204, Attention: Vice President, Corporate Communications.

DESCRIPTION OF THE OFFERED OBLIGATIONS

General

The Corporation has adopted a resolution authorizing, among other things, (i) the execution and delivery of a Series Supplement to the Indenture and related documents and (ii) the issuance of the Offered Obligations. The Offered Obligations of each Series will be initially issued as Auction Rate Securities, in fully-registered form, without coupons, and in denominations of $100,000 and integral multiples of $100,000 in excess of $100,000. The Depository Trust Company ("DTC"), New York, New York will act as securities depository (the "Securities Depository") for the Offered Obligations. The Offered Obligations will be registered in the name of Cede & Co. (DTC's partnership nominee). One fully-registered certificate will be issued for each Series of the Offered Obligations, each in the aggregate principal amount of such Series, and will be deposited with DTC. Purchasers of the Offered Obligations will not receive physical bond or note certificates representing their interest in the Offered Obligations purchased. It is expected that the Offered Obligations will be available for delivery on or about the Delivery Date set forth on the cover page of this Official Statement.

During each Auction Period to, but not including any Weekly Rate Conversion Date, Adjustable Rate Conversion Date or Fixed Rate Conversion Date applicable to a Series of the Offered Obligations, (i) each Series of the Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds will bear interest determined pursuant to the Auction Procedures described in APPENDIX D, "AUCTION PROCEDURES-AUCTION RATE TAX-EXEMPT BONDS" and (ii) the Offered Taxable Notes will bear interest determined pursuant to the Auction Procedures described in APPENDIX E, "AUCTION PROCEDURES – AUCTION RATE TAXABLE NOTES" in each case on the Auction Date for each such Auction Period commencing on the Auction Rate Adjustment Date for such Auction Period and continuing through and including the day immediately preceding the next succeeding Auction Rate Adjustment Date. For each such Auction Period, the Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds will bear interest, determined pursuant to such applicable Auction Procedures, at the Auction Rate, which cannot exceed the Maximum Rate. For each such Auction Period, the Offered Taxable Notes will bear interest, determined pursuant to such applicable Auction Procedures at the lesser of the Auction Rate and the Net Loan Rate, subject to the Maximum Rate. See also See "DESCRIPTION OF THE OFFERED OBLIGATIONS--Interest Rates on the Offered Obligations" below.

The Net Loan Rate with respect to the Offered Taxable Notes, except in the case described in the next succeeding paragraph, will be the greater of (i) the rate of interest per annum (rounded to the next highest one one-hundredth of one percent) equal to the applicable United States Treasury Security Rate plus 1.50% (with the applicable United States Treasury Security Rate being, for Auction Periods of 180 days or less, the rate for 91-day United States Treasury securities and the applicable United States Treasury Security Rate being, for Auction Periods of more than 180 days, the rate for one-year United States Treasury securities) and (ii) the rate of interest computed in accordance with a Corporation Order delivered to the Trustee and accompanied by written evidence from each Rating Agency that computing the Base Net Loan Rate in accordance with such Corporation Order will not cause the withdrawal or reduction of any Rating or Ratings then applicable to any of the Obligations, in each case subject to the Maximum Rate (such Rate hereinafter referred to as the "Base Net Loan Rate").

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if either: (i) the Market Agent has advised the Corporation and the Trustee, not later than the third Business Day prior to an Auction Date, that the interest rate per annum established in an auction of securities comparable to the Offered Taxable Notes during the seven day period preceding such notice exceeded the Base Net Loan Rate, computed as though the date of auction of such comparable securities was an Auction Date; or (ii) Sufficient Clearing Bids shall not have been received (other than because all of the Offered Taxable Notes were subject to Hold Orders) at the last Auction of the Offered Taxable Notes prior to such Auction Date, the Net Loan Rate will equal the greater of: (a) the Base Net Loan Rate and (b) the rate of interest per annum (rounded to the next highest one-hundredth of one percent) equal to (1) the Effective Student Loan Rate less (2) the Administrative Expenses and Bond Fees Adjustment, not to exceed the Maximum Rate (such rate as determined in this item (b) hereinafter referred to as the "Adjusted Net Loan Rate"). See "DESCRIPTION OF THE OFFERED OBLIGATIONS--Interest Rates on the Offered Obligations".

Payments of Principal and Interest

The principal of each Obligation, together with interest payable on such Obligation at the maturity thereof, if the date of such maturity is not a regularly scheduled Interest Payment Date, will be payable on the Maturity Date of the Obligation and the date of redemption, if any, to the Holder thereof as of 5:00 P.M. in the City in which the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee is located on the applicable Record Date, upon presentation and surrender of the Obligation to the Trustee, at the Principal Office of the Trustee, by check or draft drawn upon the Trustee or, if requested by the Holder of Obligations in the aggregate principal amount of $1,000,000 or more of a Series (or, if less, all Outstanding Obligations of a Series) before the applicable Record Date, by electronic transfer by the Trustee in immediately available funds to such account as shall have been designated by such Holder. Payment of interest on any Obligation (other than interest payable on such Obligation at the maturity thereof, if the date of such maturity is not a regularly scheduled Interest Payment Date) will be made on each Interest Payment Date to the Person who is the Holder thereof at 5:00 P.M. in the City in which the Principal Office of the Trustee is located on the Record Date for such Interest Payment Date, by check or draft drawn upon the Trustee and mailed by the Trustee to the Holder at his address as it appears on the Bond Register or, if requested by the Holder of Obligations of a Series in the aggregate principal amount of $1,000,000 or more (or, if less, all Outstanding Obligations of a Series) before the applicable Record Date, by electronic transfer by the Trustee in immediately available funds to such account as shall have been designated by such Holder. Any principal or interest not so timely paid or duly provided for will cease to be payable to the Person who is the Holder thereof at 5:00 P.M. on the Record Date and will be payable to the Person who is the Holder thereof at the close of business on a special record date for the payment of any such defaulted interest, with such special record date to be fixed by the Trustee whenever moneys become available for payment of the defaulted interest, and notice of the special record date will be given to the Holders of the affected Obligations not less than two days prior thereto by first class mail to each such Holder as shown on the Bond Register on a date selected by the Trustee, stating the date of the special record date and the date fixed for the payment of such defaulted interest. All payments of principal of and interest on the Obligations will be made in lawful money of the United States of America.

Registration, Transfer and Exchange

The Corporation will cause a Bond Register to be kept at the Principal Office of the Trustee in which, subject to such reasonable regulations as the Trustee may prescribe, the Corporation will provide for the registration of Obligations and for transfer of Obligations. At reasonable times and under reasonable regulations established by the Trustee, the Bond Register may be inspected and copied by the Corporation or by the Holders (or a designated representative thereof), of ten percent (10%) or more in principal amount of Obligations of a Series then Outstanding.

The following provisions regarding transfer and exchange are not exercisable by the Beneficial Owners unless the Obligations of a Series are no longer held in a Book-entry System.

Upon surrender for transfer or exchange of any Obligation at the Principal Office of the Authenticating Agent, the Corporation will execute, and the Authenticating Agent will authenticate and deliver, in the name of the designated transferee or transferees, or in exchange for the Obligation surrendered, one or more new fully registered Obligations of any Authorized Denomination or denominations, of like aggregate principal amount, having the same Stated Maturity and bearing numbers not previously assigned.

All Obligations executed, delivered and authenticated pursuant to the preceding paragraph will be registered in the name of the Holder presenting the Obligation for exchange or the designated transferee, as the case may be, on the Bond Register on the date of such transfer or exchange.

All Obligations surrendered upon any exchange or transfer provided for in the Indenture will be promptly canceled and thereafter disposed of as directed by Corporation Order.

All Obligations issued upon any transfer or exchange of Obligations, whether or not surrendered, will be the valid obligations of the Corporation evidencing the same debt, and entitled to the same security and benefits under the Indenture, as the Obligations surrendered upon such transfer or exchange or in lieu of which such Obligations were issued.

Every Obligation presented or surrendered for transfer or exchange will be duly endorsed, or be accompanied by a written instrument of transfer in form satisfactory to the Authenticating Agent, duly executed by the Holder thereof or his attorney duly authorized in writing, with signature guarantees satisfactory to the Authenticating Agent.

The Corporation may require payment by the Holder of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in connection with any transfer or exchange of Obligations. All other expenses incurred by the Corporation or the Authenticating Agent in connection with any transfer or exchange of Obligations will be paid by the Corporation.

The Corporation will not be required to transfer any Obligation: (i) during a period beginning at the opening of business fifteen (15) days before any selection of Obligations for redemption and ending at the close of business on the day of such selection; or (ii) selected for redemption in whole or in part.

Book-Entry System

DTC will act as Securities Depository for the Offered Obligations. The Offered Obligations will be issued as fully-registered securities registered in the name of Cede & Co. (DTC's partnership nominee). One fully-registered security certificate will be issued for each series of the Offered Obligations, each in the aggregate principal amount of such series, and will be deposited with DTC.

DTC is a limited-purpose trust company organized under the New York Banking Law, a "banking organization" within the meaning of the New York Banking Law, a member of the Federal Reserve System, a "clearing corporation" within the meaning of the New York Uniform Commercial Code, and a "clearing agency" registered pursuant to the provisions of Section 17A of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. DTC holds securities that its participants ("Participants") deposit with DTC. DTC also facilitates the settlement among Participants of securities transactions, such as transfers and pledges, in deposited securities through electronic computerized Book-Entry changes in the Participants' accounts, thereby eliminating the need for physical movement of securities certificates. Direct participants include securities brokers and dealers, banks, trust companies, clearing corporations, and certain other organizations ("Direct Participants"). DTC is owned by a number of its Direct Participants and by the New York Stock Exchange, Inc., the American Stock Exchange, Inc., and the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. Access to the DTC system is also available to others such as securities brokers and dealers, banks, and trust companies that clear through or maintain a custodial relationship with a Direct Participant, either directly or indirectly ("Indirect Participants"). The rules applicable to DTC and its Participants are on file with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Purchases of the Offered Obligations under the DTC system must be made by or through Direct Participants, which will receive a credit for the Offered Obligations on DTC's records. The ownership interest of each actual purchaser of each Offered Obligation ("Beneficial Owner") is in turn to be recorded on the Direct and Indirect Participants' records. Beneficial Owners will not receive written confirmation from DTC of their purchase; but Beneficial Owners are expected to receive written confirmations providing details of the transaction, as well as periodic statements of their holdings, from the Direct or Indirect Participant through which the Beneficial Owner entered into the transaction. Transfers of ownership interests in the Offered Obligations are to be accomplished by entries made on the books of Participants acting on behalf of Beneficial Owners. Beneficial Owners will not receive certificates representing their ownership interests in the Offered Obligations, except in the event that use of the Book-Entry System for the Offered Obligations is discontinued.

To facilitate subsequent transfers, all Offered Obligations deposited by Participants with DTC are registered in the name of DTC's partnership nominee, Cede & Co. The deposit of the Offered Obligations with DTC and their registration in the name of Cede & Co. effect no change in beneficial ownership. DTC has no knowledge of the actual Beneficial Owners of the Offered Obligations; DTC's records reflect only the identity of the Direct Participants to whose accounts such Offered Obligations are credited, which may or may not be the Beneficial Owners. The Participants will remain responsible for keeping account of their holdings on behalf of their customers.

Conveyance of notices and other communications by DTC to Direct Participants, by Direct Participants to Indirect Participants, and by Direct Participants and Indirect Participants to Beneficial Owners will be governed by arrangements among them, subject to any statutory or regulatory requirements as may be in effect from time to time.

Redemption notices will be sent to Cede & Co. If less than all of the Obligations within a Series of the Offered Obligations are being redeemed, DTC's practice is to determine by lot the amount of the interest of each Direct Participant in such issue to be redeemed.

Neither DTC nor Cede & Co. will consent or vote with respect to the Offered Obligations. Under its usual procedures, DTC mails an omnibus proxy to the Corporation as soon as possible after the record date. The omnibus proxy assigns Cede & Co.'s consenting or voting rights to those Direct Participants to whose accounts the Offered Obligations are credited on the record date (identified in a listing attached to the omnibus proxy).

Principal and interest payments on the Offered Obligations will be made to DTC. DTC's practice is to credit Direct Participants' accounts on the payable date in accordance with their respective holdings shown on DTC's records unless DTC has reason to believe that it will not receive payment on the payable date. Payments by Participants to Beneficial Owners will be governed by standing instructions and customary practices, as is the case with securities held for the accounts of customers in bearer form or registered in "street name", and will be the responsibility of such Participant and not of DTC, the Trustee or the Corporation, subject to any statutory or regulatory requirements as may be in effect from time to time. Payment of principal and interest to DTC is the responsibility of the Corporation or the Trustee, disbursement of such payments to Direct Participants is the responsibility of DTC, and disbursement of such payments to the Beneficial Owners is the responsibility of Direct and Indirect Participants.

DTC may discontinue providing its services as Securities Depository with respect to the Offered Obligations at any time by giving reasonable notice to the Corporation or the Trustee. Under such circumstances, in the event that a successor Securities Depository is not obtained, certificates evidencing the Offered Obligations are required to be printed and delivered.

The Corporation may decide to discontinue use of the Book-Entry System transfers through DTC (or a successor Securities Depository). In that event, certificates evidencing the Offered Obligations will be printed and delivered.

The preceding information concerning DTC and DTC's book-entry system has been obtained from a report from DTC entitled "Sample Offering Document Language Describing Book-Entry-Only Issuance (Rev. 12/12/96)" and other sources that the Corporation believes to be reliable; but the Corporation and its counsel, the Underwriter and its counsel, and Bond Counsel do not take any responsibility for the accuracy thereof.

NEITHER THE CORPORATION, THE TRUSTEE NOR THE UNDERWRITER WILL HAVE ANY RESPONSIBILITY OR OBLIGATION TO SUCH PARTICIPANTS OR THE PERSONS FOR WHOM THEY ACT AS NOMINEES WITH RESPECT TO (1) THE ACCURACY OF ANY RECORDS MAINTAINED BY DTC OR ANY PARTICIPANT, (2) THE PAYMENT BY DTC OR ANY PARTICIPANT OF ANY AMOUNT DUE TO ANY BENEFICIAL OWNER IN RESPECT OF THE PRINCIPAL AMOUNT, REDEMPTION PRICE OF OR INTEREST ON THE OFFERED OBLIGATIONS, (3) THE DELIVERY BY ANY PARTICIPANT OF ANY NOTICE TO ANY BENEFICIAL OWNER WHICH IS REQUIRED OR PERMITTED UNDER THE TERMS OF THE INDENTURE TO BE GIVEN TO THE HOLDER, (4) THE SELECTION OF THE BENEFICIAL OWNERS TO RECEIVE PAYMENT IN THE EVENT OF ANY PARTIAL REDEMPTION OF THE OFFERED OBLIGATIONS, OR (5) ANY OTHER ACTION TAKEN BY DTC AS THE HOLDER OF THE OFFERED OBLIGATIONS.

In reading this Official Statement, it should be understood that while the Offered Obligations are in the Book-Entry system (i) all rights of ownership must be exercised through DTC and the Book-Entry system and (ii) notices that are to be given to Holders by the Corporation or the Trustee will be given only to DTC.

Interest Rates on the Offered Obligations

The initial rate of interest on a Series of the Offered Obligations for a period beginning on and including the date of their initial delivery and ending (i) with respect to the Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds, 36 days thereafter (May 18, 2000) and including such 36th day, and (ii) with respect to the Offered Taxable Notes, 28 days thereafter (May 10, 2000) and including such 28th day, will be determined on or about April 12, 2000. Thereafter, the rate of interest on each Series of the Offered Obligations will be determined on each Auction Date, commencing (i) with respect to the Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds, on each fifth Thursday thereafter and (ii) with respect to the Offered Taxable Notes, on each fourth Wednesday thereafter; provided that each such fifth Thursday or fourth Wednesday, as applicable, is the first Business Day immediately preceding the Auction Rate Adjustment Date of the Auction Period with respect to which the Auction is being conducted, and otherwise on the Business Day immediately preceding the first day of such Auction Period.

Each Series of the Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds will bear interest for each Auction Period at an Auction Rate, based upon a 35-day Auction Period as determined by the Auction Agent pursuant to the Auction Procedures described herein (but in no event greater than 14% per annum) until a Weekly Rate Conversion Date with respect to such Series of the Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds, if any, an Adjustable Rate Conversion Date with respect to such Series of the Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds, if any, a Fixed Rate Conversion Date with respect to such Series of the Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds, if any, or the date of a change in the length of any Auction Period with respect to such Series of the Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds, if any. Interest on each Series of the Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds will be payable semi-annually on each March 1 and September 1, commencing September 1, 2000, until a Weekly Rate Conversion Date with respect to such Series of Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds, if any, an Adjustable Rate Conversion Date with respect to such Series of Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds, if any, a Fixed Rate Conversion Date with respect to such Series of Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds, if any, or a change in Interest Payment Dates for such Series of Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds pursuant to the Indenture. Pursuant to an Auction Period Adjustment with respect to a Series of Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds, the 35-day Auction Period for such Series of Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds may be adjusted to an Auction Period of not less than 7 days nor longer than one year. See APPENDIX D, "AUCTION PROCEDURES -- AUCTION RATE TAX-EXEMPT BONDS--Changes in Auction Terms".

The Offered Taxable Notes will bear interest for each Auction Period at an Auction Rate, based upon a 28-day Auction Period as determined by the Auction Agent pursuant to the Auction Procedures described herein (but in no event greater than 16% per annum) until a Weekly Rate Conversion Date with respect to the Offered Taxable Notes, if any, an Adjustable Rate Conversion Date with respect to the Offered Taxable Notes, if any, a Fixed Rate Conversion Date with respect to the Offered Taxable Notes, if any, or the date of a change in the length of any Auction Period with respect to the Offered Taxable Notes, if any. Interest on the Offered Taxable Notes will be payable on the first day of the Auction Period that immediately follows the Auction Period for which interest is being paid, until a Weekly Rate Conversion Date with respect to the Offered Taxable Notes, if any, an Adjustable Rate Conversion Date with respect to the Offered Taxable Notes, if any, a Fixed Rate Conversion Date with respect to the Offered Taxable Notes, if any, or a change in Interest Payment Dates for the Offered Taxable Notes pursuant to the Indenture. Pursuant to an Auction Period Adjustment with respect to the Offered Taxable Notes, the 28-day Auction Period for the Offered Taxable Notes may be adjusted to an Auction Period of not less than 7 days nor longer than one year. See APPENDIX E, "AUCTION PROCEDURES -- AUCTION RATE TAXABLE NOTES--Changes in Auction Terms".

Each Series of the Offered Obligations is subject to mandatory tender upon its conversion to a Fixed Rate or a Variable Rate for such Series of the Offered Obligations. See "DESCRIPTION OF THE OFFERED OBLIGATIONS--Mandatory Tender of Auction Rate Securities."

Unless the length of an Auction Period with respect to each Series of the Offered Obligations is changed as permitted in the Indenture (see (i) with respect to the Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds, APPENDIX D, "AUCTION PROCEDURES--AUCTION RATE TAX-EXEMPT BONDS--Changes in Auction Terms--Changes in Auction Period or Periods" and (ii) with respect to the Offered Taxable Notes, APPENDIX E, "AUCTION PROCEDURES-AUCTION RATE TAXABLE NOTES-- Changes in Auction Terms--Changes in Auction Period or Periods"), the Auction Period for such Series of the Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds will generally begin on a Friday (provided that such day is a Business Day and otherwise on the next succeeding Business Day) and end on and include the day immediately preceding the fifth Friday thereafter, and the Auction Period for the Offered Taxable Notes will generally begin on a Thursday and end on and include the day immediately preceding the fourth Thursday thereafter (provided that each fifth Friday or fourth Thursday is a Business Day and otherwise on the day preceding the Business Day next succeeding the fifth Friday or fourth Thursday, as applicable). If the first day of any Auction Period would otherwise be a day other than a Business Day, such Auction Period shall begin on the next succeeding Business Day; and if the last day of any Auction Period would otherwise immediately precede a day which is not a Business Day, such Auction Period shall end on the last day preceding the Business Day next succeeding what would otherwise have been the last day of the Auction Period.

For each Auction Period, interest on each Series of the Offered Obligations, until a Conversion Date with respect to such Series, if any, or a change as permitted under the Indenture in Interest Payment Dates for such Series, if any, will accrue daily from the most recent Interest Payment Date to which interest has been paid or duly provided for, or, if no interest has been paid or duly provided, from the date of the Offered Obligations of such Series through the day immediately preceding the Interest Payment Date. Interest on the Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds will be payable semi-annually on each March 1 and September 1, commencing September 1, 2000 (each such March 1 and September 1, an "Interest Payment Date" with respect to the Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds). Interest on the Offered Taxable Notes will be payable initially on May 11, 2000, and thereafter on each Auction Rate Adjustment Date with respect to the Offered Taxable Notes (each an "Interest Payment Date" with respect to the Offered Taxable Notes). Interest on each Series of the Offered Obligations will accrue for each Auction Period for actual days elapsed based upon a 360-day year and will be payable in arrears, on each succeeding Interest Payment Date. Interest Payment Dates with respect to a Series may be changed as provided in the Indenture. See, with respect to the Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds, APPENDIX D, "AUCTION PROCEDURES--AUCTION RATE TAX-EXEMPT BONDS--Changes in Auction Terms--Changes in the Interest Payment Dates" and with respect to the Offered Taxable Notes, APPENDIX E, "AUCTION PROCEDURES -- AUCTION RATE TAXABLE NOTES--Changes in Auction Terms -- Changes in the Interest Payment Dates".

The amount of interest accruing to Beneficial Owners of the Offered Obligations in respect of each $100,000 in principal amount thereof for any Auction Period or part thereof shall be calculated by the Auction Agent (and shall be confirmed by the Trustee) by applying the Auction Rate for such Auction Period or part thereof to the principal amount of $100,000, multiplying such sum by the actual number of days in the Auction Period or part thereof concerned divided by 360, and rounding the resultant figure to the nearest cent (half a cent being rounded upward). In the event an Interest Payment Date occurs in any Auction Period on a date other than the first day of such Auction Period, the Trustee, after confirming the calculation required above, shall calculate the portion of the amount of interest payable on such Interest Payment Date and the portion payable on the next succeeding Interest Payment Date. The Auction Agent shall make the calculation described above not later than the close of business on each Auction Date and shall communicate it to the Trustee not later than 12:00 Noon on the next Business Day. The Trustee shall promptly confirm the calculation and notify the Auction Agent of any error or discrepancy it believes exists in the calculation.

Interest payments on each Series of the Offered Obligations are to be made by the Trustee to the persons who are the Holders of such Series of Offered Obligations, as of the Business Day immediately preceding each Interest Payment Date for such Series of Offered Obligations (the "Record Date" for Auction Rate Securities). The Offered Obligations will be initially registered in the name of Cede & Co., as nominee of DTC, which is acting as the Securities Depository for the Offered Obligations. See "DESCRIPTION OF THE OFFERED OBLIGATIONS -- Book-Entry System" above for a description of how the Securities Depository, as the Holder of the Offered Obligations, is expected to disburse such payments to the Beneficial Owners.

Payments of defaulted interest shall be payable to the Person who is the Holder thereof at the close of business on a special record date (the "Special Record Date") fixed therefor by the Trustee whenever moneys become available for payment of defaulted interest. The Trustee shall give notice by first class mail to each Holder of the Offered Obligations as to which defaulted interest is payable, not less than two (2) days before the Special Record Date, of the Special Record Date and of the date fixed for the payment of such defaulted interest.

The Auction Rate for each Series of the Offered Obligations for each Auction Period will be determined in accordance with the Auction Procedures described in APPENDIX D or APPENDIX E, as applicable, provided that:

- at the option of the Corporation the length of the Auction Period for any Series of the Offered Obligations may be adjusted to an Auction Period of not less than seven days nor more than one year (see APPENDIX D or APPENDIX E, as applicable, and therein “Changes in Auction Terms -- Changes in Auction Period or Periods”); or
- if a notice of an adjustment in the percentages used to determine the Maximum Rate, the All-Hold Rate and the Non-Payment Rate has been given by the Market Agent and such adjustment has not taken effect because of a failure to satisfy the condition set forth in clause (ii) in APPENDIX D, “AUCTION PROCEDURES--AUCTION RATE TAX-EXEMPT BONDS--Auction Procedures-Adjustment in Applicable Percentage Used to Determine Maximum, All-Hold and Non-Payment Rates”, then an Auction will not be held on the Auction Date immediately preceding the next succeeding Auction Rate Adjustment Date, and the interest rate on such Series of the Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds for such next succeeding Auction Rate Period will be the Maximum Rate calculated on such Auction Date; or
- if, on any Auction Date, an Auction for any Series of the Offered Obligations is not held for any reason, the interest rate on such Series of the Offered Obligations for the next succeeding Auction Period will be the Maximum Rate computed as of the Business Day immediately preceding the first day of such Auction Period; or
- if the ownership of any Series of the Offered Obligations is no longer maintained in Book-Entry Form, the interest rate on such Series of the Offered Obligations for any Auction Period commencing after the delivery of certificates representing such Offered Obligations will be the Maximum Rate computed as of the Business Day immediately preceding the first day of such Auction Period; or
- if a Payment Default has occurred, the interest rate on each Series of the Offered Obligations for each Auction Period commencing on or immediately after such Payment Default and for each Auction Period thereafter, to and including the Auction Period, if any, during which, or commencing less than two Business Days after which, such Payment Default is cured in accordance with the Indenture, will be the Non-Payment Rate computed as of the first day of each such Auction Period; or
- if a proposed conversion to a Fixed Rate or a Variable Rate has failed, as described below under the caption “DESCRIPTION OF THE OFFERED OBLIGATIONS -- Mandatory Tender of the Auction Rate Securities”, the interest rate on such Series of the Offered Obligations subject to the failed conversion for the Auction Period commencing on what would otherwise have been a Conversion Date will be the Maximum Rate computed as of the Business Day immediately preceding the first day of such Auction Period; or
- if the Auction Rate for the Offered Taxable Notes is greater than the Net Loan Rate for an Auction Period, the interest rate applicable to the Offered Taxable Notes for that Auction Period will be the Net Loan Rate.

The Auction Agent will promptly give written notice to the Trustee and the Corporation of the Net Loan Rate (if applicable), the Applicable LIBOR-Based Rate (if applicable), the Maximum Rate and the All-Hold Rate and the components thereof on the Auction Date and, based on such determinations, the Auction Rate (unless the Auction Rate is the Non-Payment Rate) for each Series of the Offered Obligations for the next succeeding Auction Period. The Trustee will notify the Holders of each Series of the Offered Obligations of the Auction Rate for each such Series for the next Auction Period not later than the second Business Day of such Auction Period.

A Broker-Dealer, with the agreement of the Corporation and notification of such agreement by the Corporation to such Broker-Dealer, the Trustee and the Auction Agent, may submit at an Auction an Order for Auction Rate Securities which will bear interest during the period held by such Broker-Dealer at the Broker-Dealer

Rate, as hereinafter defined, without regard to any rate specified in such Order or established pursuant to such Auction. Notwithstanding the interest rate established pursuant to such Auction (which interest rate shall be applicable to Auction Rate Securities other than Broker-Dealer Obligations as described below), any Auction Rate Securities purchased at such Auction by such Broker-Dealer will bear interest at the Broker-Dealer Rate (computed on actual days elapsed and a year of either 365 or 366 days, as appropriate) for the Auction Period immediately following such Auction, and for Auction Periods thereafter if the notice and agreement described above so provides. Such Auction Rate Securities so purchased are hereinafter referred to as "Broker-Dealer Obligations". Anything to the contrary notwithstanding, that portion of the interest payable with respect to Broker-Dealer Obligations which is in excess of the interest which would be payable if such Auction Rate Securities were not Broker-Dealer Obligations will be payable to such Broker-Dealer on the next Interest Payment Date with respect to such Auction Rate Securities. For purposes of this paragraph, "Broker-Dealer Rate" means with respect to any day, the interest rate per annum published as the "Broker Call" in The Wall Street Journal on such day (or, if The Wall Street Journal shall not be published on such day, on the preceding day on which The Wall Street Journal was published); provided that if The Wall Street Journal is no longer published or such interest rate is not published in The Wall Street Journal for a period of five (5) consecutive Business Days, the Broker-Dealer Rate shall mean such interest rate as shall be published in either The Wall Street Journal or another publication that the Trustee determines to be appropriate and comparable to the rate currently published as the "Broker Call" in The Wall Street Journal.

Carry-over Amounts on the Offered Taxable Notes

If the interest rate applicable to the Offered Taxable Notes as Auction Rate Taxable Notes, for any Auction Period is the Net Loan Rate, the Trustee will determine the Carry-over Amount, if any, with respect to the Offered Taxable Notes for such Auction Period. Such determination of the Carry-over Amount will be made separately for each Auction Rate Taxable Note of such Series. Such Carry-over Amount will bear interest calculated on each Auction Date with respect to such Auction Rate Taxable Note, adjusted on each Auction Rate Adjustment Date with respect to such Auction Rate Taxable Note and, until paid, compounded on each Interest Payment Date with respect to such Auction Rate Taxable Note, from the Interest Payment Date for the Auction Period with respect to which such Carry-over Amount was calculated, until paid. The interest rate on the Carry-over Amount (the "Carry-over Rate") will be equal to One-Month LIBOR (as determined by the Auction Agent on such Auction Date, provided that if the Trustee has not received within two Business Days of the date such calculation is to be made written notice of One-Month LIBOR from the Auction Agent, then as determined by the Trustee).

Any reference to "principal" or "interest" herein will not include within the meaning of such words Carry-over Amount or any interest accrued on any such Carry-over Amount. However, all references to Carry-over Amount will include the interest compounded thereon, which compounded interest will bear interest at the Carry-over Rate and be calculated in the manner as for the original Carry-over Amount. All references to the payment of Carry-over Amount will, unless otherwise specified, include payment of accrued and unpaid interest thereon. Such Carry-over Amount will be separately calculated for each Auction Rate Taxable Note by the Trustee during such Auction Period in sufficient time for the Trustee to give notice to each Holder of such Carry-over Amount as required in the next succeeding sentence. On the Interest Payment Date for an Auction Period with respect to which such Carry-over Amount has been calculated by the Trustee, the Trustee will give written notice to each Holder of the Carry-over Amount applicable to each Holder's Auction Rate Taxable Note or Auction Rate Taxable Notes of such Series, which written notice may accompany the payment of interest by check made to each such Holder on such Interest Payment Date or otherwise will be mailed on such Interest Payment Date by first class mail, postage prepaid, to each such Holder at such Holder's address as it appears on the books of registry maintained by the Trustee pursuant to the Indenture. Such notice will state, in addition to such Carry-over Amount, that, unless and until any Auction Rate Taxable Note of such Series has been mandatorily redeemed or has been deemed no longer Outstanding under the Indenture (after which all accrued Carry-over Amount and all accrued interest thereon that remains unpaid will be canceled and no Carry-over Amount or interest accrued thereon will be paid with respect to any Auction Rate Taxable Note of such Series), (i) the Carry-over Amount (and interest accrued thereon) will be paid by the Trustee in part or in whole on an Auction Rate Taxable Note of such Series on the earlier of (a) the Conversion Date with respect to such Series, if one, or the date on which all or a portion of the Auction Rate Taxable Notes of such Series are optionally redeemed, if any, and if then so paid, will be paid in full, or (b) the first occurring Interest Payment Date with respect to such Obligation, and each succeeding Interest Payment Date with respect to such Obligation until paid, for an Auction Period subsequent to the Auction Period in which such Carry-over Amount accrued, (1) if during such subsequent Auction Period no additional Carry-over Amount is accruing on the Auction Rate Taxable Notes of such Series, and (2) if so paid, such Carry-over Amount is paid solely to the extent that (A) during such Auction Period the amount of interest that would be payable on the Auction Rate Taxable Notes of such Series at the Net Loan Rate exceeds the amount of interest that is payable for such Auction Period on the Auction Rate Taxable Notes of such Series at the interest rate in effect for such Auction Period and (B) on such Interest Payment Date moneys are available in the Surplus Account pursuant to the terms of the Indenture in an amount sufficient to pay all or a portion of such Carry-over Amount equal to the excess calculated pursuant to the preceding item (2)(A) (or, in the event that moneys are not available in an amount sufficient to pay all such excess with respect to each such Auction Rate Taxable Note of such Series for which Carry-over Amount is to be paid, in an amount sufficient to pay any portion of such excess); and (ii) interest will accrue on the Carry-over Amount at the Carry-over Rate until such Carry-over Amount is paid in full or is canceled.

The Carry-over Amount for an Auction Rate Taxable Note of a Series will be paid by the Trustee on the earlier of (a) the first occurring optional redemption date on which Auction Rate Taxable Notes of such Series are redeemed at the Corporation's option or the Conversion Date, if one, and if then so paid, will be paid in full or (b) the first occurring Interest Payment Date with respect to such Obligation, and each succeeding Interest Payment Date with respect to such Obligation, until paid, for an Auction Period subsequent to the Auction Period in which such Carry-over Amount accrued, (1) if during such Auction Period no additional Carry-over Amount is accruing on such Auction Rate Taxable Note, and (2) if so paid, such Carry-over Amount is paid solely to the extent that (A) during such subsequent Auction Period the amount of interest that would be payable on such Auction Rate Taxable Note at the Net Loan Rate exceeds the amount of interest that is payable for such Auction Period on such Auction Rate Taxable Note at the interest rate in effect for such Auction Period and (B) on such Interest Payment Date there are sufficient moneys in the Surplus Account to pay such excess (or, in the event that moneys are not available in an amount sufficient to pay all such excess with respect to each Auction Rate Taxable Note for which Carry-over Amount is to be paid, in an amount sufficient to pay any portion of such excess).

If a Carry-over Amount is payable under the immediately preceding sentence with respect to more than one Auction Rate Taxable Note on the same day and there are insufficient funds in the Surplus Account to pay each such Auction Rate Taxable Note in an amount equal to all the excess described in the immediately preceding paragraph, the portion of the Carry-over Amount payable with respect to each such Auction Rate Taxable Note will equal the product of the moneys in the Surplus Account available to pay Carry-over Amounts multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the excess calculated for such Auction Rate Taxable Note in accordance with the preceding sentence and the denominator of which is the total excess calculated for all such Auction Rate Taxable Notes in accordance with the preceding sentence.

Any Carry-over Amount (and any interest accrued thereon) on any Auction Rate Taxable Note which is due and payable on an Interest Payment Date with respect to such Obligation, and which Auction Rate Taxable Note is to be mandatorily redeemed or deemed no longer Outstanding under the Indenture on said Interest Payment Date, will be paid to the Holder thereof on said Interest Payment Date to the extent that moneys are available therefor in accordance with the provisions of the Indenture; provided, however, that any Carry-over Amount (and any interest accrued thereon) which is not yet due and payable on said Interest Payment Date will be canceled with respect to said Auction Rate Taxable Note that is to be mandatorily redeemed or deemed no longer Outstanding under the Indenture on said Interest Payment Date and will not be paid on any succeeding Interest Payment Date.

To the extent that any portion of the Carry-over Amount remains unpaid after payment of a portion thereof (except with respect to Auction Rate Taxable Notes of such Series that are no longer Outstanding or are deemed no longer Outstanding), such unpaid portion of the Carry-over Amount will be paid in whole or in part as required under the Indenture until fully paid by the Trustee on the earlier of (a) the date of optional redemption or the Conversion Date, if one, with respect to such Obligation and if then so paid, will be paid in full or (b) the next occurring Interest Payment Date or Dates with respect to such Obligation, as necessary, for a subsequent Auction Period or Periods, if and to the extent that the conditions relating to such payment are satisfied. On any Interest Payment Date on which the Trustee pays only a portion of the Carry-over Amount on any Auction Rate Taxable Note, the Trustee will give written notice in the manner set forth in the immediately preceding paragraph to the Holder of such Taxable Note receiving such partial payment of the Carry-over Amount remaining unpaid on such Auction Rate Taxable Note.

The Interest Payment Date in such subsequent Auction Period on which such Carry-over Amount for an Auction Rate Taxable Note of a Series will be paid will be determined by the Trustee in accordance with the provisions of the preceding paragraphs, and the Trustee will make payment of the Carry-over Amount from the Surplus Account in the same manner as it pays interest on the Auction Rate Taxable Notes of such Series on an Interest Payment Date.

Conversion; Mandatory Tender of the Auction Rate Securities

At the option of the Corporation and provided that the Corporation shall have delivered to the Trustee (i) written evidence from each Rating Agency confirming that the proposed conversion will not cause the withdrawal or reduction of any rating then applicable to any Series of Obligations, other than the Obligations of the Series to be converted, and (ii) with respect to Outstanding Tax-Exempt Bonds, an opinion of Bond Counsel, in form and content acceptable to the Trustee, to the effect that the proposed conversion will not adversely affect the exclusion of interest on any of the Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds from gross income for federal income tax purposes pursuant to Section 103 of the Code, any Series of the Obligations may be converted to bear interest at a Weekly Rate or an Adjustable Rate (a "Variable Rate") or to a Fixed Rate on any Weekly Rate Conversion Date, Adjustable Rate Conversion Date or Fixed Rate Conversion Date, as applicable (each such Date, a "Conversion Date"). Such Conversion will be made as follows:

(a) The Conversion Date will be a date on which a new Auction Period would otherwise have commenced.

(b) The Series of Obligations to be converted are subject to mandatory tender for purchase on the Conversion Date at a purchase price equal to the principal amount thereof plus, unless the Conversion Date is an Interest Payment Date, accrued and unpaid interest to the Conversion Date.

(c) Not less than five (5) Business Days prior to the date on which the Bond Registrar is required to notify the Holders of the Series of Obligations to be converted of the Conversion pursuant to subparagraph (d) below, the Corporation will give written notice of the Conversion to the Trustee, the Auction Agent, the Market Agent and all Broker-Dealers setting forth the Conversion Date and including a form for the notice to be given pursuant to paragraph (d) below.

(d) The Bond Registrar will mail a notice of the Conversion to all Holders of the Series of Obligations to be converted not less than twenty-one (21) days prior to the Conversion Date, which notice will inform the Holders of the Conversion Date, advise the Holders that their Obligations are subject to mandatory tender to the Trustee for purchase on the Conversion Date and specify the time and place at which such Obligations are to be tendered for purchase.

(e) The Corporation has the right to revoke its determination to effect any such conversion of any Series of the Auction Rate Securities, for any reason, on or before the proposed Weekly Rate Conversion Date, Adjustable Rate Conversion Date or Fixed Rate Conversion Date, as applicable, by written notice from the Corporation to all parties to whom the Corporation has given notice of such Conversion pursuant to the Indenture. If the Corporation revokes its determination to convert a Series of Obligations bearing interest at an Auction Rate to another interest rate for any reason on or before the Conversion Date, the Obligations of such Series will continue to bear interest at Auction Rates and the rate of interest for the Auction Period commencing on or including the proposed Conversion Date will be the Maximum Rate computed as of the last Business Day preceding the first day of such Auction Period.

(f) If on a proposed Conversion Date the purchase price for all Obligations of the Series to be converted has not been deposited with the Trustee or the Tender Agent by the times set forth below, the rate of interest on such Series of Obligations will not be established at an interest rate other than an Auction Rate, but such Series of Obligations will continue to bear interest at Auction Rates and the rate of interest for such Series for the Auction Period commencing on or including the proposed Conversion Date will be the Maximum Rate computed as of the last Business Day preceding such Auction Period.

(g) At least 21 days prior to a proposed Conversion Date, the Trustee will send notice thereof to DTC and the Auction Agent and will make available to DTC such other information as DTC may reasonably require in order to effect the exchange of Obligations held by DTC for Obligations bearing interest at a new interest rate.

(h) Before the close of business on the date set for purchase of tendered Obligations of a Series and upon receipt of 100% of the aggregate purchase price of the tendered Obligations and the Obligations to be purchased, the Trustee will pay the purchase price of such Obligations to the Owners thereof at the principal office of the Trustee or by bank wire transfer to the accounts specified in instructions delivered to the Trustee in form and content acceptable to the Trustee. Such payments are to be made in funds immediately available in New York, New York.

(i) All Obligations to be purchased on any Conversion Date will be required to be delivered to the Principal Office of the Trustee at or before 1:00 p.m., New York City time, on the Conversion Date.

(j) In the event of a failed Conversion, the Tender Agent (or the Trustee, with respect to Conversion from Auction Rate to Fixed Rate) will: (i) return all tendered Obligations to the tendering Registered Owners thereof; (ii) return all moneys received for the purchase of such Obligations to the persons providing such moneys; and (iii) notify the Corporation, the Auction Agent, if applicable, the Remarketing Agent, if applicable, and the Trustee (if notification is being made by the Tender Agent) of the return of such Obligations and moneys and the failure to make payment for tendered Obligations.

(k) Any Obligations tendered or deemed tendered for purchase are to be delivered to the Tender Agent (or the Trustee, with respect to Conversion from an Auction Rate to a Fixed Rate) on or prior to the date on which such Obligations are required to be purchased and any Obligations required to be tendered for purchase that are not delivered for which there has been irrevocably deposited in trust with the Tender Agent (or the Trustee, with respect to Conversion from an Auction Rate to a Fixed Rate) an amount of money sufficient to pay the purchase price thereof will be deemed to have been tendered to the Tender Agent or the Trustee, as applicable, pursuant to the Indenture and will be "Undelivered Obligations." In the event of a failure by an Owner to deliver its Obligations on or prior to the required date, said Owner will not be entitled to any payment (including any interest to accrue subsequent to the required purchase date) other than the purchase price for such Undelivered Obligations, and any Undelivered Obligations will no longer be entitled to the benefits of the Indenture, except for the payment of the purchase price therefor. Any moneys held by the Tender Agent or the Trustee, as applicable, under the Indenture for the purchase of an Undelivered Obligation will be separated and held in a segregated fund by the Tender Agent or the Trustee, as applicable, and will not be invested and will be held for the exclusive benefit of the Owner of such Undelivered Obligations. The Corporation will execute and the Bond Registrar will authenticate a new Obligation or Obligations in replacement of any Undelivered Obligation and will register such Obligation or Obligations in accordance with instruction from the Corporation. The replacement of any previously outstanding Obligation will not be deemed to create a new indebtedness, but such Obligation as is issued will be deemed to evidence the indebtedness previously evidenced by the Undelivered Obligation.

THE DESCRIPTION OF THE OFFERED OBLIGATIONS SET FORTH IN THIS OFFICIAL STATEMENT DOES NOT INCLUDE OR PURPORT TO INCLUDE A DESCRIPTION OF THE OFFERED OBLIGATIONS FOLLOWING A WEEKLY RATE CONVERSION DATE, AN ADJUSTABLE RATE CONVERSION DATE OR A FIXED RATE CONVERSION DATE. THIS OFFICIAL STATEMENT IS NOT INTENDED TO, AND SHALL NOT, BE USED BY THE CORPORATION OR BY ANY OTHER PERSON IN CONNECTION WITH THE SALE OR REMARKETING OF ANY OF THE AUCTION RATE SECURITIES ON A WEEKLY RATE CONVERSION DATE, AN ADJUSTABLE RATE CONVERSION DATE OR A FIXED RATE CONVERSION DATE AS TO SUCH SECURITIES, OR IN CONNECTION WITH ANY CONVERSION OF THE INTEREST RATE ON THE OFFERED OBLIGATIONS TO ANY RATE OTHER THAN AN AUCTION RATE.

REDEMPTION

Optional Redemption of Offered Obligations

The Offered Obligations of a Series bearing interest at an Auction Rate may, at the option of the Corporation, be redeemed, in whole or in part, on the first day following the end of any Auction Period for the Offered Obligations to be redeemed in each case at a Redemption Price equal to one hundred percent (100%) of the principal amount of Offered Obligations to be so redeemed plus accrued and unpaid interest to the Redemption Date, provided that unless moneys in an amount sufficient to effect such redemption have been deposited with (or held by) the Trustee and set aside for such purpose not later than the date on which notice of such redemption is given to the Registered Owners, such redemption will be contingent upon the availability of funds to effect such redemption.

The Offered Obligations of a Series bearing interest at an Auction Rate will be subject to redemption, at the option of the Corporation, in whole or in part, in each case at a Redemption Price equal to the unpaid principal amount thereof plus, unless the Redemption Date is an Interest Payment Date, accrued and unpaid interest to the Redemption Date, on the first day following the end of any Auction Period for the Offered Obligations to be redeemed from moneys transferred to the Redemption Subaccount from the Surplus Account; provided that, not later than the date on which notice of such redemption is to be given to the Registered Owners, moneys sufficient to effect any such redemption must be on deposit in the Redemption Subaccount (or in the Surplus Account and set aside for transfer to the Redemption Subaccount for such purpose). The maturities and Series to be redeemed will be selected by the Trustee so that, to the maximum extent possible taking into account redemption of Offered Obligations in Authorized Denominations, approximately equal percentages of each Series will be redeemed, unless the Trustee has received, not less than forty-five (45) days prior to the Redemption Date: (i) a Corporation Order directing that specific aggregate principal amounts of Offered Obligations of one or more specific Series will be redeemed; (ii) a Cash Flow Certificate with respect to redemption of such aggregate principal amounts of such Series and Stated Maturities; (iii) and evidence acceptable to the Trustee that either (a) after such redemption the Senior Asset Requirement will be met, or (b) (1) the Senior Asset Requirement is not being met at the time, (2) no Subordinate Obligations are directed to be redeemed pursuant to such Corporation Order, and (3) after such redemption, the ratio of the Balances included in the Trust Estate Fund to the outstanding principal of and accrued and unpaid interest on Senior Obligations will be greater than such ratio would have been if the Offered Obligations to be redeemed had been selected in the manner set forth in this paragraph, without regard to such Corporation Order. In the event that moneys are so transferred to the Redemption Subaccount, the redemption of Offered Obligations of a Series shall occur on the earliest date following such transfer on which Offered Obligations of such Series can be redeemed and with respect to which notice of such redemption can be given. Because of the uncertainties relating to the amounts and timing of receipt of pledged revenues under the Indenture, the amounts expected to be available for such redemption in the Surplus Account cannot be definitively stated. In addition, it is difficult to predict whether the Corporation will elect to exercise such option. See Appendix G, "CASH FLOW ASSUMPTIONS – Factors Affecting Sufficiency and Timing of Receipt of Pledged Revenues".

Mandatory Redemption of Offered Obligations from Moneys in Acquisition Account

The Offered Obligations shall be subject to mandatory redemption, in part, at a Redemption Price equal to the unpaid principal amount thereof, plus, unless the Redemption Date shall be an Interest Payment Date with respect to the Offered Obligations to be redeemed, accrued and unpaid interest to the Redemption Date, on the first day following the end of any Auction Period for the Offered Obligations to be redeemed from money transferred from the Original Proceeds Subaccount, the Transferred Proceeds Subaccount and/or the Revolving Subaccount of the Acquisition Account to the Redemption Subaccount pursuant to the Indenture. The maturities and Series to be redeemed will be selected by the Trustee so that, to the maximum extent possible taking into account redemption of Offered Obligations in Authorized Denominations, approximately equal percentages of each Series will be redeemed, unless the Trustee has received, not less than forty-five (45) days prior to the Redemption Date: (i) a Corporation Order directing that specific aggregate principal amounts of Offered Obligations of one or more specific Series will be redeemed; (ii) a Cash Flow Certificate with respect to redemption of such aggregate principal amounts of such Series and Stated Maturities; (iii) and evidence acceptable to the Trustee that either (a) after such redemption the Senior Asset Requirement will be met, or (b) (1) the Senior Asset Requirement is not being met at the time, (2) no Subordinate Obligations are directed to be redeemed pursuant to such Corporation

Order, and (3) after such redemption, the ratio of the Balances included in the Trust Estate Fund to the outstanding principal of and accrued and unpaid interest on Senior Obligations will be greater than such ratio would have been if the Offered Obligations to be redeemed had been selected in the manner set forth in this paragraph, without regard to such Corporation Order. In the event that moneys are so transferred to the Redemption Subaccount, the redemption of Offered Obligations of a Series shall occur on the earliest date following such transfer on which Offered Obligations of such Series can be redeemed and with respect to which notice of such redemption can be given.

Mandatory Sinking Fund Redemption

$15,000,000 of the Series 2000-A-2 Bonds are subject to a sinking fund redemption at a Redemption Price of 100% of the principal amount thereof on September 1, 2009, from amounts credited to the Senior Sinking Fund Subaccount, upon notice given by the Trustee to the Holders thereof in the form and manner described below under the caption "Manner and Notice of Redemption".

The Corporation shall have the option to present to the Trustee any Series 2000-A-2 Bonds that have been redeemed, canceled (including, but not limited to, cancellation following purchase by the Corporation) or otherwise retired pursuant to the Indenture and to receive a credit against the mandatory sinking fund redemption amount discussed in this subsection in the amount of such redeemed, canceled or otherwise retired Series 2000-A-2 Bonds, provided that, not less than forty (40) days prior to September 1, 2009, the Corporation shall have delivered to the Trustee a Corporation Order specifying the amount of such credit and identifying the Series 2000-A-2 Bonds previously redeemed, canceled or otherwise retired which are to be applied to such credit. Each Series 2000-A-2 Bond so delivered shall be credited by the Trustee at one-hundred percent (100%) of the principal amount thereof against the mandatory sinking fund requirement.

Limitations on Redemption of Obligations, including Offered Obligations

Any election of the Corporation to redeem Obligations (other than redemption of Senior Obligations pursuant to sinking fund provisions or if all Senior Obligations are to be redeemed) or to exercise its option to redeem Obligations will, in addition to being evidenced by a Corporation Order, be accompanied by evidence acceptable to the Trustee that either (i) after such redemption the Senior Asset Requirement will be met or (ii) (a) the Senior Asset Requirement is not being met at the time, (b) no Subordinate Obligations will be redeemed pursuant to such election, and (c) after such redemption, the ratio of Balances included in the Trust Estate Fund to the outstanding principal of and accrued and unpaid interest on Senior Obligations will be greater than such ratio would have been without such redemption.

No Subordinate Obligations shall be redeemed unless, after such redemption, the Senior Asset Requirement will be met. No Senior Obligations shall be redeemed (other than pursuant to mandatory sinking fund provisions or if all Senior Obligations are to be redeemed) unless either: (i) after such redemption the Senior Asset Requirement will be met; or (ii) the Corporation shall have provided to the Trustee, not less than thirty (30) days prior to such redemption, a Cash Flow Certificate with respect to such redemption and evidence that (a) the Senior Asset Requirement is not being met at the time and (b) after such redemption the ratio of the Balances included in the Trust Estate Fund to the outstanding principal of and accrued and unpaid interest on the Senior Obligations will be greater than such ratio would have been without such redemption.

Manner and Notice of Redemption

If less than all of the Outstanding Obligations of a Series are to be redeemed, the maturities of Obligations to be redeemed shall be selected by the Trustee so that, to the maximum extent possible taking into account redemption of Obligations in Authorized Denominations, approximately equal percentages of each Stated Maturity of Obligations of such Series will be redeemed; unless the Trustee has received, not less than forty-five (45) days prior to the redemption date, a Corporation Order directing that specific aggregate principal amounts of Obligations of one or more specific Stated Maturities are to be redeemed, and a Cash Flow Certificate with respect to redemption of such aggregate principal amounts of such Stated Maturities. If less than all of the Outstanding Obligations of a Stated Maturity within a Series are to be redeemed, the particular Obligations to be redeemed shall be selected by the Trustee by lot or random selection in such manner as the Trustee shall deem fair and appropriate.

Notice of redemption will be given by first class mail, postage prepaid, mailed not less than 15 nor more than 60 days prior to the Redemption Date, to each Holder of Obligations to be redeemed (which initially will be DTC or its nominee) at the address of such Holder appearing in the Bond Register, but no defect in or failure to give such mailed notice of redemption shall affect the validity of proceedings for the redemption of any Obligations not affected by such defect or failure. All notices of redemption will state: (1) the Redemption Date; (2) the Redemption Price; (3) the complete official name (with Series designation) of the Series of Obligations being redeemed; (4) the CUSIP number(s) of the Series of Obligations being redeemed; (5) the certificate numbers of the Series of Obligations being redeemed and, if less than all of the Obligation represented by a certificate is being redeemed, the principal amount represented by such certificate being redeemed; (6) the initial date of the Series of Obligations being redeemed (without regard to any dates resulting from any exchange or transfer of Obligations); (7) the interest rate or rates of the Series of Obligations being redeemed; (8) the Stated Maturity or Maturities of the Series of Obligations being redeemed; (9) the aggregate principal amount of the Series of Obligations being redeemed; (10) that, on the redemption date, the Redemption Price of and accrued and unpaid interest on the Series of Obligations being redeemed (or portion thereof) will become due and payable and that interest on each such Obligation (or portion thereof) shall cease to accrue on and after such date; (11) the place or places where the Series of Obligations being redeemed are to be surrendered for payment of the Redemption Price; (12) the name of the Trustee and an address and telephone number for contacting the Trustee; and (13) if such be the case, that the Obligations are to be redeemed by the application of certain specified moneys and for certain specified reasons.

The Indenture requires that a copy of each redemption notice shall also be given, on the date of mailing to the Holders, to two national information services by a secure means such that the Trustee will be able to verify the date of mailing (or delivery) and to any Holder of Obligations of a Series in the aggregate principal amount of $1,000,000 or more, regardless of whether any of the Obligations held by such Holder are called for redemption; provided that a failure to give such notice to national information services or any such Holder whose Obligations are not being redeemed shall not affect the validity of the proceedings for redemption of any Obligation held by any Holder to whom notice shall have been given as described above. See "CONTINUING DISCLOSURE" below for information regarding the Corporation's requirement under its Continuing Disclosure Agreement to notify each designated nationally recognized municipal securities information repository or the Municipal Securities Rulemaking Board and any state information depository of calls for redemption.

Notice of redemption having been given as provided above, the Series of Obligations designated in the notice will, on the redemption date, become due and payable at the Redemption Price specified, plus (unless the redemption date shall be an Interest Payment Date) interest accrued and unpaid thereon to the Redemption Date, and, on and after such date, unless the Corporation defaults in the payment of the Redemption Price and accrued and unpaid interest, such Obligations will cease to bear interest.

Within sixty (60) days of any redemption date, a second notice of redemption will be given, in the manner described above, to the Holder of any Obligation not presented for redemption within thirty (30) days of the redemption date.

APPLICATION OF THE PROCEEDS OF THE OFFERED OBLIGATIONS

The proceeds of the sale of the Offered Obligations are expected to be applied as follows:

The Series 1993-1994 Trustee will use the moneys so received to refund a like amount of the outstanding principal amount of the Series 1994 Refunded Bonds. Cash and Investment Securities received from the Series 1993-1994 Trustee will be applied as follows: $300,000 of cash and Investment Securities will be credited to the Reserve Subaccount; $154,314 of cash and Investment Securities will be credited to the Senior and/or Subordinate Debt Service Subaccounts; $120,579 of cash and Investment Securities will be applied to pay costs of issuance (including underwriting fees); and $14,425,107 of cash and Investment Securities will be credited to the Transferred Proceeds Subaccount.

UNDERWRITING

The Offered Obligations are being purchased by Salomon Smith Barney Inc. as the Underwriter. The Purchase Contract in connection with the Offered Obligations (the "Purchase Contract") provides that the Underwriter will purchase all of the Offered Obligations if any are purchased. The Corporation has agreed in the Purchase Contract to indemnify the Underwriter against certain liabilities in connection with the sale of the Offered Obligations. In connection with the issuance and sale of the Offered Obligations, the Underwriter will purchase the Offered Obligations at a price of 100% of their principal amount, plus accrued interest, if any. The Underwriter will be paid underwriting fees in the aggregate amount of $ 606,188 in connection with its purchase and sale of the Offered Obligations.

The Underwriter may offer and sell the Offered Obligations to certain dealers (including dealers depositing Offered Obligations into unit investment trusts) and others at prices lower than the public offering price stated on the cover page hereof. The initial offering prices may be changed from time to time by the Underwriter.

TAX MATTERS

In the opinion of Watkins Ludlam Winter & Stennis, P.A., Bond Counsel, assuming continuing compliance with all covenants set forth in the Indenture, and subject to the condition set forth below, under existing statutes, regulations and court decisions, as presently interpreted and construed, interest on the Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds earned by the respective owners thereof is excludable from gross income for federal income tax purposes pursuant to Section 103 of the Code. The Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds will be "specified private activity bonds" (as defined in Section 57(a)(5)(C) of the Code) and accordingly interest thereon will be treated as a specific preference item in calculating alternative minimum tax imposed on all taxpayers by Section 55 of the Code. Interest on the Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds will be includable in computing the following: (a) the income adjustments for property and casualty insurers pursuant to Section 832 of the Code; (b) the branch profits tax imposed by Section 884 of the Code; and (c) the tax on excess "net passive income" imposed by Section 1375 of the Code on certain Subchapter S corporations that have Subchapter C earnings and profits. The Code includes certain restrictions, conditions and requirements, compliance with which subsequent to issuance of the Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds is necessary in order that interest on the Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds be (and continue to be) excludable from gross income for federal income tax purposes pursuant to Section 103 of the Code. Bond Counsel's opinion is subject to the condition that the Corporation comply with all requirements of the Code, compliance with which subsequent to the issuance of the Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds is necessary in order that interest thereon be, and continue to be, excludable from gross income for federal income tax purposes. The Corporation has covenanted to comply with each such requirement, and failure of the Corporation to comply with such requirements may cause the inclusion of interest on the Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds in gross income for federal income tax purposes, retroactive to the date of issuance of the Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds.

Pursuant to Section 55 of the Code, an alternative minimum tax is imposed if a taxpayer's regular income tax for a year is less than such taxpayer's "tentative minimum tax" for such year. "Tentative minimum tax" is computed on the basis of "alternative minimum taxable income". "Alternative minimum taxable income" is taxable income determined with certain adjustments and increased by certain items of tax preference. Among the specific items of tax preference for all taxpayers is interest on any "specified private activity bond", reduced by any deduction (not allowable in computing the regular tax) which would have been allowable if such were included in gross income. In the opinion of Bond Counsel, the Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds will be "specified private activity bonds", and accordingly interest thereon will be treated as a specific item of tax preference.

Interest on the Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds earned by a corporation will be included in calculating "modified alternative minimum taxable income" for purposes of computing the environmental tax imposed by Section 59A of the Code. Interest on the Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds earned by certain Subchapter S corporations that have Subchapter C earnings and profits may be included in computing the tax on excess "net passive income" imposed by Section 1375 of the Code. Interest on the Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds earned by certain foreign corporations doing business in the United States may be subject to the branch profits tax imposed by Section 884 of the Code. Interest on the Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds held by persons who also receive Social Security or Railroad Retirement Benefits may have the effect of subjecting part of such benefits to federal income taxation. Interest earned on the Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds may also have collateral effects upon the tax liability of the owners of the Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds, and such effects may vary depending upon the nature of the owner. No deduction is allowed for a taxpayer's interest expense incurred or continued to purchase or carry tax-exempt obligations such as the Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds (or, with respect to financial institutions, interest expense allocable to tax-exempt interest). In computing the deduction allowed to a financial institution, 100% of the interest allocated to tax-exempt obligations such as the Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds is disallowed. (The Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds will not be "qualified tax-exempt obligations" as defined in Section 265(b) of the Code.)

Deductible underwriting losses of property and casualty insurance companies will be reduced by 15% of the amount of interest received (or accrued) on the Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds. (If the amount of the reduction exceeds the amount otherwise deductible as losses incurred, such excess may be includable in income.)

Bond Counsel will not opine with respect to any federal tax consequences arising with respect to the Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds, other than the exclusion of interest on the Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds from gross income for federal income tax purposes pursuant to Section 103 of the Code. Any party considering purchasing Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds should consult with its own tax advisor concerning the effects of various provisions of the Code before acquiring Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds.

Legislation which may affect the tax consequences of owning municipal bonds is regularly being considered by the United States Congress. There can be no assurance that legislation enacted after the date of issuance of the Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds will not adversely affect the tax consequences of owning the Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds, the tax-exempt status of interest on the Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds, or the market price of the Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds.

The Offered Tax-Exempt Bonds and interest thereon will be includable for purposes of computing taxes imposed by the State of Mississippi to the same extent as would be the case if interest on the Offered Tax-

Exempt Bonds were not excludable from gross income for federal income tax purposes pursuant to Section 103 of the Code.

RATINGS

It is a condition precedent to the issuance of the Offered Obligations that (i) Moody's Investors Service, Inc. ("Moody's") assigns its municipal bond rating of "Aaa" to each Series of the Offered Senior Obligations and "A2" to the Offered Subordinate Obligations and (ii) Fitch IBCA, Inc. ("Fitch") assigns its bond rating of "AAA" to each Series of the Offered Senior Obligations and "A" to the Offered Subordinate Obligations. The Corporation has furnished Moody's and Fitch with certain information and materials concerning the Offered Obligations and the Corporation, some of which is not included in this Official Statement. Generally, a rating agency bases its rating on such information and materials and also on such investigations, studies and assumptions as each may undertake or establish independently.

A rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold the Offered Obligations, and any such rating should be evaluated independently. Each rating is subject to change or withdrawal at any time, and any such change or withdrawal may affect the market price or marketability of the Offered Obligations. Except as otherwise undertaken by the Corporation pursuant to the Continuing Disclosure Agreement described immediately below, neither the Corporation nor the Underwriter has undertaken any responsibility either to bring to the attention of the Holders of the Offered Obligations any proposed change in or withdrawal of the rating of the Offered Obligations or to oppose any such change or withdrawal.

CONTINUING DISCLOSURE

The Corporation is an obligated person with respect to the Offered Obligations under Rule 15c2-12 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Rule") and, accordingly, will agree, for the benefit of the Holders and Beneficial Owners from time to time of the Offered Obligations, to provide or cause to be provided certain financial information and operating data ("Annual Information"), financial statements and notices in such manner as may be required for purposes of paragraph (b)(5)(i) of the Rule (the "Continuing Disclosure Agreement"), including specifically the following:

- A. To each nationally recognized municipal securities information repository designated from time to time by the Securities and Exchange Commission ("NRMSIR") and to any Mississippi state information depository ("SID"):
 - 1. Annual Information for each fiscal year of the Corporation ending on or after December 31, 1999, not later than 180 days following the end of each such fiscal year (the "Filing Date"), consisting of the annual financial information and operating data included herein in the section captioned "THE CORPORATION -- Other Outstanding Bonds and Notes of the Corporation and Related Student Loans", in the third paragraph of the section captioned "THE CORPORATION'S STUDENT LOAN PURCHASE PROGRAM -- General" and in APPENDIX H. The Corporation expects that Annual Information will be provided directly by the Corporation or, in part, by cross reference to other documents previously provided to each NRMSIR and any SID, or to another final Official Statement or other disclosure document of the Corporation filed with the Municipal Securities Rulemaking Board ("MSRB").
 - 2. The Corporation's financial statements for each fiscal year ending on or after December 31, 1999. The Corporation expects that such financial statements will be audited and will be prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and that they will be submitted as part of the Annual Information or when otherwise available, not to exceed 180 days following the end of each such fiscal year.

B. To each NRMSIR or the MSRB, and to any SID, in a timely manner, notice of:

1. The occurrence of any of the following events, within the meaning of the Rule, with respect to the Offered Obligations, if material:
 - (1) principal and interest payment delinquencies;
 - (2) non-payment related defaults;
 - (3) unscheduled draws on debt service reserves reflecting financial difficulties;
 - (4) unscheduled draws on credit enhancements reflecting financial difficulties;
 - (5) substitution of credit or liquidity providers, or their failure to perform;
 - (6) adverse tax opinions or events affecting the tax-exempt status, if any, of any Tax-Exempt Bonds;
 - (7) modifications to rights of Holders or beneficial owners;
 - (8) calls for redemption;
 - (9) defeasances;
 - (10) release, substitution, or sale of property securing repayment of the Offered Obligations; and
 - (11) rating changes.
2. The Corporation's failure to provide the Annual Information within the time specified above.
3. Any change in the accounting principles applied in the preparation of its annual financial statements, any change in its fiscal year, and the termination of the Continuing Disclosure Agreement.

If the Trustee has not received the Annual Information by the close of business on the 15th Business Day preceding the Filing Date, the Trustee shall provide a notice to the Corporation not later than its close of business on the next Business Day. If evidence of the timely filing of the Annual Information is not delivered to the Trustee by 3:00 p.m. on the second Business Day following the Filing Date, the Trustee shall provide a notice to such effect to each NRMSIR and to any SID, not later than its close of business on such Business Day.

The Continuing Disclosure Agreement may be amended, and noncompliance with any provisions of the Continuing Disclosure Agreement may be waived, as may be necessary or appropriate to achieve its compliance with any applicable federal securities law or rule, to cure any ambiguity, inconsistency or formal defect or omission, and to address any change in circumstances arising from a change in legal requirements, change in law, or change in the identity, nature, or status of the Corporation, or type of business conducted by the Corporation. Any such amendment or waiver will not be effective unless the Continuing Disclosure Agreement (as amended or taking into account such waiver) would have complied with the requirements of the Rule at the time of the primary offering of the Offered Obligations, after taking into account any applicable amendments to or official interpretations of the Rule, as well as any change in circumstances, and until the Corporation and the Trustee shall have received either (i) a written opinion of bond or other qualified independent special counsel selected by the Corporation, or a determination by the Trustee, that the amendment or waiver would not materially impair the interests of the Holders or Beneficial Owners of the Offered Obligations, or (ii) the written consent to the amendment or waiver of the Holders of at least a majority of the principal amount of the Offered Obligations then outstanding.

The Continuing Disclosure Agreement will be solely for the benefit of the Holders and the Beneficial Owners from time to time of the Offered Obligations. The exclusive remedy for any breach of the Continuing Disclosure Agreement by the Corporation is limited to a right of Holders and Beneficial Owners of the Offered Obligations, or the Trustee, to institute and maintain, or cause to be instituted and maintained, on behalf of such Holders and Beneficial Owners, such proceedings as may be authorized at law or in equity to obtain the specific performance by the Corporation of its obligations under the Continuing Disclosure Agreement. The Trustee may exercise any such right and, if requested to do so by the Holders or Beneficial Owners of at least 25% in aggregate principal amount of the Offered Obligations then outstanding, the Trustee shall exercise any such right, subject in each case to the same conditions, limitations and procedures that would apply under the Indenture if the breach were an Event of Default under the Indenture. In addition, any Holder or Beneficial Owner may exercise any such right; provided that, except in the instance of an alleged failure of the Corporation to provide or cause to be provided a pertinent filing if such a filing is due and has not been made, any such right shall be exercised in the same manner and subject to the same conditions and limitations that would apply under the Indenture if the breach were an Event of Default under the Indenture. See APPENDIX B-"CERTAIN DEFINITIONS AND SUMMARY OF CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF THE INDENTURE-Events of Default and Remedies". Notwithstanding the foregoing, a default under the Continuing Disclosure Agreement shall not be deemed an Event of Default under the Indenture.

The Continuing Disclosure Agreement will remain in effect only for such period that the Offered Obligations are outstanding in accordance with their terms and the Corporation remains an obligated person with respect to the Offered Obligations within the meaning of the Rule. The obligation of the Corporation to provide the Annual Information, financial statements and notices of the events described above will terminate if and when the Corporation no longer remains such an obligated person.

The following NRMSIRs exist at this time: Bloomberg Municipal Repositories, Skillman, New Jersey; DPC Data, Inc., Fort Lee, New Jersey, and Thomson NRMSIR and Standard & Poor's J. J. Kenny Repository, each of New York, New York. A SID does not exist at this time.

LEGAL MATTERS

Legal matters incident to the authorization, issuance, sale and delivery of the Offered Obligations are subject to the approving opinion of Watkins Ludlam Winter & Stennis, P.A., Jackson, Mississippi, Bond Counsel which opinions will be in substantially the forms set forth in APPENDICES I-1 and I-2. Watkins Ludlam Winter & Stennis, P.A., serves as general counsel to the Corporation and is also serving as counsel to the Corporation in connection with the issuance of the Offered Obligations. Certain legal matters will be passed upon for the Corporation by its general counsel Watkins Ludlam Winter & Stennis, P.A., Jackson, Mississippi, and for the Underwriter by its counsel Calfee, Halter & Griswold LLP, Cleveland, Ohio.

ERISA CONSIDERATIONS

By virtue of activities unrelated to the issuance and underwriting of a Series of the Offered Obligations constituting Auction Rate Taxable Notes, the Corporation, the Trust Estate, the Underwriter, parties associated with the Student Loans (including the sellers, servicers, lenders and borrowers thereof), and their affiliates may be considered to be, with respect to an employee benefit plan, a "party in interest," within the meaning of section 3(14) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA"), or a "disqualified person" within the meaning of section 4975(e)(2) of the Code. An acquisition of such a Series of Auction Rate Taxable Notes by any such plan may constitute a "prohibited transaction" within the meaning of ERISA and the Code unless the acquisition is made pursuant to an exemption, such as the exemption for certain transactions effected on behalf of such plan by a "qualified professional asset manager" as defined in and satisfying the terms and conditions of the exemption or pursuant to any other available exemption. Any such plan proposing to invest in such Series of Auction Rate Taxable Notes should consult with its legal counsel.

UNITED STATES FEDERAL INCOME TAX WITHHOLDING

Under Section 3406 of the Code, a Beneficial Owner of a Series of the Offered Obligations constituting Auction Rate Taxable Notes may, under certain circumstances, be subject to "backup withholding" on payment of current or accrued interest on the Auction Rate Taxable Notes and any Carry-over Amount (and interest accrued thereon). This withholding applies if the Beneficial Owner of the Auction Rate Taxable Notes: (i) fails to furnish to the Trustee such Beneficial Owner's social security number or other taxpayer identification number ("TIN"); (ii) furnishes the Trustee an incorrect TIN; (iii) fails to report properly interest or dividends and has been notified by the Internal Revenue Service of such failure; or (iv) under certain circumstances, fails to provide the Trustee or such Beneficial Owner's securities broker with a certified statement, signed under penalty of perjury that the TIN provided to the Trustee is correct and that such Beneficial Owner is not subject to backup withholding. The withholding rate is 31% of reportable payments, which include interest payments.

In addition, if a Beneficial Owner is a non-United States Beneficial Owner certain other rules apply. A non-United States Beneficial Owner is a Beneficial Owner that is a non-resident alien, a foreign corporation, a foreign partnership or a foreign trust, estate or beneficiary all as defined in the Code. If the interest is effectively connected with the conduct of the Beneficial Owner's trade or business within the United States, the interest will be taxable; however, there will be no withholding as long as form 4224 is provided to the Trustee prior to the payment of such interest. In addition, where the interest is not effectively connected with a non-United States Beneficial Owner's conduct of a trade or business in the United States, the interest (including original issue discount, if any) will neither be taxable to the non-United States Beneficial Owner nor subject to withholding on interest unless (i) such non-United States Beneficial Owner is a direct or indirect 10% or greater shareholder of, or a controlled foreign corporation related to, the Corporation, (ii) such non-United States Beneficial Owner is a bank and the interest is received pursuant to a loan agreement entered into in the ordinary course of its trade or business or (iii) the exemption contained in the following paragraph is not met. The withholding rate on payments to non-United States Beneficial Owners subject to backup withholding is 30%.

To qualify for the exemption from taxation and withholding referred to in the preceding paragraph, the obligation must be in registered form and the last United States person in the chain of payment prior to payment to a non-United States Beneficial Owner (the "Withholding Agent") must have received in the year in which a payment of interest or principal occurs, or in either of the two preceding years, a statement that (i) is signed by the Beneficial Owner under penalties of perjury, (ii) certifies that such owner is not a United States Beneficial Owner, and (iii) provides the name and address of the Beneficial Owner. The statement may be made on Form W-8 published by the Internal Revenue Service or substantially similar form. The Beneficial Owner must inform the Withholding Agent of any change in the information included in the statement within thirty (30) days of such change. If Auction Rate Taxable Notes are held through a securities clearing organization or certain other financial institutions, the organization or institution may provide a signed statement to the Withholding Agent. However, in such case, the signed statement must be accompanied by a copy of a Form W-8 or substitute form provided by the Beneficial Owner to the clearing organization or other institution holding the Offered Obligations on behalf of the Beneficial Owner.

Generally, any gain upon retirement or disposition of an Auction Rate Taxable Note by a non-United States Beneficial Owner will not be subject to federal income taxes in respect of such amount unless, in the case of a non-United States Beneficial Owner who is a nonresident alien individual, the Beneficial Owner is present in the United States for 183 days or more in the taxable year of sale.

THE FEDERAL INCOME TAX DISCUSSION SET FORTH ABOVE IS INCLUDED FOR GENERAL INFORMATION ONLY AND MAY NOT BE APPLICABLE DEPENDING UPON A BENEFICIAL OWNER'S PARTICULAR SITUATION. BENEFICIAL OWNERS SHOULD CONSULT THEIR TAX ADVISORS WITH RESPECT TO THE TAX CONSEQUENCES TO THEM OF THE OWNERSHIP AND DISPOSITION OF OFFERED OBLIGATIONS CONSTITUTING AUCTION RATE TAXABLE NOTES, INCLUDING THE TAX CONSEQUENCES UNDER STATE, LOCAL, FOREIGN AND OTHER TAX LAWS AND THE POSSIBLE EFFECTS OF CHANGES IN FEDERAL OR OTHER TAX LAWS.

The Trustee will furnish, or will cause to be furnished, within a reasonable time after the end of each calendar year and as required by the Code, information to each Beneficial Owner of Auction Rate Taxable Notes regarding income and principal distributed to Beneficial Owners of the Auction Rate Taxable Notes, and regarding such other information as is necessary to enable Beneficial Owners of the Auction Rate Taxable Notes to prepare their tax returns.

ABSENCE OF LITIGATION

There is currently no litigation pending, or, to the knowledge of the Corporation, threatened, which would have the effect of prohibiting the issuance, sale or delivery of the Offered Obligations or the pledge of the Trust Estate as provided by the Indenture.

Report of Independent Certified Public Accountants

To the Directors of Mississippi Higher Education Assistance Corporation

We have audited the accompanying statements of financial position of Mississippi Higher Education Assistance Corporation as of December 31, 1998 and 1997, and the related statements of activities and changes in unrestricted net assets and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Corporation's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining on a test basis evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Mississippi Higher Education Assistance Corporation as of December 31, 1998 and 1997, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

MISSISSIPPI HIGHER EDUCATION ASSISTANCE CORPORATION

Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 1998 and 1997

Note A - Organization and Significant Accounting Policies

Organization

Mississippi Higher Education Assistance Corporation (the "Corporation"), is a nonprofit corporation organized on January 23, 1980, under the laws of the State of Mississippi for the exclusive purpose of acquiring student loans incurred under the Higher Education Act. The Corporation is not an agency or instrumentality of the State of Mississippi or any agency or political subdivision thereof. The proceeds of the debt obligations issued by the Corporation are used primarily to purchase student loans.

Trustees

Trustmark National Bank and Bank of Mississippi, as Trustees, perform duties involving the acquisition of student loans, the investment and disbursement of monies as directed by the Corporation, and the servicing of debt obligations issued by the Corporation.

Income Taxes

The Corporation has received Internal Revenue Service determination letters to the effect that it is a tax-exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") and that the Corporation is not a private foundation within the meaning of Section 509(a) of the Code because it is an organization of the type described in Sections 170(b)(1)(A)(vi) and 509(a)(1) of the Code.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Corporation considers all checking accounts, money market accounts and repurchase agreements with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash and cash equivalents. All other securities are classified as investments.

Investments

Investments are carried at cost or amortized cost.

Provision for Losses on Loans and Uncollected Interest

An evaluation of the loan portfolio and applicable guarantees with Federal reinsurance or direct Federal insurance is made to determine the necessity for a provision for loan losses or uncollected interest.

Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 1998 and 1997

Note A - Organization and Significant Accounting Policies - continued:

Deferred Costs of Issuance

The costs of issuing bonds, which are composed of underwriter's discount, legal costs and other related financing costs, are capitalized and amortized over the expected life of the related debt issue on a weighted average basis.

Loan Premiums, Transfer Fees and Origination Fees

Loan premiums, transfer fees and origination fees are capitalized and amortized using the interest method. As the result of a survey of loans paid in full during 1998, the Corporation has reduced the amortization period of loan premiums and transfer fees from ten to eight years. The amortization period for origination fees has been reduced from twenty to sixteen years. The change in amortization periods reduced the 1998 increase in unrestricted net assets by $429,978.

Interest Income and Special Allowances

Interest is accrued on investments and on student loans. Quarterly special allowance payments from the United States Department of Education are also accrued. Included in revenues for 1998 is $262,676 that resulted from a change by the United States Department of Education in its method of calculating special allowance for 1994.

Interest Rate Swap Agreement

The differential to be paid or received is accrued as interest rates change and is recognized over the life of the agreement.

Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Note B - Cash and Investments

Financial instruments which potentially subject the Corporation to concentrations of credit risk consist principally of cash and investments. The Corporation places its cash and investments with high quality financial institutions. At times, deposits with banks may be in excess of the FDIC insurance limit. The Corporation routinely assesses the financial strength of the institutions and, as

The majority of cash and investments are restricted for the acquisition of student loans, repayment of bond and note obligations and to satisfy certain reserve requirements specified by the various bond and note indentures.

At December 31, 1998 and December 31, 1997, $3,575,777 and $3,397,080, respectively, of the Short-Term Investments Company AIM Treasury Portfolio was pledged as collateral for the obligations described in Note I.

Note C - Student Loans

Student loans purchased through December 31, 1998, include Stafford Student Loans (formerly Guaranteed Student Loans) made to students, PLUS Loans made to parents of dependent undergraduates, SLS Loans made to independent students and Federal Consolidation Loans. The terms of the loans, which vary on an individual basis, generally provide for repayment in monthly installments of principal and interest over a period of up to ten years for Stafford, PLUS and SLS Loans and up to thirty years for Federal Consolidation Loans. The majority of the student loans are pledged to the repayment of bonds outstanding. Interest rates for student loans range from 5.00% to 12.00%. Concentrations of credit risk with respect to student loans are limited due to large number of borrowers and the guarantee described below.

The United States Department of Education (DOE) pays the Corporation an interest subsidy on Stafford Student Loans while the student is in school, the loan is in the grace period, or loan repayment is deferred. A special allowance is paid to the Corporation by DOE at the end of each quarter, consisting of additional interest on all outstanding Stafford Student Loans. The allowance is related to the average of 91-day Treasury Bill rates during each quarter.

Student loans purchased by the Corporation, as well as accrued interest thereon, are guaranteed by the State Guarantor or are insured by DOE. The State Guarantor guarantees 98% (100% for loans disbursed prior to October 1, 1993) of principal and accrued interest. DOE insures 100% of principal and accrued interest.

Loans guaranteed by the State Guarantor are reinsured by DOE. The DOE reimbursement rate to the State Guarantor is 98% (100% for loans disbursed prior to October 1, 1993), provided the State Guarantor's reinsurance claims rate does not exceed 5% within a given Federal fiscal year. The DOE reimbursement rate to the State Guarantor is 88% (90% for loans disbursed prior to October 1, 1993) during the period that the State Guarantor's reinsurance claims rate exceeds 5% but is less than or equal to 9%, and the reimbursement rate is 78% (80% for loans disbursed prior to October 1, 1993) for the remainder of the fiscal year during which the reinsurance claims rate exceeds 9%.

The State Guarantor was the Mississippi Guarantee Student Loan Agency (MGSLA) through September 30, 1994. On September 7, 1994, pursuant to a request made by the Governor of the State of Mississippi, DOE formally approved the transfer of the State Guarantor function from MGSLA to United Student Aid Funds, Inc. (USAF). The Governor designated USAF as the State Guarantor effective as of midnight, September 30, 1994. USAF has agreed to fully assume and perform all of the loan guarantee obligations of MGSLA. Neither the Corporation nor its Trustees have released MGSLA from its loan guarantee obligations.

In conjunction with the issuance of the Series 1993 Bonds, the Corporation entered into an interest rate swap agreement with General Re Financial Products Corporation (the "counterparty") for an initial notional amount of $125,000,000. The swap agreement was entered into primarily to reduce the Corporation's risk of interest rate changes with respect to the financing evidenced by the Series 1993 Bonds. The counterparty is obligated to pay the trustee an amount equal to the scheduled debt service expense on $125,000,000 of the Series 1993 Bonds (the "swapped bonds"), and the Corporation is obligated to pay the counterparty an amount computed by applying a variable rate to the outstanding notional amount of the swap agreement. The notional amount of the swap agreement is reduced as principal of the swapped bonds is scheduled to mature or be redeemed. As a result of the swap agreement, the Corporation's obligation with respect to the swapped bonds has been effectively converted to a variable rate. Thus, the Corporation will incur interest rate risks similar to those incurred with respect to variable rate financing. The interest rate swap agreement involves the risk of dealing with the counterparty and its ability to meet the terms of the agreement. However, management does not anticipate such nonperformance. The amount potentially subject to credit risk is the excess of the counterparty's payment obligation over the Corporation's payment obligation.

The Series 1994-A, Series 1994-B, Series 1996-A, Series 1996-B, Series 1998-A, and Series 1998-B Bonds (the "auction rate bonds") bear interest at auction rates determined by the Auction Agent, in accordance with auction procedures set forth in the Supplements pursuant to which the bonds were issued (the "Supplements"), for auction periods of generally 35 days (subject to change in accordance with the Supplements). The auction rate bonds are subject to conversion from time to time, at the option of the Corporation to bear interest at variable or fixed rates as described in the Supplements. The auction rate bonds are subject to mandatory tender for purchase upon (and in certain circumstances subsequent to) any such conversion as provided in the Supplements. Interest on the auction rate bonds is (subject to change in accordance with the Supplements) payable on each March 1, September 1 and at maturity. The auction rate bonds are subject to redemption prior to maturity as described in the Supplements. The auction rate bonds are secured on parity with the Series 1993-A and Series 1993-B Bonds.

The Series 1994-C Bonds bear interest at a fixed rate of 7.50%. The Series 1996-C Bonds bear interest at fixed rates ranging from 6.70% to 6.80%. Interest on the Series 1994-C and Series 1996-C Bonds is (subject to change in accordance with the Supplements) payable on each March 1, September 1 and at maturity. The Series 1994-C and Series 1996-C Bonds are subject to redemption prior to maturity as described in the Supplements. The Series 1994-C and Series 1996-C Bonds are secured on parity with the Series 1993-C Bonds.

The Series 1997-A Note consists of draws made by the Corporation under a $35,000,000 taxable line of credit. The Note bears interest based on LIBOR rates for periods of approximately one, two, or three months. The line of credit expires December 18, 2000, at which time the Note is due and payable. The Corporation expects to redeem the Series 1997-A Note prior to maturity with proceeds of student loan revenue bonds issued by the Corporation.

Note F - Supplemental Schedule of Noncash Operating, Investing and Financing Activities

The Corporation has capitalized certain amounts of accrued interest income on the student loans and included the amounts in student loans receivable. For the years ended December 31, 1998 and 1997, capitalized interest amounted to approximately $7,152,000 and $6,727,000, respectively.

Note G - Disclosures About Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Statement 107 requires disclosure of estimated fair value information for the Corporation's financial instruments. Such information is based on the requirements set forth in that Statement and does not purport to represent the aggregate net fair value of the Corporation.

The following methods and assumptions were used to estimate the fair value of each class of financial instruments for which it is practicable to estimate that value.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The carrying amount approximates fair value because of the short maturity of those instruments.

Investments

The fair values of investments are estimated based on quoted market prices for those or similar investments.

continued:

Student Loans Receivables

The actual pricing of a student loan portfolio is generally negotiated on a transaction by transaction basis and is dependent upon various factors including the loan status and average balances of the student loan portfolio. The fair value has been estimated by management based upon the Corporation's recent purchases of student loans.

Bonds and Note Payable

The fair value of the Corporation's bonds and note payable is estimated based on the net present value of future cash flows using rates currently available to the Corporation for bonds and notes with similar terms and maturities.

Interest Rate Swap Agreement

As described in Note E, the Corporation has entered into an interest rate swap agreement for $125,000,000 of bonds payable. The swap agreement is designed to hedge the interest rate risk related to the fixed rate bonds. The fair value has been estimated by General Re Financial Products Corporation using a standard pricing methodology which takes into account the present value of estimated future cash flows.

The carrying amounts and estimated fair values of the Corporation's financial instruments are as follows:

MISSISSIPPI HIGHER EDUCATION ASSISTANCE CORPORATION

Notes to Financial Statements January 31, 2000 and December 31, 1999

Note A - Organization and Significant Accounting Policies

Organization

Mississippi Higher Education Assistance Corporation (the "Corporation"), is a nonprofit corporation organized on January 23, 1980, under the laws of the State of Mississippi for the exclusive purpose of acquiring student loans incurred under the Higher Education Act. The Corporation is not an agency or instrumentality of the State of Mississippi or any agency or political subdivision thereof. The proceeds of the debt obligations issued by the Corporation are used primarily to purchase student loans.

Trustees

Trustmark National Bank and BancorpSouth, as Trustees, perform duties involving the acquisition of student loans, the investment and disbursement of monies as directed by the Corporation, and the servicing of debt obligations issued by the Corporation.

Income Taxes

The Corporation has received Internal Revenue Service determination letters to the effect that it is a tax-exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") and that the Corporation is not a private foundation within the meaning of Section 509(a) of the Code because it is an organization of the type described in Sections 170(b)(1)(A)(vi) and 509(a)(1) of the Code.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Corporation considers all checking accounts, money market accounts and repurchase agreements with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash and cash equivalents. All other securities are classified as investments.

Investments

Investments are carried at cost or amortized cost.

Provision for Losses on Loans and Uncollected Interest

An evaluation of the loan portfolio and applicable guarantees with Federal reinsurance or direct Federal insurance is made to determine the necessity for a provision for loan losses or uncollected interest.

MISSISSIPPI HIGHER EDUCATION ASSISTANCE CORPORATION

Notes to Financial Statements
January 31, 2000 and December 31, 1999

Deferred Costs of Issuance

The costs of issuing bonds, which are composed of underwriter's discount, legal costs and other related financing costs, are capitalized and amortized over the expected life of the related debt issue on a weighted average basis.

Loan Premiums, Transfer Fees, and Origination Fees

Loan premiums, transfer fees, and origination fees are capitalized and amortized over eight to sixteen years using the interest method.

Interest Income and Special Allowances

Interest is accrued on investments and on student loans. Quarterly special allowance payments from the United States Department of Education are also accrued.

Interest Rate Swap Agreement

The differential to be paid or received is accrued as interest rates change and is recognized over the life of the agreement.

Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Note B - Cash and Investments

Financial instruments which potentially subject the Corporation to concentrations of credit risk consist principally of cash and investments. The Corporation places its cash and investments with high quality financial institutions. At times deposits with banks may be in excess of the FDIC insurance limit. The Corporation routinely assesses the financial strength of the institutions and, as a consequence, believes that its cash and investments credit risk exposure is limited. At January 31, 2000 and December 31, 1999 the Corporation had cash and cash equivalents and investments consisting of:

The majority of cash and investments are restricted for the acquisition of student loans, repayment of bond and note obligations and to satisfy certain reserve requirements specified by the various bond indentures.

Note C - Student Loans

Student loans purchased through January 31, 2000 include Stafford Student Loans (formerly Guaranteed Student Loans) made to students, PLUS Loans made to parents of dependent undergraduates, SLS Loans made to independent students and Federal Consolidation Loans. The terms of the loans, which vary on an individual basis, generally provide for repayment in monthly installments of principal and interest over a period of up to ten years for Stafford, PLUS and SLS Loans and up to thirty years for Federal Consolidation Loans. The majority of the student loans are pledged to the repayment of bonds outstanding. Interest rates for student loans range from 5.00% to 12.00%. Concentrations of credit risk with respect to student loans are limited due to large number of borrowers and the guarantee described below.

The United States Department of Education (DOE) pays the Corporation an interest subsidy on Stafford Student Loans while the student is in school, the loan is in the grace period, or loan repayment is deferred. A special allowance is paid to the Corporation by DOE at the end of each quarter, consisting of additional interest on all outstanding Stafford Student Loans. The allowance is related to the average of 91-day Treasury Bill rates during each quarter.

Student loans purchased by the Corporation, as well as accrued interest thereon, are guaranteed by the State Guarantor or are insured by DOE. The State Guarantor guarantees 98% (100% for loans disbursed prior to October 1, 1993) of principal and accrued interest. DOE insures 100% of principal and accrued interest.

Loans guaranteed by the State Guarantor are reinsured by DOE. The DOE reimbursement rate to the State Guarantor is 98% (100% for loans disbursed prior to October 1, 1993), provided the State Guarantor's reinsurance claims rate does not exceed 5% within a given Federal fiscal year. The DOE reimbursement rate to the State Guarantor is 88% (90% for loans disbursed prior to October 1, 1993) during the period that the State Guarantor's reinsurance claims rate exceeds 5% but is less than or equal to 9%, and the reimbursement rate is 78% (80% for loans disbursed prior to October 1, 1993) for the remainder of the fiscal year during which the reinsurance claims rate exceeds 9%.

The State Guarantor was the Mississippi Guarantee Student Loan Agency (MGSLA) through September 30, 1994. On September 7, 1994, pursuant to a request made by the Governor of the State of Mississippi, DOE formally approved the transfer of the State Guarantor function from MGSLA to United Student Aid Funds, Inc. (USAF). The Governor designated USAF as the State Guarantor effective as of midnight, September 30, 1994. USAF has agreed to fully assume and perform all of the loan guarantee obligations of MGSLA. Neither the Corporation nor its Trustees have released MGSLA from its loan guarantee obligations.

At January 31, 2000 and December 31, 1999 the Corporation had student loans consisting of:

The Corporation records a liability for its estimate of excess interest earnings on student loans financed with proceeds of certain tax-exempt bond issues. The liability must be settled through cash payments to the Federal government beginning ten years after the applicable bond issue date, or through reducing the yield on student loans by forgiving student loans. In addition, a rebate payable is recorded for the Corporation's estimate of excess earnings on certain investments made with proceeds of tax-exempt bond issues. The rebate payable must be settled through cash payments to the Federal government, beginning five years after the applicable bond issue date. The liability for excess interest and rebate payable is computed in accordance with current Treasury Regulations, and is funded with deposits to the applicable Non-Trust Estates.

The Series 1992-B and Series 1992-C Bonds bear interest at fixed rates ranging from 5.80% to 6.70%. Interest is payable on each January 1, July 1 and at maturity. The Series 1992-B and Series 1992-C Bonds are subject to redemption prior to maturity as described in the Trust

Indenture pursuant to which the bonds were issued.

The Series 1993-B, and Series 1993-C Bonds (the "Series 1993 Bonds") bear interest at fixed rates ranging from 4.95% to 6.05%. Interest is payable on each March 1, September 1 and at maturity. The Series 1993 Bonds are subject to redemption prior to maturity as described in the Trust Indenture pursuant to which the bonds were issued.

In conjunction with the issuance of the Series 1993 Bonds, the Corporation entered into an interest rate swap agreement with General Re Financial Products Corporation (the "counterparty") for an initial notional amount of $125,000,000. The swap agreement was entered into primarily to reduce the Corporation's risk of interest rate changes with respect to the financing evidenced by the Series 1993 Bonds. The counterparty is obligated to pay the trustee an amount equal to the scheduled debt service expense on $125,000,000 of the Series 1993 Bonds (the "swapped bonds"), and the Corporation is obligated to pay the counterparty an amount computed by applying a variable rate to the outstanding notional amount of the swap agreement. The notional amount of the swap agreement is reduced as principal of the swapped bonds is scheduled to mature or be redeemed. As a result of the swap agreement, the Corporation's obligation with respect to the swapped bonds has been effectively converted to a variable rate. Thus, the Corporation will incur interest rate risks similar to those incurred with respect to variable rate financings. The interest rate swap agreement involves the risk of dealing with the counterparty and its ability to meet the terms of the agreement. However, management does not anticipate such nonperformance. The amount potentially subject to credit risk is the excess of the counterparty's payment obligation over the Corporation's payment obligation.

The Series 1994-A, Series 1994-B, Series 1996-A, Series 1996-B, Series 1998-A, and Series 1998-B Bonds (the "auction rate bonds") bear interest at auction rates determined by the Auction Agent, in accordance with auction procedures set forth in the Supplements pursuant to which the bonds were issued (the "Supplements"), for auction periods of generally 35 days (subject to change in accordance with the Supplements). The auction rate bonds are subject to conversion from time to time, at the option of the Corporation, to bear interest at variable or fixed rates as described in the Supplements. The auction rate bonds are subject to mandatory tender for purchase upon (and in certain circumstances subsequent to) any such conversion as provided in the Supplements. Interest on the auction rate bonds is (subject to change in accordance with the Supplements) payable on each

March 1, September 1 and at maturity. The auction rate bonds are subject to redemption prior to maturity as described in the Supplements. The auction rate bonds are secured on parity with the Series 1993-A and Series 1993-B Bonds.

The Series 1994-C Bonds bear interest at a fixed rate of 7.50%. The Series 1996-C Bonds bear interest at fixed rates ranging from 6.70% to 6.80%. Interest on the Series 1994-C and Series 1996-C Bonds is (subject to change in accordance with the Supplements) payable on each March 1, September 1 and at maturity. The Series 1994-C and Series 1996-C Bonds are subject to redemption prior to maturity as described in the Supplements. The Series 1994-C and Series 1996-C Bonds are secured on parity with the Series 1993-C Bonds.

The Series 1997-A Note consists of draws made by the Corporation under a $35,000,000 taxable line of credit. The Note bears interest based on LIBOR rates for periods of approximately one, two, or three months. The line of credit expires on December 18, 2000, at which time the Note is due and payable. The Corporation expects to redeem the Series 1997-A Note prior to maturity with proceeds of student loan revenue bonds issued by the Corporation.

The Series 1999-A-1, Series 1999-A-2, and Series 1999-B-1 Bonds (the "Series 1999 bonds") and the Series 1999-A-3, Series 2000-A-1, and Series 2000-B-1 Notes (the "auction rate notes") bear interest at auction rates determined by the Auction Agent, in accordance with auction procedures set forth in the Indenture pursuant to which the bonds and notes were issued, for auction periods of generally 35 days for the Series 1999 bonds and 28 days for the auction rate notes (subject to change in accordance with the Indenture). The auction rate bonds and notes are subject to conversion from time to time, at the option of the Corporation, to bear interest at variable or fixed rates as described in the Indenture. The auction rate bonds and notes are subject to mandatory tender for purchase upon (and in certain circumstances subsequent to) any such conversion as provided in the Indenture. Interest on the Series 1999 bonds is (subject to change in accordance with the Indenture) payable on each March 1, September 1 and at maturity. Interest on the auction rate notes is (subject to change in accordance with the Indenture) payable on the first day of each auction period. The Series 2000-A-1 and Series 2000-A-2 Notes are secured on parity with the Series 1999-A-1, Series 1999-A-2, Series 1999-A-3, and Series 1999-B-1 Bonds and Notes.

Note G - Disclosures About Fair Values of Financial Instruments

Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Statement 107 requires disclosure of estimated fair value information for the Corporation's financial instruments. Such information is based on the requirements set forth in that Statement and does not purport to represent the aggregate net fair value of the Corporation.

The following methods and assumptions were used to estimate the fair value of each class of financial instruments for which it is practicable to estimate that value.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The carrying amount approximates fair value because of the short maturity of those instruments.

Investments

The fair values of investments are estimated based on quoted market prices for those or similar investments.

Student Loans Receivable

The actual pricing of a student loan portfolio is generally negotiated on a transaction by transaction basis and is dependent upon various factors including the loan status and average balances of the student loan portfolio. The fair value has been estimated by management based upon the Corporation's recent purchases of student loans.

Bonds and Note Payable

The fair value of the Corporation's bonds and note payable is estimated based on the net present value of future cash flows using rates currently available to the Corporation for bonds and notes with similar terms and maturities.

As described in Note E, the Corporation has entered into an interest rate swap agreement for $125,000,000 of bonds payable. The swap agreement is designed to hedge the interest rate risk related to the fixed rate bonds. The carrying amounts and estimated fair values of the Corporation's financial instruments are as follows:

CERTAIN DEFINITIONS AND SUMMARY OF CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF THE INDENTURE

The following definitions apply to the defined words and terms used in this Official Statement, and to the extent such words and terms are also used as defined words and terms in the Indenture are substantially the definitions for such words and terms used in the Indenture.

Certain Definitions

“Aa’ Composite Commercial Paper Rate” shall mean, as of any date of determination, (A) the interest equivalent of the 30-day rate on commercial paper placed on behalf of issuers whose corporate bonds are rated “Aa” by Moody’s or “AA” by Fitch, or the equivalent of such rating by S&P, as such 30-day rate is made available on a discount basis or otherwise by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York for the Business Day immediately preceding such date of determination, or (B) if the Federal Reserve Bank of New York does not make available any such rate, then the arithmetic average of the interest equivalent of the 30-day rate on commercial paper placed on behalf of such issuers, as quoted to the Auction Agent on a discount basis or otherwise, by the Commercial Paper Dealers, as of the close of business on the Business Day immediately preceding such date of determination. If at the time quotations are required any Commercial Paper Dealer does not quote a commercial paper rate required to determine the “Aa” Composite Commercial Paper Rate, or if less than three Commercial Paper Dealers are then serving as such for any reason, the “Aa” Composite Commercial Paper Rate shall be determined on the basis of such quotations or quotations furnished by the Commercial Paper Dealer or Commercial Paper Dealers then serving as such and providing a quotation. For purposes of this definition, the “interest equivalent” of a rate stated on a discount basis (a “discount rate”) for commercial paper of a given day’s maturity shall be equal to the product of (a) 100 times (b) the quotient (rounded upward to the next higher one thousandth (.001) of 1%) of (x) the discount rate (expressed in decimals) divided by (y) the difference between (i) 1.00 and (ii) a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the product of the discount rate (expressed in decimals) times the number of days from (and including) the date of determination to (but excluding) the date on which such commercial paper matures and the denominator of which shall be 360.

“AAA Refunded Municipals” shall mean noncallable, refunded obligations issued by any municipality or public body located in the United States of America, with respect to which Government Obligations have been deposited in amounts sufficient to pay all principal of and interest on such obligations as the same shall mature and become due and payable, rated by each Rating Agency (other than Fitch) in its highest applicable Specific Rating Category, and, if rated by Fitch, rated by Fitch in its highest applicable Specific Rating Category.

“Accreted Value” shall mean, with respect to any Discount Obligation, the present value as of any date of calculation of future scheduled payments of principal of and interest on such Discount Obligation, calculated by discounting such payments semiannually on each Interest Payment Date with respect to such Obligation (if interest on such Obligation is payable semi-annually, and otherwise on such dates as shall be designated by the Trustee) at a discount rate equal to the original issue yield to maturity of such Discount Obligation.

“Acting Beneficiaries Upon Default” shall mean, (a) at any time that any Senior Obligations are Outstanding or amounts are owed to any Senior Beneficiary (i) with respect to provisions regarding acceleration of Obligations in the case of an Event of Default other than a covenant default, the owners of 51% in aggregate principal amount of the Senior Obligations Outstanding or all Other Senior Beneficiaries or (unless the Trustee shall, in its sole discretion, determine that acceleration of the maturity of the Obligations is not in the overall interest of the Senior Beneficiaries) any Other Senior Beneficiary, (ii) with respect to the provisions regarding acceleration of Obligations in the case of an Event of Default consisting of a covenant default, the owners of 100% in aggregate principal amount of the Senior Obligations Outstanding or all Other Senior Beneficiaries or (unless the Trustee shall, in its sole discretion, determine that acceleration of the maturity of the Obligations is not in the overall interest of the Senior Beneficiaries) any Other Senior Beneficiary, (iii) with respect to requesting the Trustee to exercise one or more of the rights and powers conferred by the Indenture, with respect to directing the method and place of conducting proceedings to be taken in connection with the enforcement of the terms and conditions of the Indenture and with respect to requiring the Trustee to waive Events of Default, the owners of 51% in aggregate principal amount of the Senior Obligations Outstanding (unless the Trustee shall have received, or shall thereafter receive, conflicting requests or directions from one or more Senior Beneficiaries) or (unless the Trustee shall have received, or shall thereafter receive, conflicting requests or directions from the owners of 51% in aggregate principal amount of the Senior Obligations Outstanding) all Other Senior Beneficiaries or (unless the Trustee shall, in its sole discretion, determine that the requested action is not in the overall interest of the Senior Beneficiaries or shall have received, or shall thereafter receive, conflicting requests or directions from one or more Other Senior Beneficiaries or the owners of 51% in aggregate principal amount of the Senior Obligations Outstanding) any Other Senior Beneficiary, and (iv) in all other cases the owners of 51% in aggregate principal amount of the Senior Obligations Outstanding or any Other Senior Beneficiary, and (b) at any time that no Senior Obligations are Outstanding and no amounts are owed to any Other Senior Beneficiary (i) with respect to provisions regarding acceleration of Subordinate Obligations in the case of an Event of Default other than a covenant default, the owners of 51% in aggregate principal amount of the Subordinate Obligations Outstanding or all Other Subordinate Beneficiaries or (unless the Trustee shall, in its sole discretion, determine that acceleration of the maturity of the Obligations is not in the overall interest of the Subordinate Beneficiaries) any Other Subordinate Beneficiary, (ii) with respect to the provisions regarding acceleration of Obligations in the case of an Event of Default consisting of a covenant default, the owners of 100% in aggregate principal amount of the Subordinate Obligations Outstanding or all Other Subordinate Beneficiaries or (unless the Trustee shall, in its sole discretion, determine that acceleration of the maturity of the Obligations is not in the overall interest of the Subordinate Beneficiaries) any Other Subordinate Beneficiary, (iii) with respect to requesting the Trustee to exercise one or more of the rights and powers conferred by the Indenture, with respect to directing the method and place of conducting proceedings to be taken in connection with the enforcement of the terms and conditions of the Indenture and with respect to requiring the Trustee to waive Events of Default, the owners of 51% in aggregate principal amount of the Subordinate Obligations Outstanding (unless the Trustee shall have received, or shall thereafter receive, conflicting requests or directions from one or more Subordinate Beneficiaries) or (unless the Trustee shall have received, or shall thereafter receive, conflicting requests or directions from the owners of 51% in aggregate principal amount of the Subordinate Obligations Outstanding) all Other Subordinate Beneficiaries or (unless the Trustee shall, in its sole discretion, determine that the requested action is not in the overall interest of the Subordinate Beneficiaries or shall have received, or shall thereafter receive, conflicting requests or directions from one or more Other Subordinate Beneficiaries or the owners of 51% in aggregate principal amount of the Obligations Outstanding) any Other Subordinate Beneficiary, and (iv) in all other cases the owners of 51% in aggregate principal amount of the Subordinate Obligations Outstanding or any Other Subordinate Beneficiary.

Acquisition Account

There shall be credited to the Transferred Proceeds Subaccount and the Original Proceeds Subaccount proceeds of Obligations of a Series and other amounts as provided in the Indenture and in one or more Series Supplements. There shall be credited to the Original Proceeds Subaccount certain of the proceeds of the Offered Obligations. There shall be credited to the Revolving Subaccount any amounts transferred from the Revenue Account or the Surplus Account as described below.

The Indenture provides that:

- (a) The Trustee shall make disbursements from the Acquisition Account (first from the Revolving Subaccount, second from the Transferred Proceeds Subaccount and thereafter from the Original Proceeds Subaccount unless the Corporation shall have directed otherwise) to acquire, or to reimburse the Corporation for acquiring, Eligible Loans that have been fully or partially disbursed upon receipt by the Trustee of an Eligible Loan Acquisition Certificate as set forth in the Indenture and all documents, opinions, if any, and certificates required thereby. Amounts so disbursed will be paid to the payee designated in the Eligible Loan Acquisition Certificate.
- (b) The Trustee will disburse amounts from the Trust Estate Fund with respect to Pledged Eligible Loans that have not been fully disbursed as directed in a Corporation Order in form acceptable to the Trustee (an “Eligible Loan Disbursement Order”). Any such disbursement with respect to a Pledged Eligible Loan will be made, directly or indirectly, by check, electronic funds transfer or other method acceptable to the Trustee to the borrower of such Pledged Eligible Loan, such borrower’s eligible institution, a disbursement agent or another Person (including the Corporation to the extent appropriate to reimburse the Corporation for funds previously disbursed by the Corporation) specified in the Eligible Loan Disbursement Order. Any such disbursement will be made on the date set forth in such Eligible Loan Disbursement Order. Each Eligible Loan Disbursement Order will include a certification that the amount to be disbursed pursuant thereto with respect to each Pledged Eligible Loan, together with any other amounts previously disbursed with respect to such Pledged Eligible Loan by any Lender from which such Pledged Eligible Loan will have been purchased, by the Corporation, and/or by the Trustee, does not exceed the maximum amount available to or for the benefit of such borrower from such Pledged Eligible Loan, including all fees payable to any Guarantor and/or the Secretary of Education.

- (c) The amount paid to the Corporation to reimburse the Corporation for funds expended in acquiring an Eligible Loan previously acquired by the Corporation shall not exceed the purchase price paid by the Corporation for such Eligible Loan, excluding accrued uncapped borrower interest, if any, multiplied by a factor, the numerator of which is the remaining unpaid principal amount of such Eligible Loan on the date such Eligible Loan becomes subject to the lien created by the Indenture and the denominator of which is the remaining unpaid principal amount of such Eligible Loan on the date of purchase thereof by the Corporation, plus accrued uncapped borrower interest thereon, if any, to the date that such Eligible Loans become subject to the lien created by the Indenture.
- (d) No moneys will be disbursed from the Acquisition Account to acquire (i) a Proprietary School Student Loan if, after such disbursement, the Aggregate Market Value of Proprietary School Student Loans included in the Trust Estate will exceed five percent (5%) of the Aggregate Market Value of all Pledged Student Loans; (ii) an Unsubsidized Stafford Loan if, immediately following such disbursement, the Aggregate Market Value of Unsubsidized Stafford Loans included in the Trust Estate will exceed thirty-five percent (35%) of the Aggregate Market Value of all Pledged Student Loans; and (iii) Two-Year School Loans if, immediately following such disbursement, the Aggregate Market Value of Two-Year School Loans included in the Trust Estate will exceed ten percent (10%) of the Aggregate Market Value of all Pledged Student Loans; provided that, in each case, if the Trustee has received written evidence from each Rating Agency that applying a higher percentage for purposes of this provision will not cause the withdrawal or reduction of any rating then in effect for the Obligations, this provision will be applied using such higher percentage, subject to such restrictions, if any, as may be set forth in such written evidence from the Rating Agencies.
- (e) Unless the most recent quarterly report provided to the Trustee pursuant to the Indenture indicates that the Aggregate Market Value of Proprietary School Student Loans, Unsubsidized Stafford Loans or Two-Year School Loans included in the Trust Estate will exceed the applicable percentages of the Aggregate Market Value of all Pledged Student Loans specified in paragraph (d) above, the Trustee will be entitled to rely upon a certification from the Corporation that all of the conditions specified in the Indenture for the acquisition of Eligible Loans identified in an Eligible Loan Acquisition Certificate have been satisfied as evidenced and that the acquisition of such Eligible Loans and any disbursement of moneys in connection with such acquisition will not violate the requirements of such paragraph (d) above.

Except as provided in the next succeeding sentence, any amounts allocable to the Offered Obligations credited to the Original Proceeds Subaccount or the Transferred Proceeds Subaccount pursuant to the Indenture which have not been expended to acquire Student Loans on or prior to February 15, 2003, shall be transferred on the first day of the next succeeding month to the Redemption Subaccount. If prior to March 1, 2003, the Corporation shall have delivered to the Trustee a Corporation Order specifying a later date on which such amounts shall be transferred from the Original Proceeds Subaccount and the Transferred Proceeds Subaccount to the Redemption Subaccount, together with a Cash Flow Certificate with respect thereto and written evidence from each Rating Agency that deferring such date will not cause the reduction or withdrawal of any rating or ratings then applicable to any of the Obligations, the immediately preceding sentence shall be applied by substituting such date as shall have been set forth in such Corporation Order instead of February 15, 2003. In such event, this paragraph may continue to be applied in the future with the first day of the next succeeding month being substituted herein for March 1, 2003.

Except as provided in the next succeeding sentence, any Balances (other than Student Loans) consisting of amounts allocable to the Offered Obligations and credited to the Revolving Subaccount on January 15, 2005 shall be transferred to the Redemption Subaccount on the first day of the next succeeding month. with a Cash Flow Certificate with respect thereto and written evidence from each Rating Agency that deferring such date will not cause the withdrawal or reduction of any rating or ratings then applicable to any of the Obligations, the immediately preceding sentence above shall be applied by substituting such date as shall have been set forth in such Corporation Order instead of January 15, 2005. In such event, this paragraph may continue to be applied in the future with the first day of the next succeeding month being substituted herein for February 1, 2005.

There shall be deposited into the Trust Estate Fund all payments received from any Swap Counterparty, and such payments shall be credited to the Senior Current Debt Service-Interest Subaccount, to the extent necessary in order that the Balance credited to the Senior Current Debt Service-Interest Subaccount equal interest due on the Senior Obligations on the next Interest Payment Date and all amounts due to Senior Swap Counterparties on Senior Swap Agreements on such Interest Payment Date, with the remainder being credited to the Subordinate Current Debt Service-Interest Subaccount, unless the Balances credited to the Senior Current Debt Service-Principal Subaccount, the Senior Credit Enhancement Fees Subaccount or the Senior Sinking Fund Subaccount are not sufficient to make payments to be charged thereto at such time, in which event such remainder shall be credited, in order of priority and to the extent needed in order that the Balances in such Accounts will be sufficient to make payments to be charged thereto, to the Senior Current Debt Service-Principal Subaccount, the Senior Credit Enhancement Fees Subaccount, the Senior Sinking Fund Subaccount and the Subordinate Current Debt Service-Interest Subaccount.

There shall be credited to the Redemption Subaccount all amounts transferred from the Surplus Account to the Redemption Subaccount and all amounts transferred from the Acquisition Account to the Redemption Subaccount. That portion of the proceeds from the sale of the Corporation's bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness, if any, to be used to pay principal (prior to the Stated Maturity thereof) on the Obligations shall be deposited into the Trust Estate Fund and credited to the Redemption Subaccount.

On each Interest Payment Date with respect to Senior Obligations or other date on which Senior Obligations are to be redeemed, the Trustee shall withdraw from amounts in the Trust Estate Fund credited to the applicable Subaccounts and remit the amounts required for paying principal of and interest on the Senior Obligations when due and payable.

On each date on which a payment is due to a Senior Swap Counterparty pursuant to a Senior Swap Agreement, the Trustee shall withdraw from the Trust Estate Fund and remit the amounts required for such payment to such Senior Swap Counterparty.

On each date on which any payment is due to any Senior Credit Enhancement Facility Provider, the Trustee shall withdraw from the Trust Estate Fund and remit the amounts due to such Senior Credit Enhancement Facility Provider.

On each Interest Payment Date with respect to Subordinate Obligations or other date on which Subordinate Obligations are to be redeemed, the Trustee shall withdraw from the Trust Estate Fund and remit the amounts required for paying principal of and interest on the Subordinate Obligations when due and payable; provided that no amount shall be disbursed to redeem Subordinate Obligations (pursuant to sinking fund provisions or otherwise) unless, after such redemption, the Senior Asset Requirement will be met.

On each date on which a payment is due to a Subordinate Swap Counterparty pursuant to a Subordinate Swap Agreement, the Trustee shall withdraw from the Trust Estate Fund and remit the amounts required for such payment to such Subordinate Swap Counterparty.

On each date on which any payment is due to any Subordinate Credit Enhancement Facility Provider, the Trustee shall withdraw from the Trust Estate Fund and remit the amounts due to such Subordinate Credit Enhancement Facility Provider.

Surplus Account

There shall be credited to the Surplus Account amounts transferred from the Revenue Account as described above.

From time to time amounts shall be transferred from the Surplus Account to:

(a) the Senior Current Debt Service - Interest Subaccount, the Senior Current Debt Service - Principal Subaccount, the Senior Sinking Fund Subaccount, the Senior Credit Enhancement Fees Subaccount, the Subordinate Current Debt Service - Interest Subaccount, the Subordinate Current Debt Service - Principal Subaccount, the Subordinate Sinking Fund Subaccount, and the Subordinate Credit Enhancement Fees Subaccount as specified by a notice delivered by the Corporation to the Trustee not later than the last Business Day of the calendar month succeeding the date of transfer;

(b) the Redemption Subaccount, upon receipt by the Trustee of a Corporation Order specifying the amount to be transferred and directing the Trustee to use such amount to either redeem Outstanding

Obligations or purchase Outstanding Obligations, upon receipt by the Trustee of a Cash Flow Certificate with respect to such transfer and such use; and

(c) the Revolving Subaccount, upon receipt by the Trustee of a Corporation Order specifying the amount to be transferred and the expected use of the moneys to be transferred and, if the date of transfer shall be after the date on which Balances credited to the Revolving Subaccount shall have been required to be transferred to the Redemption Subaccount, a Cash Flow Certificate with respect to such transfer and such use.

From time to time amounts credited to the Surplus Account shall be applied to pay Carry-over Amounts.

From time to time the Trustee shall disburse funds from the Surplus Account for such other purposes as the Corporation shall determine, upon the receipt by the Trustee of: (1) a certification by the Corporation that, based on reasonable projections, any moneys to be so used are not reasonably expected to be needed for the payment of Debt Service on the Outstanding Obligations, Administrative Expenses, Credit Enhancement Fees (if any) or Bond Fees, or for transfer to the Escrow Interest Account or the Rebate Account; (2) an opinion of counsel that such use is authorized by the Corporation's charter of incorporation and bylaws and will not violate State law and an opinion of Bond Counsel that such use will not adversely affect the exclusion from gross income for federal income tax purposes pursuant to Section 103 of the Code of interest on any Tax-Exempt Bonds; (3) evidence that, after taking into account any such application, (A) the aggregate of the Balances in the Trust Estate Fund (computed as of the last Business Day of the preceding calendar month) in excess of Budgeted Administrative Expenses, Credit Enhancement Fees (if any) and Bond Fees for the next succeeding twelve months (all computed as of the last Business Day of the preceding calendar month) will be equal to at least 102% of the principal amount of, plus accrued and unpaid interest (net of any amount owed to or by the Corporation pursuant to any Swap Agreement) on, the Outstanding Obligations (computed as of the last Business Day of the preceding calendar month), and (B) the Senior Asset Requirement will be met; and (4) a Cash Flow Certificate.

Non-Trust Fund Escrow Interest Account and Rebate Account

The revenues, moneys and securities in the Non-Trust Estate Fund and the proceeds thereof are not pledged to, shall not serve as security for, and shall not be available to pay, the principal of or interest on any of the Obligations. Amounts credited to the Escrow Interest Account and the Rebate Account shall be invested in accordance with and used solely for the purposes specified in "nonarbitrage certificates" executed in connection with delivery of one or more Series of Tax-Exempt Bonds.

Accounting

The Corporation shall maintain or cause to be maintained with respect to each Fund, Account and Subaccount records of deposits, transfers and disbursements and of the Balances therein and shall provide to the Trustee, on or before the last Business Day of each calendar month, a complete accounting showing all such deposits, transfers and disbursements during the preceding calendar month and the Balance of each Account and Subaccount at the end of such preceding calendar month. The Corporation may also advise the Trustee of other transfers made between Funds, Accounts and Subaccounts and the Balances of such Funds, Accounts and Subaccounts after such transfers. At any time that no Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, the Trustee will rely upon all such accountings from the Corporation, absent manifest error or a failure of such accounting to account for all monies and other assets received or held by the Trustee and all disbursements made by the Trustee.

Certain Covenants

Administration of the Program

The Corporation shall administer, operate and maintain the Program in such manner as to ensure that the Program and the Pledged Student Loans will benefit to the optimum extent consistent with the Corporation's overall objectives, from the FISL Program, the Guarantee Program and the federal program of reimbursement for student loans pursuant to the Higher Education Act, or from any other federal statute providing for such federal program.

Guarantee Agreements, Certificates of Insurance and Contract of Insurance

So long as any Obligations are Outstanding or the Corporation has any obligation to any Other Beneficiary, the Corporation and the Trustee (a) are required to take all reasonable action in order to maintain all Guarantee Agreements, all Certificates of Insurance and all Contracts of Insurance in force and effect and to enforce their rights thereunder diligently; (b) will enter into such other similar or supplemental agreements as shall be required to maintain benefits for all Pledged Student Loans covered thereby (provided, the Trustee shall not be obligated to undertake the actions contemplated by the preceding clauses (a) and (b) if such action will require the Trustee to risk its own funds or will cause the Trustee to incur any financial liability unless and until the Trustee receives a satisfactory indemnity against such risk or liability); and (c) will not voluntarily consent to or permit any rescission of or consent to any amendment to or otherwise take any action under or in connection with any Guarantee Agreement, Certificate of Insurance or the Contract of Insurance or any similar or supplemental agreement which in any manner will materially adversely affect the rights of the Beneficiaries.

Administration, Enforcement and Collection of Pledged Student Loans

The Corporation shall cause all Pledged Student Loans to be administered and collected in a competent, diligent and orderly fashion and in accordance with all requirements of the Higher Education Act, the Secretary of Education, applicable regulations of the applicable Guarantors and the Indenture. The Corporation shall cause to be diligently enforced and taken all steps, actions and proceedings reasonably necessary for the enforcement of all terms, covenants and conditions of all Pledged Student Loans and agreements in connection therewith; provided that the Corporation may grant a reasonable forbearance to an obligor or settle a default or cure a delinquency on any Pledged Student Loan on such terms as shall be permitted by law and may forgive (and/or agree to forgive) principal of and accrued and unpaid interest on Pledged Student Loans: (i) to comply with the provisions of the Indenture and all non-arbitrage certificates executed in connection with the delivery of a Series of Tax-Exempt Bonds; (ii) pursuant to an Approved Borrower Benefit Program; (iii) to the extent that such Student Loan could have otherwise been released from the lien of the Indenture; or (iv) if the Corporation shall deliver to the Trustee cash, Investment Securities and/or Eligible Loans with an aggregate value equal to the principal and interest forgiven.

Limitation on Administrative Expenses and Bond Fees

The Corporation covenants that the Administrative Expenses and Bond Fees will not, in any Fiscal Year, exceed those that are reasonable and necessary in light of all circumstances then existing and will not, in any event, be in such amounts as will materially adversely affect the ability of the Corporation to pay or perform, as the case may be, all of its obligations under the Indenture or the security for the Beneficiaries; provided, however, that such covenant shall not prevent the Corporation's paying reasonable and necessary Administrative Expenses and Bond Fees at any time if the failure to pay such Administrative Expenses and Bond Fees would have a greater material adverse effect on the ability of the Corporation to pay or perform, as the case may be, all of its obligations under the Indenture or the security for the Beneficiaries than payment of such Administrative Expenses and Bond Fees would have.

For so long as any Obligations shall be Outstanding, Administrative Expenses paid from the Trust Estate Fund during any Bond Year shall not exceed the greater of: (a) amounts computed as set forth in the Series 2000-A-2&3&B-2 Supplement; or (b) such amount as shall be set forth in (or computed in accordance with) a Corporation Order or Supplemental Indenture (including but not limited to a Series Supplement) delivered to the Trustee and accompanied by a Cash Flow Certificate and written evidence from each Rating Agency that limiting Administrative Expenses to the amount set forth in (or computed in accordance with) such Corporation Order or Supplemental Indenture will not cause the reduction or withdrawal of any rating or ratings then applicable to any Outstanding Obligations. For purposes of the foregoing, a Rating Agency's issuance of a rating with respect to any Senior Obligations issued pursuant to a Series Supplement in the same Specific Rating Category as the rating on all Outstanding Senior Obligations and a rating with respect to any Subordinate Obligations issued pursuant to a Series

Supplement in the same Specific Rating Category as the rating on all Outstanding Subordinate Obligations shall be deemed to constitute evidence that application of any limitation on Administrative Expenses and Bond Fees set forth in such Series Supplement will not cause the reduction or withdrawal of any rating or ratings then applicable to any Outstanding Obligations.

Continuing Existence and Qualification; Assignment

The Corporation will, except as provided below, maintain its existence as a Mississippi nonprofit corporation and its status as a nonprofit corporation and an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code exempt from federal income taxation under Section 501(a) of the Code (or any successor sections of a subsequent federal income tax statute or code) and meeting the requirements of Section 150(d) of the Code for the issuance of “qualified scholarship funding bonds”. The Corporation will, except as provided below, remain duly qualified to do business in the State of Mississippi and will not dispose of all or substantially all of its assets, except as otherwise specifically authorized under the Indenture or under comparable provisions of any future indenture of the Corporation with respect to subsequent issues of bonds, notes or other obligations of the Corporation, or consolidate with or merge into another corporation or permit any other corporation to consolidate with or merge into it unless certain conditions specified in the Indenture are met.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Corporation need not continue to be a nonprofit corporation described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, exempt from federal income taxation pursuant to Section 501(a) of the Code and meeting the requirements of Section 150(d) of the Code for the issuance of “qualified scholarship funding bonds” if the Corporation shall have provided to the Trustee: (i) written advice from each Rating Agency that the Corporation’s failure to satisfy such requirements will not cause the withdrawal or reduction of any rating on any of the Obligations; and (ii) a written opinion of nationally recognized bond counsel that the Corporation’s failure to satisfy such requirements will not adversely affect the exclusion from gross income for federal income tax purposes pursuant to Section 103 of the Code of interest on any Tax-Exempt Bonds.

Anything in the Indenture to the contrary notwithstanding, the Corporation may also assign all of its rights in and to the Trust Estate if the Corporation shall have provided to the Trustee: (i) written advice from each Rating Agency that such assignment will not cause the withdrawal or reduction of any rating on any of the Obligations; and (ii) a written opinion of nationally recognized bond counsel that such assignment will not adversely affect the exclusion from gross income for federal income tax purposes pursuant to Section 103 of the Code of interest on any Tax-Exempt Bonds.

Student Loan Purchase Agreements

All Student Loan Purchase Agreements are required to include certain provisions as specified in the Indenture, including provisions that all Student Loans purchased pursuant thereto are Eligible Loans and that all rights thereunder are assignable to the Trustee.

Information Provided to Trustee

To enable the Trustee to monitor the servicing quality and financial conditions of the Corporation and the Servicers, the Corporation shall provide the Trustee with the following information:

(a) As soon as prepared, and at least once in every 12 month period, with respect to each Servicer, either (i) an opinion of a nationally recognized firm of certified public accountants concerning an annual due diligence audit of the Corporation’s arrangements for the servicing of Student Loans by such Servicer; addressing such Servicer’s compliance with applicable requirements of the Act, the Secretary and each applicable Guarantor with respect to the servicing of Student Loans, and including a statement that such Servicer is substantially in compliance with such requirements, or, if such statement is not made, listing and describing any material violations in such servicing requirements; or (ii) a copy of the Compliance Audit (Attestation Engagement) for Lenders and Lender Servicers Participating in the Federal Family Education Loan (“FFEL”) Program submitted to the United States Department of Education by such Servicer addressing the assertion made by such Servicer’s management that such Servicer materially complied with the FFEL Program requirements, and including a statement by a firm of certified public accountants that, in their opinion, management's assertion is or is not fairly stated in all material respects. (In the event that such Compliance Audit is not prepared by a firm of nationally recognized certified public accountants, upon request of the Trustee the Corporation shall also provide to the Trustee within a reasonable period of time following such request a report prepared by a firm of nationally recognized certified public accountants (or other firm of certified public accountants acceptable to the Trustee) based upon performance of "agreed upon procedures" reasonably acceptable to the Trustee.)

(b) As soon as possible, any audit examination or performance report (whether performed by internal or external auditors) received by the Corporation that has been prepared with respect to the Corporation's or any Servicer's activities under its student loan program, and the Corporation's or such Servicer's, as the case may be, response thereto (if any).

(c) Promptly after receiving notice of the commencement thereof, notice of any action, suit or proceeding before any court or governmental department, commission, board, bureau, agency or instrumentality, domestic or foreign, affecting the Corporation or any Servicer and which could have a material adverse effect upon either the financial condition of the Corporation or such Servicer or the ability of the Corporation or such Servicer to perform its obligations in connection with the Pledged Student Loans.

(d) As soon as possible, and in any event within 5 days after knowledge of the Corporation of the occurrence thereof, notice of any default or event of default under any Servicing Agreement, any Guarantee Agreement or any other material agreement relating to the servicing and payment of Pledged Student Loans.

(e) Such other information respecting the business, properties, condition or operations, financial or otherwise, of the Corporation and any Servicer as the Trustee may reasonably request from time to time, to the extent available to the Corporation.

Trustee's Duties to Monitor Servicing

The Trustee shall be deemed to have satisfied its obligation to monitor the Corporation's obligations with respect to Pledged Student Loans if the Trustee requires the provision of and reviews the information required to be provided to the Trustee by the Indenture.

In the event such information indicates, in the reasonable judgment of the Trustee, that the Pledged Student Loans are not being serviced in accordance with the requirements of the Indenture, the Trustee will then specify in writing any deficiencies that, in its judgment, require correction. The Corporation's failure to correct the deficiencies specified by the Trustee shall constitute a breach of the Corporation's obligations under the Indenture unless, within 30 days (or such longer period as the Trustee may approve) thereafter, the Corporation shall have submitted to the Trustee a certificate of a firm of Certified Public Accountants reasonably acceptable to the Trustee to the effect that either (i) correction of the deficiencies specified is not required to enable the Corporation to substantially comply with the Indenture, or (ii) failure to correct the specified deficiencies will not adversely affect the Corporation's ability to collect substantially all principal and interest payments and all other sums to which the Corporation or the Trustee is entitled pursuant to any Student Loan Purchase Agreement and all grants, subsidies, donations, insurance payments, Special Allowance Payments and all Guarantee or Insurance payments from any Guarantor or from the Secretary of Education relating to the Pledged Student Loans.

Release of Student Loans

The Trustee shall release from the lien and pledge of the Indenture any Pledged Student Loan

(A) sold to a purchaser in accordance with the provisions of the Indenture for a purchase price not less than the outstanding principal balance plus accrued borrower interest and Special Allowance Payments upon receipt by the Trustee of immediately available funds in full payment therefor;

(B) which is not an Eligible Loan if the Corporation delivers to the Trustee (i) one or more Eligible Loans with aggregate outstanding principal balances not less than such Student Loan and which Eligible Loan or Loans are substituted by a Lender for such Student Loan pursuant to the applicable Student Loan Purchase Agreement, (ii) an amount equal to the repurchase price for such Student Loan as provided in the applicable Student Loan Purchase Agreement, or (iii) in the event a Lender does not repurchase such Student Loan or substitute an Eligible Loan therefor pursuant to the applicable Student Loan Purchase Agreement, either an amount equal to the outstanding principal balance of such Student Loan or one or more Eligible Loans with aggregate outstanding principal balances not less than such Student Loan;

(C) as requested by the Corporation, upon receipt by the Trustee of evidence satisfactory to the Trustee that, after such release, the Senior Asset Requirement will be met; and

(D) as specified by the Corporation, if there shall have been delivered to the Trustee Eligible Loans in substitution therefor and either (i) evidence that such Eligible Loans meet certain conditions as specified in the Indenture or (ii) a Cash Flow Certificate and evidence that (A) subsequent to such release and delivery of Student Loans the Senior Asset Requirement will be met, or (B) that the Senior Asset Requirement is not being met at the time and after such release and substitution of Student Loans, the ratio of the Balances included in the Trust Estate Fund to the outstanding principal of and accrued and unpaid interest on the Senior Obligations (net of amounts owed to or by the Corporation under Swap Agreements) will be greater than such ratio would have been without such release and substitution of Student Loans.

Investments

All moneys held by the Trustee for the credit of any Fund, Account or Subaccount shall be invested by the Trustee as directed by the Corporation, to the fullest extent practicable and reasonable, in Investment Securities which shall mature or be redeemable at the option of the holder before the respective dates when such moneys will be required for the purposes intended, and any earnings on or income from such investments shall be deposited in the Trust Estate Fund and credited to the Income Subaccount.

Encumbrances

The Corporation may, without notice to or the consent of any other party, create a lien upon all or any part of the Trust Estate subordinate to the lien of the Indenture in connection with the execution of an indenture authorizing the issuance of bonds, notes or other obligations of the Corporation the proceeds of which will be used to defease all Outstanding Obligations in accordance with the Indenture if the Trustee determines that the creation of such a lien will not adversely affect the security for the Beneficiaries in any material respect.

Tax Covenants

The Corporation covenants in connection with the issuance of each Series of Tax-Exempt Bonds: that it will not take any action which may adversely affect (or omit to take any action necessary in order to avoid adversely affecting) the exclusion of interest on each Series of the Tax-Exempt Bonds from gross income for federal income tax purposes pursuant to Section 103 of the Code; that it will use the proceeds of each Series of Tax-Exempt Bonds and any other funds of the Corporation in such a manner that the use thereof will not cause any such Series of Tax-Exempt Bonds to be "arbitrage bonds" within the meaning of Section 148 of the Code and the regulations thereunder; and that it will not permit at any time any portion of the proceeds of each Series of Tax-Exempt Bonds or any other funds of the Corporation to be used, directly or indirectly, in a manner which would adversely affect the exclusion of interest on any Tax-Exempt Bond from gross income for federal income tax purposes pursuant to Section 103 of the Code by reason of a violation of any of the limitations imposed by Sections 103 and 141 through 150 of the Code.

Events of Default and Remedies

Events of Default

The occurrence of any of the following events, whatever the reason therefor and whether voluntary or involuntary or effected by operation of law, shall constitute an Event of Default.

(A) default in the due and punctual payment of any principal of or interest on any Senior Obligation (in which event interest shall be payable to the extent permitted by law on the overdue amounts, in each case at the interest rate borne by the Obligation in respect of which such payment is overdue); or

(B) default in the due and punctual payment of any amount owed to any Other Senior Beneficiary; or

(C) if no Senior Obligations are Outstanding and no amounts are owed to any Other Senior Beneficiaries, default in the due and punctual payment of any principal of or interest on any Subordinate Obligation (in which event interest shall be payable to the extent permitted by law on the overdue amounts, in each case at the interest rate borne by the Obligation in respect of which such payment is overdue); or

(D) if no Senior Obligations are Outstanding and no amounts are owed to any Other Senior Beneficiaries, default in the due and punctual payment of any amount owed to any Other Subordinate Beneficiary; or

(E) default in the performance or observance of any of the other covenants, agreements or conditions on the part of the Corporation contained in the Indenture, and such default shall have continued for a period of ninety (90) days after written notice thereof, specifying such default, shall have been given by the Trustee to the Corporation, or by the Holders of not less than ten percent (10%) in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Obligations to the Corporation and the Trustee; or

(F) (1) the Corporation shall (a) make a general assignment for the benefit of its creditors, (b) apply for or consent to the appointment of or the taking of possession by any custodian, receiver, liquidator or trustee for it or a substantial part of its property, (c) admit in writing its inability, or be generally unable, to pay its debts as such debts become due, (d) commence a voluntary case under the Federal Bankruptcy Code (as now or hereafter in effect), (e) file a petition seeking to take advantage of any other law relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, winding-up or composition or adjustment of debts, or (f) take any action for the purpose of effecting any of the foregoing, or (2) (a) a proceeding or case shall be commenced in any court of competent jurisdiction seeking the liquidation, reorganization, dissolution, winding-up or composition or readjustment of debts of the Corporation or the appointment of a trustee, receiver, custodian, liquidator or the like of the Corporation, or of all or a substantial part of its property under the Federal Bankruptcy Code or any law relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, winding-up or composition or adjustment of debts; and (b) such proceeding or case shall continue undismissed, or an order, judgment or decree approving or ordering any of the foregoing shall be entered and continue unstayed and in effect for a period of ninety (90) days from commencement of such proceeding or case, or an order for relief or any similar order shall be entered in such proceeding or case.

Acceleration

Whenever any Event of Default described in (A), (B), (C), (D) or (F) above shall have occurred and be continuing, the Trustee may (and upon the written request of the Acting Beneficiaries upon Default, the Trustee shall), by notice in writing delivered to the Corporation, declare the principal of and interest accrued on all Obligations then Outstanding due and payable as provided below.

Whenever any Event of Default described in (E) above shall have occurred and be continuing the Trustee shall, upon the written request of the Acting Beneficiaries upon Default, by notice in writing delivered to the Corporation, declare the principal of and interest on all Obligations then Outstanding due and payable as provided below.

Whenever any Event of Default described in (E) above shall have occurred and be continuing the Trustee may, by notice in writing delivered to the Corporation, declare the principal of and interest on all Obligations then Outstanding due and payable as provided below, provided that prior to such declaration as described in this paragraph the Trustee shall have received written evidence that such acceleration and any necessary sale of Student Loans (including any sale at prices less than the Aggregate Market Value of such Student Loans) will not cause the withdrawal or reduction of any rating then applicable to the Obligations.

In the event that the Trustee shall declare the principal of and interest accrued on all Obligations then Outstanding due and payable, such principal and interest shall become immediately due and payable on the date of declaration. At any time after such a declaration of acceleration has been made, but before a judgment or decree for payment of the money due has been obtained by the Trustee, the Trustee may (and upon direction of the Acting Beneficiaries upon Default shall), by written notice to the Corporation, rescind and annul such declaration and its consequences if all Events of Default, other than the non-payment of the principal of and interest on Obligations which have become due solely by such declaration of acceleration, have been cured or waived.

No such rescission and annulment shall affect any subsequent default or impair any right consequent thereon.

Other Remedies; Rights of Beneficiaries

If an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Trustee may pursue any available remedy by suit at law or in equity to enforce the covenants of the Corporation in the Indenture, including, without limitation, any remedy of a secured party under the Mississippi Uniform Commercial Code, foreclosure, mandamus and specific performance and may pursue such appropriate judicial proceedings as the Trustee shall deem most effective to protect and enforce, or aid in the protection and enforcement of, the covenants and agreements in the Indenture.

If any Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, and if it shall have been requested to do so by the Acting Beneficiaries upon Default, and if the Trustee shall have been indemnified, the Trustee shall be obliged to exercise such one or more of the rights and powers conferred by the Indenture as the Trustee, being advised by its Counsel, shall deem most expedient in the interests of the Beneficiaries; provided, however, that the Trustee shall have the right to decline to comply with any such request if the Trustee shall be advised by Counsel that the action so requested may not lawfully be taken.

No remedy by the terms of the Indenture conferred upon or reserved to the Trustee or the Beneficiaries is intended to be exclusive of any other remedy, but each and every such remedy shall be cumulative and shall be in addition to any other remedy given to the Trustee or the Beneficiaries thereunder or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity or by statute. The assertion or employment of any right or remedy under the Indenture shall not prevent the concurrent assertion or employment of any other appropriate right or remedy.

No delay or omission to exercise any right or power accruing upon any Event of Default shall impair any such right or power or shall be construed to be a waiver of any such Event of Default or acquiescence therein; and every such right and power may be exercised from time to time and as often as may be deemed expedient by the Trustee or the Acting Beneficiaries upon Default, as the case may be.

No waiver of any default or Event of Default under the Indenture, whether by the Trustee or by any or all Beneficiaries, shall extend to or shall affect any subsequent default or Event of Default or shall impair any rights or remedies consequent thereon.

Direction of Proceedings by Acting Beneficiaries Upon Default

The Acting Beneficiaries upon Default shall have the right, by an instrument or instruments in writing executed and delivered to the Trustee, to direct the method and place of conducting all proceedings to be taken in connection with the enforcement of the terms and conditions of the Indenture; provided that (a) such direction shall not be otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of law and of the Indenture; (b) the Trustee shall not determine that the action so directed would be unjustly prejudicial to the Beneficiaries not taking part in such direction; and (c) the Trustee may take any other action deemed proper by the Trustee which is not inconsistent with such direction.

Application of Moneys Upon Event of Default

Upon and after the occurrence of any Event of Default, all moneys held by the Trustee pursuant to the Indenture and subject to the lien of the Indenture, or received by the Trustee pursuant to any right given or action taken under the applicable provisions of the Indenture shall, after payment of the costs and expenses of the proceedings resulting in the collection of such moneys and of the expenses, liabilities and advances incurred or made by the Trustee with respect thereto, be applied as follows:

(A) Unless the principal of all the Obligations shall have become or shall have been declared due and payable, all such moneys shall be applied:

FIRST: To the payment to the persons entitled thereto of all installments of principal and interest then due on the Senior Obligations and all amounts owed to all Other Senior Beneficiaries, and if the amount available shall not be sufficient to pay all such principal, interest and amounts owed in full, then to the payment ratably, according to the amounts due, without regard to due date, to the persons entitled thereto, without any discrimination or privilege; and

SECOND: To the payment to the persons entitled thereto of all installments of principal and interest then due on the Subordinate Obligations and all amounts owed to Other Subordinate Beneficiaries and, if the amount available shall not be sufficient to pay all such principal, interest and amounts owed in full then to the payment ratably, without regard to due date, according to the amounts due, to the persons entitled thereto, without any discrimination or privilege.

(B) If the principal of all Obligations shall have become due or shall have been declared due and payable and such declaration has not been annulled and rescinded, all such moneys shall be applied first to the payment of the principal and interest then due and unpaid upon the Senior Obligations, and all amounts owed to Other Senior Beneficiaries, without preference or priority of principal over interest or of interest over principal, or of any installment of interest over any other installment of interest, or of any Senior Obligation or Senior Beneficiary over any other Senior Obligation or Senior Beneficiary, ratably, according to the amounts due, to the persons entitled thereto without any discrimination or privilege; and second to the payment of the principal and interest then due and unpaid upon the Subordinate Obligation, and all amounts owed to Other Subordinate Beneficiaries, without preference or priority of principal over interest or of interest over principal, or of any installment of interest over any other installment of interest, or of any Subordinate Obligation or Subordinate Beneficiary over any other Subordinate Obligation or Subordinate Beneficiary, ratably, according to the amounts due, to the persons entitled thereto without any discrimination or privilege.

(C) If the principal of all the Obligations shall have been declared due and payable, and if such declaration shall thereafter have been rescinded and annulled under the provisions of the Indenture or otherwise, then (subject to the provisions described in paragraph (B) above in the event that the principal of all the Obligations shall later become due or be declared due and payable) the moneys shall be applied in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (A) of this section.

Whenever moneys are to be applied by the Trustee pursuant to the provisions described in this section, such moneys shall be applied by it at such times, and from time to time, as the Trustee shall determine, having due regard to the amount of such moneys available for application and the likelihood of additional moneys becoming available for such application in the future. Whenever the Trustee shall apply such funds, it shall fix the date (which shall be an Interest Payment Date with respect to any Obligation unless it shall deem another date more suitable) upon which such application is to be made and upon such date interest on the amounts of principal to be paid shall cease to accrue. The Trustee shall give such notice as it may deem appropriate of the deposit with it of any such moneys and of the fixing of any such date, and shall not be required to make payment to the Holder of any unpaid Obligation until such Obligation shall be presented to the Trustee for appropriate endorsement or for cancellation if fully paid.

Whenever all Obligations and interest thereon have been fully paid and all expenses and charges of the Trustee have been paid, the Corporation and the Trustee shall be restored to their former positions under the Indenture.

Remedies Vested in Trustee

All rights of action, including the right to file proof of claims under the Indenture or under any of the Obligations, may be enforced by the Trustee without the possession of any of the Obligations or the production thereof in any trial or other proceedings relating thereto, and any such suit or proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its name as Trustee without the necessity of joining as plaintiffs or defendants any Holders of the Obligations, and any recovery of judgment shall be for the equal benefit of all Beneficiaries in respect of which such judgment has been recovered.

Limitation on Suits By Holders

No Holder of any Obligation shall have any right to institute any suit, action or proceeding in equity or at law for the enforcement of the Indenture or for the execution of any trust of the Indenture or for the appointment of a receiver or any other remedy under the Indenture unless (1) an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, (2) the Holders of not less than twenty-five percent (25%) in aggregate principal amount of Obligations then Outstanding shall have delivered a written request to the Trustee requesting that the Trustee institute such suit, action or proceeding, (3) such Holder or Holders shall have offered to the Trustee indemnity, as provided in the Indenture, (4) the Trustee shall thereafter have failed for a period of thirty (30) days after the receipt of the request and indemnification to exercise the powers granted in the Indenture or to institute such action, suit or proceeding in its own name and (5) no direction inconsistent with such written request shall have been given to the Trustee during such thirty-day period by the Holders of a majority in principal amount of the Outstanding Obligations; it being understood and intended that no one or more Holders of the Obligations shall have any right in any manner whatsoever to affect, disturb or prejudice the lien of the Indenture by its, his, her or their action or to enforce any right thereunder except in the manner in the Indenture provided, and that all proceedings at law or in equity shall be instituted, had and maintained in the manner provided in the Indenture and for the equal benefit of the Holders of all Outstanding Obligations (or, if applicable, all Beneficiaries).

Undertaking for Costs

The Corporation and the Trustee agree, and each Holder of any Obligation by his acceptance thereof shall be deemed to have agreed, that any court may, in its discretion, require, in any suit for the enforcement of any right or remedy under the Indenture, or in any suit against the Trustee for any action taken or omitted by it as Trustee, the filing by any party litigant in such suit of an undertaking to pay the costs of such suit, and that such court may in its discretion assess reasonable costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, against any party litigant other than the Trustee in such suit, having due regard to the merits and good faith of the claims or defenses made by such party litigant; but such provisions shall not apply to any suit instituted by the Trustee, to any suit instituted by any Holder or group of Holders holding in the aggregate more than ten percent (10%) in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Obligations, or to any suit instituted by any Holder for the enforcement of the payment of the principal of or interest on any Obligation on or after the respective Stated Maturities expressed in such Obligation (or, in the case of redemption, on or after the Redemption Date).

Waiver of Events of Default

The Trustee may waive any Event of Default and its consequences, and is required to waive any Event of Default and its consequences upon written request of the Acting Beneficiaries upon Default; provided, however, that there shall not be waived (a) any Event of Default in the payment of the principal of any Outstanding Obligations at their Stated Maturity, (b) any Event of Default in the payment when due of the interest on any Obligations, or (c) any Event of Default in the payment when due of any amount owed to any Other Beneficiary, without the consent of such Other Beneficiary. No such waiver shall extend to any subsequent or other default or Event of Default, or impair any right consequent thereon.

Notice to Holders and Other Beneficiaries if Default Occurs

The Trustee is required to give to all Holders of Obligations and Other Beneficiaries notice of all Events of Default known to the Trustee, within thirty (30) days after the occurrence of such Event of Default, unless such Event of Default shall have been cured before the giving of such notice; provided that, except in the case of Events of Default in the payment of the principal of or interest on any of the Obligations, the Trustee shall be protected in withholding such notice to the Holders if, and so long as, the board of directors, the executive committee or a trust committee of directors or chief executive officer of the Trustee in good faith determines that the withholding of such notice is in the interest of the Holders.

The Trustee

General

(A) Except during the continuance of an Event of Default, (1) the Trustee undertakes to perform such duties and only such duties as are specifically set forth in the Indenture, and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into the Indenture against the Trustee; and (2) in the absence of bad faith on its part, the Trustee may conclusively rely, as to the truth of the statements and the correctness of the opinions expressed therein, upon statements, certificates or opinions furnished to the Trustee and conforming to the requirements of the Indenture; in the case of any such statements, certificates or opinions which by any provisions of the Indenture are specifically required to be furnished to the Trustee, the Trustee shall be under a duty only to examine the same and in good faith to determine whether or not they conform to the requirements of the Indenture.

(B) In case an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Trustee shall exercise such of the rights and powers vested in it by the Indenture, and use the same degree of care and skill in their exercise, as a prudent person would exercise or use under the circumstances in the conduct of his or her own affairs, subject, however, to the provisions of (C) below.

(C) No provision of the Indenture shall be construed to relieve the Trustee from liability for its own negligent action, its own negligent failure to act, or its own willful misconduct, except

(1) to the extent otherwise described in paragraph (A) above;

(2) the Trustee shall not be liable for any error of judgment made in good faith, unless it shall be proved that the Trustee was negligent in attempting to ascertain the pertinent facts;

(3) the Trustee shall not be liable with respect to any action taken or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the direction of the Acting Beneficiaries Upon Default relating to the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee, or exercising any trust or power conferred upon the Trustee under the Indenture; and

(4) the Trustee shall not be required to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise incur any financial liability in the performance of any of its duties under the Indenture, or in the exercise of any of its rights or powers, unless and until the Trustee receives a satisfactory indemnity against such risk or liability.

(D) The Trustee may execute any of the trusts or powers and perform any of its duties by or through attorneys, agents, receivers, or employees but shall be answerable for the conduct of the same in accordance with the standard specified in paragraph (B) above, subject, however, to the applicable provisions of (C) above, and shall be entitled to and may require as a condition to any determination or other action under the Indenture advice of Counsel. The Trustee may act upon the opinion or advice of any Counsel or Accountant selected by it in the exercise of reasonable care. The Trustee shall not be responsible for any loss or damage resulting from any action or nonaction based on its good faith reliance upon such opinion or advice.

(E) The Trustee shall not be responsible for any recital in the Indenture or in the Obligations (except with respect to any certificate of the Trustee endorsed on the Obligations), or for the investment of moneys (except to the extent such investment is in violation of a provision of the Indenture), or for the filing or refiling of the Indenture or any Supplemental Indenture or for the validity of the execution by the Corporation of the Indenture or any Supplemental Indenture or instrument of further assurance, or for the sufficiency of the security for any of the Obligations issued under the Indenture or intended to be secured by the Indenture, or for any disclosure to prospective purchasers of the Obligations in any preliminary official statement, preliminary offering memorandum, official statement or offering memorandum distributed in connection with the sale of Obligations, other than any portions thereof relating to the Trustee.

(F) The Trustee shall not be accountable for the use or application by the Corporation of any of the Obligations or the proceeds thereof or for the use or application of any money paid over by the Trustee in accordance with the provisions of the Indenture.

(G) The Trustee shall be protected in acting upon any notice, order, requisition, request, consent, certificate, order, opinion (including an opinion of Counsel), affidavit, letter, telegram or other paper or document in good faith deemed by it to be genuine and correct and to have been signed or sent by the proper Person or Persons. Any action taken by the Trustee pursuant to the Indenture, upon the request or authority or consent of any Person who at the time of making such request or giving such authority or consent is the Holder of any Obligation, shall be conclusive and binding upon all future Holders of the same Obligation and all Obligations issued in exchange therefor or in place thereof.

(H) As to the existence or nonexistence of any fact or as to the sufficiency or authenticity of any instrument, paper or proceeding, the Trustee shall be entitled to rely upon a certificate of the Corporation, signed by an Authorized Officer, as sufficient evidence of the facts stated therein.

(I) The Trustee shall not be required to give any bond or surety.

(J) Before taking any action under the Indenture requested by Holders, Other Beneficiaries, the Corporation or any other Person, the Trustee may require that it be furnished an indemnity bond or other indemnity satisfactory to it for the reimbursement of all expenses to which it may be put and to protect it against all liability, except liability which results from the negligence or willful misconduct of the Trustee, by reason of any action so taken by the Trustee.

(K) The Trustee shall periodically file Uniform Commercial Code continuation statements as required to maintain the effectiveness of any Uniform Commercial Code financing statements evidencing the lien of the Trustee as secured party under the Indenture.

(L) The Trustee covenants, represents and agrees that:

(i) it is an Eligible Lender and that while the Obligations are Outstanding and further during the time it has title to any Pledged Eligible Loans acquired pursuant to the terms of the Indenture, it will use its best efforts to remain an Eligible Lender;

(ii) it will not exercise any of the rights, duties, or privileges under the Indenture in such manner as would cause the Pledged Eligible Loans held or acquired under the Indenture to be transferred, assigned, or pledged as security to any Person or entity other than an Eligible Lender so long as the Higher Education Act prohibits the same; provided, however, that in the exercise of any of the above stated rights, duties, or privileges the Trustee may rely upon Corporation Orders and any and all representations by the Corporation and its agents, including, but not limited to, the Servicers and shall be fully protected in so relying;

(iii) it will comply with the requirements of Higher Education Act as specified by the Corporation insofar as they relate to the Trustee's duties under the Indenture, and will, upon written notice from the Corporation, the Secretary, or any Guarantor, use its best efforts to cause the Indenture to be amended in accordance with the procedures described therein if the Higher Education Act is hereafter amended so as to be contrary to the terms of the Indenture; and

(iv) the Trustee is acting as an Eligible Lender on behalf of the Corporation, and as a trustee of the Trust Estate on behalf of the Beneficiaries in accordance with the terms of the Indenture.

The parties acknowledge that, pursuant to each Servicing Agreement, each Servicer shall be responsible for the physical custody and preservation of Pledged Eligible Loans and the supporting documents submitted to and received by it and that the Trustee shall have no responsibility therefor.

(M) The parties recognize that the Trustee has (or will have) special contractual obligations and rights with respect to the Guarantee Agencies and Other Qualified Guarantors which must be maintained and preserved in order for the Trustee to remain an Eligible Lender, and the Trustee specifically covenants to maintain its obligations and enforce its rights under any such contracts during the administration of the trust.

Lien of Trustee

At any time that an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, the Trustee shall have a lien on the Trust Estate and shall have a right of payment of its fees, advances, legal fees and expenses prior to any payments to any other Beneficiaries.

Resignation By Trustee

The Trustee may at any time resign and be discharged of the duties and obligations created by the Indenture by giving sixty (60) days written notice to the Corporation and, by first class mail, to all Beneficiaries, and such resignation shall take effect upon the appointment of a successor Trustee.

Removal of Trustee

The Trustee may be removed at any time by an instrument signed by the Corporation and filed with the Trustee and shall be removed by the Corporation if at any time so requested by an instrument or concurrent instruments in writing, filed with the Trustee and the Corporation, and signed by the Holders of not less than seventy-five percent (75%) in aggregate principal amount of the Obligations then Outstanding (or their attorneys-in-fact duly authorized) excluding any Obligations held by or for the account of the Corporation. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Trustee may not be removed unless and until a successor trustee has been appointed pursuant to the Indenture.

Appointment of Successor Trustee

In case the Trustee shall resign or be removed, or be dissolved or otherwise become incapable of acting under the Indenture, or in case it shall be taken under the control of any public officer or officers, or of a receiver appointed by a court, the Corporation by a Board Resolution may remove the Trustee and shall promptly appoint a successor. If, within one year of such vacancy occurring, the Holders of not less than seventy-five percent (75%) in aggregate principal amount of the then Outstanding Obligations, by an instrument or concurrent instruments in writing signed by such Holders, or by their attorneys-in-fact duly authorized, appoint a successor, such successor shall supersede the successor appointed by the Corporation. If no successor trustee has been appointed as provided in the Indenture after ninety (90) days from the mailing of notice of resignation by the Trustee, or from the date the Trustee is removed or otherwise incapable of acting under the Indenture, any Beneficiary may petition a court of competent jurisdiction to appoint a successor trustee.

Successor Trustee

Any corporation, association or agency into which the Trustee may be converted or merged, or with which it may be consolidated, or to which it may sell or transfer its trust business and assets as a whole or substantially as a whole, or any corporation or association resulting from any such conversion, sale, merger, consolidation or transfer to which it is a party, ipso facto, shall be and become successor Trustee and vested with all of the trusts, powers, discretions, immunities, privileges and all other matters as was its predecessor, without the execution or filing of any instrument or any further act, deed or conveyance on the part of any of the parties to the Indenture, anything in the Indenture to the contrary notwithstanding.

Supplemental Indentures

Supplemental Indentures Not Requiring Consent of Beneficiaries

The provisions of the Indenture may be amended at any time and from time to time for any purpose provided that: (i) no such amendment shall be effective until the Trustee shall have received written evidence from each Rating Agency that such amendment will not cause a reduction or withdrawal of any ratings then applicable to the Obligations; (ii) no such amendment to certain provisions affecting Auction Procedures shall be effective with respect to a Series of Obligations unless and until (a) notice shall have been given to all Holders of Auction Rate Obligations of such Series describing (or including a copy of) the amendment, and (b) either: (i) Sufficient Clearing Bids shall be received (or all Auction Rate Obligations of such Series shall be subject to Hold Orders) at the first Auction with respect to such Series of Auction Rate Obligations not less than fifteen (15) days subsequent to such notice; or (ii) all Auction Rate Obligations of such Series shall have been purchased pursuant to Section 4.11 of the Indenture on or prior to the effective date of such amendment; and (iii) applicability of any amendment to certain provisions applicable to Obligations bearing interest at Variable Rates or a Fixed Rate shall be conditioned upon meeting certain additional requirements.

Supplemental Indentures Requiring Consent of Holders

Exclusive of Supplemental Indentures described above, the Trustee, upon receipt of an instrument evidencing the consent to the below-mentioned Supplemental Indenture by the Holders of not less than two-thirds of the aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Senior Obligations and the Holders of not less than two-thirds in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Subordinate Obligations and such additional consents, if any, as shall be required pursuant to a Series Supplement, shall join with the Corporation in the execution of such other indenture or indentures supplemental to the Indenture as shall be deemed necessary and desirable for the purpose of modifying, altering, amending, adding to or rescinding, in any particular, any of the terms or provisions contained in the Indenture; provided, however, that nothing contained in the Indenture shall permit or be construed as permitting without the consent of each Beneficiary which would be adversely affected thereby:

- (a) an extension of the maturity of the principal of or the interest on any Obligation; or
- (b) a reduction in the principal amount or the Redemption Price of any Obligation or the rate of interest thereon; or
- (c) a privilege or priority of any Senior Obligation or Senior Obligations or Senior Beneficiary or Senior Beneficiaries over any other Senior Obligation or Senior Obligations or Senior Beneficiary or Senior Beneficiaries; or
- (d) a privilege or priority of any Subordinate Obligation or Subordinate Obligations or Subordinate Beneficiary or Subordinate Beneficiaries over any other Subordinate Obligation or Subordinate Obligations or Subordinate Beneficiary or Subordinate Beneficiaries; or
- (e) a reduction in the aggregate principal amount of the Obligations required for consent to Supplemental Indentures; or
- (f) the creation of any lien ranking prior to or on a parity with the lien of the Indenture on the Trust Estate or any part thereof, except as expressly permitted pursuant to the Indenture; or
- (g) any Beneficiary to be deprived of the lien created by the Indenture on the rights, title, interest, privileges, Pledged Student Loans, revenues, moneys, evidences of indebtedness and securities pledged under the Indenture; or
- (h) the modification of any of the provisions described in this paragraph.

If at any time the Corporation shall request the Trustee to enter into any such Supplemental Indenture for any of such purposes, the Trustee shall, upon being satisfactorily indemnified with respect to expenses, cause notice of the proposed execution of such Supplemental Indenture to be mailed to each Beneficiary. Such notice shall briefly set forth the nature of the proposed Supplemental Indenture and shall state that copies thereof are on file at the principal office of the Trustee for inspection by all Beneficiaries. The Trustee shall not, however, be subject to any liability to any Beneficiary by reason of its failure to mail such notice, and any such failure shall not affect the validity of such Supplemental Indenture when consented to and approved as described in this paragraph. If the Holders of two-thirds in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Senior Obligations and the Holders of two-thirds in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Subordinate Obligations, at the time of the execution of any such Supplemental Indenture, shall have consented to and approved the execution thereof as provided in the Indenture, and all other consents required by a Series Supplement shall have been obtained, no Beneficiary shall have any right to object to any of the terms and provisions contained therein, or the operation thereof, or in any manner to question the propriety of the execution thereof, or to enjoin or restrain the Trustee or the Corporation from executing the same or from taking any action pursuant to the provisions thereof. Upon the execution of any such Supplemental Indenture, the Indenture shall be, and be deemed to be, modified and amended in accordance therewith.

Opinion and Rating Agency Approval Required Prior to Execution of Supplemental Indenture

No Supplemental Indenture shall be executed unless, prior to the execution thereof, the Corporation shall provide to the Trustee an opinion of Bond Counsel to the effect that the execution of such Supplemental Indenture will not adversely affect the exclusion from gross income for federal income tax purposes pursuant to Section 103 of the Code of interest on any Tax-Exempt Bonds; and the Trustee shall have received written evidence that execution of such Supplemental Indenture will not cause the withdrawal or reduction of any rating then applicable to any of the Obligations.

Discharge of Indenture

Discharge of Liens and Pledges; Obligations No Longer Outstanding and Deemed to be Paid Under the Indenture

The obligations of the Corporation under the Indenture, and the liens, pledges, charges, trusts, covenants and agreements of the Corporation therein made or provided for, shall, except as may be otherwise provided in a Series Supplement, be fully discharged and satisfied as to any Obligation, and such Obligation shall no longer be deemed to be Outstanding under the Indenture:

- (i) when such Obligation shall have been canceled; and
- (ii) as to any Obligation not canceled, when payment of the principal of such Obligation, plus interest on such principal to the due date thereof (whether such due date be by reason of maturity, call for redemption or otherwise), either (a) shall have been made or caused to be made in accordance with the terms of the Indenture, or (b) shall have been provided for by irrevocably depositing with the Trustee and irrevocably appropriating and setting aside exclusively for such payment (1) moneys sufficient to make such payment or (2) AAA Refunded Municipals or Government Obligations (or any combination thereof) maturing as to principal and interest in such amount and at such times as will ensure the availability of sufficient moneys to make such payment and (A) the Corporation shall have delivered to the Trustee evidence, verified by a certified public accountant acceptable to the Trustee, that such moneys, if any, together with amounts to be received with respect to such Government Obligations and AAA Refunded Municipals, will be sufficient for such purpose and (B) all necessary and proper fees, compensation and expenses of the Trustee pertaining to the Obligation with respect to which such deposit is made shall have been paid or the payment thereof provided for.

Any Obligation which shall be deemed to be no longer Outstanding under the Indenture shall cease to accrue interest from the due date thereof (whether such due date be by reason of maturity, call for redemption or otherwise) and such Obligation, except for the purposes of any such payment from such moneys or

AAA Refunded Municipals or Government Obligations, shall no longer be secured by or entitled to the benefits of the Indenture.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, no deposit described under clause (ii)(b) above shall constitute such payment, discharge and satisfaction as aforesaid, as to any such Obligations which are to be redeemed prior to their Stated Maturity, until proper notice of such redemption shall have been previously given in accordance with the Indenture or provision satisfactory to the Trustee shall have been irrevocably made for the giving of such notice.

Any such moneys so deposited with the Trustee may at the direction of the Corporation also be invested and reinvested in AAA Refunded Municipals or Government Obligations, maturing in the amounts and times as in the Indenture set forth, and all income from all such investments in the hands of the Trustee which is not required for the payment of the Obligations and interest thereon with respect to which such moneys shall have been so deposited shall, if the Corporation shall have delivered to the Trustee evidence, verified by a certified public accountant acceptable to the Trustee, that the moneys then held by the Trustee, together with amounts to be received with respect to Government Obligations and AAA Refunded Municipals held by the Trustee, will be sufficient to pay all principal of and interest on such Obligations, be paid to the Corporation and if any Obligations are then Outstanding, shall be deposited in the Fund or Account into which investment earnings on proceeds of the Obligations of such Series were deposited, as and when realized and collected, for crediting, use and application as are such investment earnings; or otherwise as determined by the Trustee to be appropriate.

Notwithstanding any other provision of the Indenture, all moneys or Government Obligations or AAA Refunded Municipals set aside and held in trust pursuant to the provisions described above for the payment of the principal of and interest on Obligations shall, to the extent needed for such purpose, be applied to and used solely for the payment of the principal of and interest on the particular Obligations with respect to which such moneys and Government Obligations and AAA Refunded Municipals have been so set aside in trust.

Any moneys or Investment Securities held by the Trustee for the holder of Obligations remaining unclaimed for one (1) year after the latest Maturity of the principal of any Obligation (whether at maturity, upon call for redemption or otherwise) shall without further request by the Corporation be paid by the Trustee to the Corporation and thereafter the Trustee shall have no liability with respect to such moneys.

APPENDIX C

DESCRIPTION OF THE FEDERAL FAMILY EDUCATION LOAN PROGRAM

Introduction

The following descriptions of the Federal Family Education Loan Program (the "FFELP", formerly known as the Guaranteed Student Loan Program, including the Stafford Student Loan Program, the Supplemental Loans for Students Program, Parent Loans for Undergraduate Students (PLUS) Program, and Consolidation Loan Program as authorized under Title IV, part B of the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended) are qualified in their entirety by reference to the Higher Education Act. Since its original enactment in 1965, the Higher Education Act has been amended and reauthorized several times, including by the Higher Education Amendments of 1986, 1990, 1992, 1993 and 1998. There can be no assurance that the Higher Education Act, or other relevant law, will not be changed in a manner that will adversely impact the programs described below. In particular, the enacted legislation and other measures described under "Legislative and Administrative Matters" below, or future measures may adversely affect these programs.

Legislative and Administrative Matters

The Higher Education Act sets forth provisions establishing the FFEL program, according to which state agencies or private nonprofit corporations administering student loan insurance programs are reimbursed for losses sustained in the operation of their programs, and holders of certain loans made under such programs are paid subsidies for owning such loans. The agencies and corporations administering student loan insurance programs are known as guarantee agencies.

The Higher Education Act currently authorizes certain student loans to be covered under the FFEL program through June 30, 2003. Congress has extended similar authorization dates in prior versions of the Higher Education Act. However, there can be no assurance that the current authorization dates will again be extended or that the other provisions of the Higher Education Act will be continued in their present form.

Various amendments to the Higher Education Act have revised the FFEL program from time to time. These amendments include, but are not limited to:

- the Work Incentives Improvement Act of 1999 (the 1999 Amendment);
- the Higher Education Amendments of 1998 (the 1998 Reauthorization Bill);
- the Intermodal Surface Transportation Efficiency Act of 1998 (the 1998 Amendments);
- the 1997 Budget Reconciliation Act (P.L. 105-33);
- the Emergency Student Loan Consolidation Act of 1997;
- the Higher Education Technical Amendments Act of 1993;

- the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1993 (the 1993 Amendments);
- the Higher Education Amendments of 1992, which reauthorized the FFEL program;
- the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Acts of 1990, 1989, 1987;
- the Higher Education Technical Amendments Act of 1987;
- the Higher Education Amendments of 1986, which reauthorized the FFEL program;
- the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985;
- the Postsecondary Student Assistance Amendments of 1981; and
- the Education Amendments of 1980.

Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1993. Under the 1993 Amendments, Congress made a number of changes that may adversely affect the financial condition of the guarantee agencies, as such changes reduce certain financial benefits previously enjoyed by guarantee agencies and give the Department of Education broad powers over guarantee agencies and their reserves. See "Contracts with Guarantee Agencies" and "The Guarantee Agencies" for a more detailed description of the impact of this legislation on guarantee agencies. The changes create a significant risk that the resources available to the guarantee agencies to meet their guarantee obligations will be significantly reduced.

In addition, this legislation sought to greatly expand the loan volume under the direct lending program of the Department of Education known as the Federal Direct Student Loan Program, to a target of approximately 60% of student loan demand in academic year 1998-1999. Only about 35% of such loan demand is currently being met under the direct lending program. The expansion of this program in the future could result in increasing reductions in the volume of loans made under the FFEL program.

Under the Federal Direct Student Loan Program, the Department of Education directly originates and holds student loans without the involvement of private lenders. If the Federal Direct Student Loan Program expands, the master servicer or the servicers may experience increased costs due to reduced economies of scale or other adverse effects on their business to the extent the volume of loans serviced by the servicers is reduced. Such reductions or effects could occur as a result of reductions in the volume of new loans made under the FFEL program or the consolidation of existing loans under the Federal Direct Student Loan Program. These cost increases could affect the ability of the master servicer or the servicers to satisfy their obligations to service the financed student loans or to purchase financed student loans in the event of certain breaches of the servicers' covenants. See "Servicing — Servicer Covenants." Volume reductions could further reduce revenues received by the guarantee agencies available to pay claims on defaulted financed FFELP loans. Finally, the level of competition currently in existence in the secondary market for loans made under the FFEL program could be reduced, resulting in fewer potential buyers of the financed FFELP loans and lower prices available in the secondary market for those loans.

Emergency Student Loan Consolidation Act of 1997. On November 13, 1997, President Clinton signed into law the Emergency Student Loan Consolidation Act of 1997, which made significant changes to the Federal Consolidation Loan Program. These changes include:

- (1) providing that federal direct student loans are eligible to be included in a consolidation loan;
- (2) changing the borrower interest rate on new consolidation loans, previously a fixed rate based on the weighted average of the loans consolidated, rounded up to the nearest whole percent, to the annually variable rate applicable to Stafford loans (i.e., the bond equivalent rate at the last auction in May of 91-day Treasury Bills plus 3.10%, not to exceed 8.25% per annum);

- (3) providing that the portion of a consolidation loan that is comprised of subsidized Stafford loans retains its subsidy benefits during periods of deferment; and
- (4) establishing prohibitions against various forms of discrimination in the making of consolidation loans.

Except for the last of the above changes, all such provisions expired on September 30, 1998. The combination of the change to a variable rate and the 8.25% interest cap reduced the lender's yield in most cases below the rate that would have been applicable under the previous weighted average formula.

FY 1998 Budget. In the 1997 Budget Reconciliation Act (P.L. 105-33), several changes were made to the Higher Education Act that impact the FFEL program. These provisions include, among other things, requiring guarantee agencies to return $1 billion of their reserves to the U.S. Treasury by September 1, 2002, to be paid in annual installments, greater restrictions on use of reserves by guarantee agencies and a continuation of the administrative cost allowance payable to guarantee agencies (which is a fee paid to federal guarantors equal to 0.85% of new loans guaranteed). See "Contracts with Guarantee Agencies."

1998 Amendments. On May 22, 1998, Congress passed, and on June 9, 1998, the President signed into law, a temporary measure relating to the Higher Education Act and FFELP loans as part of the Intermodal Surface Transportation Efficiency Act of 1998, known as the 1998 Amendments, that revised interest rate changes under the FFEL program that were scheduled to become effective on July 1, 1998. For loans made during the period July 1, 1998 through September 30, 1998, the borrower interest rate for Stafford loans and unsubsidized Stafford loans is reduced to a rate of 91-day Treasury Bill rate plus 2.30% (1.70% during school, grace and deferment), subject to a maximum rate of 8.25%. As described below, the formula for Special Allowance Payments on Stafford loans and unsubsidized Stafford loans is calculated to produce a yield to the loan holder of 91-day Treasury Bill rate plus 2.80% (2.20% during school, grace and deferment).

1998 Reauthorization Bill. On October 7, 1998, President Clinton signed into law the 1998 Reauthorization Bill, which enacted significant reforms in the FFEL program. The major provisions of the 1998 Reauthorization Bill include the following:

- All references to a "transition" to full implementation of the Federal Direct Student Loan Program were deleted from the FFEL program statute.
- Guarantee agency reserve funds were restructured so that guarantee agencies are provided with additional flexibility in choosing how to spend certain funds they receive.
- Additional recall of reserve funds by the Secretary of Education was mandated, amounting to $85 million in fiscal year 2002, $82.5 million in fiscal year 2006, and $82.5 million in fiscal year 2007. However, certain minimum reserve levels are protected from recall.
- The administrative cost allowance was replaced by two new payments, a student loan processing and issuance fee equal to 65 basis points (40 basis points for loans made on or after October 1, 2003) paid at the time a loan is guaranteed, and an account maintenance fee of 12 basis points (10 basis points for fiscal years 2001-2003) paid annually on outstanding guaranteed student loans.
- The percentage of collections on defaulted student loans a guarantee agency is permitted to retain is reduced from 27% to 24% plus the complement of the reinsurance percentage applicable at the time a claim was paid to the lender of the student loan. This percentage will be further reduced to 23% beginning on October 1, 2003.
- Federal reinsurance provided to guarantee agencies is reduced from 98% to 95% for student loans first disbursed on or after October 1, 1998.

- The delinquency period required for a loan to be declared in default is increased from 180 days to 270 days for loans on which the first day of delinquency occurs on or after the date of enactment of the 1998 Reauthorization Bill.
- Interest rates charged to borrowers on Stafford loans, and the yield for Stafford loans holders established by the 1998 Amendments, were made permanent.
- Consolidation loan interest rates were revised to equal the weighted average of the loans consolidated rounded up to the nearest one-eighth of 1%, capped at 8.25%. When the 91-day Treasury Bill rate plus 3.1% exceeds the borrower's interest rate, Special Allowance Payments are made to make up the difference.
- The lender-paid offset fee on consolidation loans of 1.05% is reduced to .62% for loans made pursuant to applications received on or after October 1, 1998 and on or before January 31, 1999.
- The consolidation loan interest rate calculation was revised to reflect the rate of consolidation loans, and will be effective for loans on which applications are received on or after October 1, 1998 and before July 1, 2003.
- Lenders are required to offer extended repayment schedules to new borrowers after the enactment of the 1998 Reauthorization Bill who accumulate after such date outstanding loans under the FFEL program totaling more than $30,000; under these extended schedules the repayment period may extend up to 25 years subject to certain minimum repayment amounts.
- The Secretary of Education is authorized to enter into six voluntary flexible agreements with guarantee agencies under which various statutory and regulatory provisions can be waived.
- Consolidation loan lending restrictions are revised to allow lenders who do not hold one of the borrower's underlying FFELP loans to issue a consolidation loan to a borrower whose underlying FFELP loans are held by multiple holders.
- Inducement restrictions were revised to permit guarantee agencies and lenders to provide assistance to schools comparable to that provided to schools by the Secretary of Education under the Federal Direct Student Loan Program.
- The Secretary of Education is now required to pay off student loan amounts owed by borrowers due to failure of the borrower's school to make a tuition refund allocable to the student loan.
- Discharge of FFELP loans and certain other student loans in bankruptcy is now limited to cases of undue hardship regardless of whether the student loan has been due for more than seven years prior to the bankruptcy filing.

The new recall of reserves and reduced reinsurance for guarantee agencies increase the risk that resources available to the guarantee agencies to meet their guarantee obligations will be significantly reduced.

1999 Amendment

The Work Incentives Improvement Act of 1999 passed by Congress in late November 1999 and signed into law by President Clinton on December 17, 1999, included a change in the reference index for determining lender yield of Stafford loans, PLUS loans and Federal Consolidation loans. The formula used to calculate Special Allowance Payments for loans first disbursed on or after January 1, 2000, and before July 1, 2003, is based on the 90-day Commercial Paper (financial) rates in effect for each of the days in such quarter as reported by the Federal Reserve in Publication H-15 (the "CP Rate"). Under the new formula, special allowance rates for Stafford Loans and unsubsidized Stafford Loans will be calculated to provide the loan holder with a minimum yield equal to the CP Rate plus 1.74 percent during in-school periods, grace periods and deferment periods, and CP Rate plus 2.34 percent during repayment periods; PLUS loans and Consolidation loans will be calculated based on the CP Rate plus 2.64 percent.

1999 Final Regulations

The Department of Education published its final regulations (the “1999 Final Regulations”) implementing the 1998 Reauthorization Bill. The 1999 Final Regulations implement and interpret the 1998 Reauthorization Bill and by and large reflect the consensus of the federal and non-federal negotiators who participated in the negotiated rulemaking process.

The major provisions of the 1999 Final Regulations include:

- Lenders may capitalize interest on unsubsidized loans only when the loan enters repayment, at the expiration of the period of authorized deferment, at the expiration of a forbearance, and when the borrower defaults.
- Lenders may assess a lower origination fee to borrowers provided the lenders do so consistently on a state-by-state basis. Specifically, if a lender chooses to offer a lower origination fee, it must do so for each of its borrowers attending school in that state and each of its borrowers who are residents of that state.
- Periods of service by a borrower in the armed forces are excluded from the borrower’s six-month grace period.
- The requirements for documentation regarding a borrower’s eligibility for some types of deferments were relaxed.
- The six-month limit for applying some in-school deferments retroactively was removed.
- Lenders may grant administrative forbearances to resolve delinquencies that existed at the time a natural disaster forbearance is applied.
- Lenders are required to suspend collection activities against all parties to a loan (borrower, co-maker, endorser) if any of those parties file for a Chapter 7, 11, 12 or 13 bankruptcy.
- Due diligence requirements for collecting a delinquent loan were modified to reflect the statutory change in the definition of default from 180 days delinquent to 270 days delinquent.
- A guarantor must deposit the Secretary of Education’s equitable share of borrower payments received on defaulted loans into the guarantor’s federal fund within 48 hours of receipt of the payments.
- There can be no assurance that relevant federal laws, including the Higher Education Act, will not be changed in a manner that may adversely affect the receipt of funds by the guarantee agencies or by the issuer or the eligible lender trustee with respect to financed FFELP loans.

This is only a summary of certain provisions of the Higher Education Act. Reference is made to the text of the Higher Education Act for full and complete statements of its provisions.

Loan Terms

Four types of loans are currently available under the FFEL program:

- Stafford loans;
- Unsubsidized Stafford loans;

- PLUS loans; and
- Consolidation loans.

These loan types vary as to eligibility requirements, interest rates, repayment periods, loan limits, eligibility for interest subsidies and Special Allowance Payments. Some of these loan types have had other names in the past. References herein to the various loan types include, where appropriate, predecessors to such loan types.

The primary loan under the FFEL Program is the Stafford loan. Students who are not eligible for Stafford loans based on their economic circumstances may be able to obtain unsubsidized Stafford loans. Parents of students may be able to obtain PLUS loans. Consolidation loans are available to borrowers with existing loans made under the FFEL Program and certain other federal programs to consolidate repayment of such existing loans. For periods of enrollment beginning prior to July 1, 1994, SLS Loans were available to students with costs of education that were not met by other sources and that exceeded the Stafford or unsubsidized Stafford loan limits.

Eligibility

General. A student is eligible for loans made under the FFEL Program only if he or she:

- has been accepted for enrollment or is enrolled in good standing at an eligible institution of higher education, which includes certain vocational schools;
- is carrying or planning to carry at least one-half the normal full-time workload for the course of study the student is pursuing as determined by the institution, which, in the case of a loan to cover the cost of a period of enrollment beginning on or after July 1, 1987, must either lead to a recognized educational credential or be necessary for enrollment in a course of study that leads to such a credential;
- has agreed to notify promptly the holder of the loan concerning any change of address;
- if presently enrolled, is maintaining satisfactory progress in the course of study he or she is pursuing;
- does not owe a refund on, and is not, except as specifically permitted under the Higher Education Act, in default under, any loan or grant made under the Higher Education Act;
- has filed with the eligible institution a statement of educational purpose;
- meets certain citizenship requirements; and
- except in the case of a graduate or professional student, has received a preliminary determination of eligibility or ineligibility for a Pell Grant.

Stafford Loans. Stafford loans generally are made only to student borrowers who meet certain needs tests. The educational institution must provide the lender with a statement evidencing a determination of need for a loan, and the amount of such need, calculated by subtracting from the estimated cost of attendance the sum of the expected family contribution with respect to the student plus the estimated financial assistance available to such student. The amounts of the expected family contribution, estimated available financial assistance, and estimated costs of attendance are to be computed in accordance with standards set forth in the Higher Education Act.

Unsubsidized Stafford Loans. A student borrower meeting the requirements set forth under General is eligible for an unsubsidized Stafford loan without regard to need. Unsubsidized Stafford loans were not available before October 1, 1992.

PLUS Loans. PLUS loans are made only to borrowers who are parents, certain legal guardians and, under certain circumstances, spouses of remarried parents of dependent undergraduate students. For PLUS loans made on or after July 1, 1993, the parent borrower must not have an adverse credit history, as determined pursuant to criteria established by the Department of Education. Prior to the Higher Education Amendments of 1986, the Higher Education Act did not distinguish between PLUS loans and SLS Loans. Student borrowers were eligible for PLUS loans; however, parents of graduate and professional students were ineligible.

SLS Loans. Eligible borrowers for SLS Loans were limited to:

- graduate or professional students;
- independent undergraduate students; and
- under certain circumstances, dependent undergraduate students, if such student's parents were unable to obtain a PLUS loan and were also unable to provide such student's expected family contribution.

Consolidation Loans. To be eligible for a consolidation loan a borrower must:

- have outstanding indebtedness on student loans made under the FFEL Program and/or certain other federal student loan programs; and
- be in repayment status or in a grace period, or be a defaulted borrower who has made arrangements to repay the defaulted loan(s) satisfactory to the holder of the defaulted loan(s).

A married couple, each of whom has outstanding loans under the FFEL program, and agrees to be jointly liable on a consolidation loan, for which the application is received on or after January 1, 1993, may be treated as an individual for purposes of obtaining a consolidation loan. For consolidation loans disbursed prior to July 1, 1994, the borrower was required to have outstanding student loan indebtedness of at least $7,500. Prior to the adoption of the Higher Education Technical Amendments Act of 1993, PLUS loans could not be included in the consolidation loan. For consolidation loans for which the applications were received prior to January 1, 1993, the minimum student loan indebtedness was $5,000 and the borrower could not be delinquent more than 90 days in the payment of such indebtedness.

Interest Rates

The Higher Education Act establishes maximum interest rates for each of the various types of loans. These rates vary not only among loan types, but also within loan types depending upon when the loan was made or when the borrower first obtained a loan under the FFEL program. The Higher Education Act allows lesser rates of interest to be charged. Many lenders, including the depositor, have offered repayment incentives or other programs that involve reduced interest rates on certain loans made under the FFEL program.

Stafford Loans. A new borrower is one who does not have an outstanding balance on a previous loan made under the FFEL program. For a Stafford loan made before July 1, 1994, the applicable interest rate for a new borrower:

- (1) is 7% per annum for a loan covering a period of instruction beginning before January 1, 1981;
- (2) is 9% per annum for a loan covering a period of instruction beginning on or after January 1, 1981, but before September 13, 1983;
- (3) is 8% per annum for a loan covering a period of instruction beginning on or after September 13, 1983, but before July 1, 1988;
- (4) for a loan made prior to October 1, 1992, covering a period of instruction beginning on or after July 1, 1988, is 8% per annum for the period from the disbursement of the loan to the date which is four years after the loan enters repayment, and thereafter shall be adjusted annually, and for any 12-month period commencing on a July 1 shall be equal to the bond equivalent rate of 91-day Treasury Bills auctioned at the final auction prior to the preceding June 1, plus 3.25% per annum, not to exceed 10% per annum; or

- (5) for a loan made on or after October 1, 1992 shall be adjusted annually, and for any 12-month period commencing on a July 1 shall be equal to the bond equivalent rate of 91-day Treasury Bills auctioned at the final auction prior to the preceding June 1, plus 3.1 % per annum, not to exceed 9% per annum.

A repeat borrower is one who does have an outstanding balance on a previous loan made under the FFELP Program. For a Stafford loan made before July 1, 1994, the applicable interest rate for a repeat borrower is:

- (1) for a loan made prior to July 23, 1992, is the applicable interest rate on the previous loan or, if such previous loan is not a Stafford loan, 8% per annum, or
- (2) for a loan made on or after July 23, 1992, shall be adjusted annually, and for any twelve month period commencing on a July 1, shall be equal to the bond equivalent rate of 91-day Treasury Bills auctioned at the final auction prior to the preceding June 1, plus 3.1 % per annum but not to exceed:
 - (a) 7% per annum in the case of a Stafford loan made to a borrower who has a loan described in clause (a) above;
 - (b) 8% per annum in the case of:
 - (A) a Stafford loan made to a borrower who has a loan described in clause (3) above;
 - (B) a Stafford loan which has not been in repayment for four years and which was made to a borrower who has a loan described in clause (4) above;
 - (C) a Stafford loan for which the first disbursement was made prior to December 20, 1993 to a borrower whose previous loans do not include a Stafford loan or an unsubsidized Stafford loan;
 - (c) 9% per annum in the case of:
 - (A) a Stafford loan made to a borrower who has a loan described in clauses (2) or (5) above; or
 - (B) a Stafford loan for which the first disbursement was made on or after December 20, 1993 to a borrower whose previous loans do not include a Stafford loan or an unsubsidized Stafford loan; and
 - (d) 10% per annum in the case of a Stafford loan which has been in repayment for four years or more and which was made to a borrower who has a loan described in clause (4) above.

The interest rate on all Stafford loans made on or after July 1, 1994 but before July 1, 1995, regardless of whether the borrower is a new borrower or a repeat borrower, is the rate described in clause (5) above, but the rate shall not exceed 8.25% per annum. For any Stafford loan made on or after July 1, 1995, but before July 1, 1998, the interest rate is further reduced prior to the time the loan enters repayment and during any grace and deferment periods. During such periods, the formula described in clause (5) above is applied, except that 2.5% is substituted for 3.1%, and the rate shall not exceed 8.25% per annum.

For Stafford loans made on or after July 1, 1998 but before July 1, 2003, the applicable interest rate shall be adjusted annually, and for any twelve month period commencing on a July 1 shall be equal to the bond equivalent rate of 91-day Treasury Bills auctioned at the final auction prior to the proceeding June 1, plus (x) 1.7% per annum prior to the time the loan enters repayment and during any grace and deferment periods, and (y) 2.3% per annum during repayment, but not to exceed 8.25% per annum.

Unsubsidized Stafford Loans. Unsubsidized Stafford loans are subject to the same interest rate provisions as Stafford loans.

PLUS Loans. The applicable interest rate on a PLUS loan:

- (1) made on or after January 1, 1981, but before October 1, 1981, is 9% per annum;
- (2) made on or after October 1, 1981, but before November 1, 1982, is 14% per annum;
- (3) made on or after November 1, 1982, but before July 1, 1987, is 12% per annum;
- (4) made on or after July 1, 1987, but before October 1, 1992 shall be adjusted annually, and for any 12-month period beginning on July 1 shall be equal to the bond equivalent rate of 52-week Treasury Bills auctioned at the final auction prior to the preceding June 1, plus 3.25% per annum, not to exceed 12% per annum;
- (5) made on or after October 1, 1992, but before July 1, 1994, shall be adjusted annually, and for any 12-month period beginning on July 1 shall be equal to the bond equivalent rate of 52-week Treasury Bills auctioned at the final auction prior to the preceding June 1, plus 3.1% per annum, not to exceed 10% per annum;
- (6) made on or after July 1, 1994, but before July 1, 1998, is the same as that described in clause (e) above, except that such rate shall not exceed 9% per annum; or
- (7) made on or after July 1, 1998, but before July 1, 2003, shall be adjusted annually, and for any 12-month period beginning on July 1 shall be equal to the bond equivalent rate of 91-day Treasury Bills auctioned at the final auction prior to the proceeding June 1, plus 3.1% per annum, not to exceed 9% per annum.

If requested by the borrower, an eligible lender may consolidate SLS or PLUS loans of the same borrower held by the lender under a single repayment schedule. The repayment period for each included loan shall be based on the commencement of repayment of the most recent loan. The consolidated loan shall bear interest at a rate equal to the weighted average of the rates of the included loans. This consolidation shall not be treated as the making of a new loan. In addition, at the request of the borrower, a lender may refinance an existing fixed rate SLS or PLUS loan. This includes an SLS or PLUS loan held by a different lender who has refused so to refinance such loan at a variable interest rate). In such a case, proceeds of the new loan are used to discharge the original loan.

SLS Loans. The applicable interest rates on SLS Loans made prior to October 1, 1992 are identical to the applicable interest rates on PLUS loans made at the same time. For SLS Loans made on or after October 1, 1992, the applicable interest rate is the same as the applicable interest rate on PLUS loans, except that the ceiling is 11% per annum instead of 10% per annum.

Consolidation Loans. A consolidation loan made prior to July 1, 1994 bears interest at a rate equal to the weighted average of the interest rates on the loans retired, rounded to the nearest whole percent, but not less than 9% per annum. Except as described in the next sentence, a consolidation loan made on or after July 1, 1994 bears interest at a rate equal to the weighted average of the interest rates on the loans retired, rounded upward to the nearest whole percent, but with no minimum rate. Consolidation loans made on or after November 13, 1997 and before October 1, 1998 bear interest at the annual variable rate applicable to Stafford loans. Consolidation loans for which applications are received on or after October 1, 1998 bear interest at a rate equal to the weighted average rate of the loans consolidated rounded to the nearest one-eighth of 1%, but not to exceed 8.25% per annum.

In addition, the portion, if any, of a consolidation loan that repaid a loan made under Title VII, §§700-721 of the Public Health Services Act, as amended, has a different variable interest rate. This portion is adjusted on July 1 of each year, but is the sum of the average of the Treasury Bill rates auctioned for the quarter ending on the preceding June 30, plus 3.0%, without any cap on the interest rate. For a discussion of required payments that reduce the return on consolidation loans. See "Fees — Rebate Fees on Consolidation Loans."

Loan Limits

Every type of loan other than consolidation loans, is subject to limits as to the maximum principal amount, both with respect to a given year and in the aggregate. All of the loans are limited to the difference between the cost of attendance and the other aid available to the student. Stafford loans are also subject to limits based upon the needs analysis as described above under "Eligibility — Stafford Loans". Additional limits are described below.

Stafford and Unsubsidized Stafford Loans. Except as described in the next paragraph, Stafford and Unsubsidized Stafford loans are generally treated as one loan type for loan limit purposes. A student who has not successfully completed the first year of a program of undergraduate education may borrow up to $2,625 in an academic year. A student who has successfully completed such first year, but who has not successfully completed the second year may borrow up to $3,500 per academic year. An undergraduate student who has successfully completed the first and second year, but who has not successfully completed the remainder of a program of undergraduate education, may borrow up to $5,500 per academic year. For students enrolled in programs of less than an academic year in length, the limits are generally reduced in proportion to the amount by which such programs are less than one year in length.

A graduate or professional student may borrow up to $8,500, in an academic year. The maximum aggregate amount of Stafford and unsubsidized Stafford loans (including that portion of a consolidation loan used to repay such loans) which an undergraduate student may have outstanding is $23,000. The maximum aggregate amount for a graduate and professional student, including loans for undergraduate education, is $65,500. The Secretary of Education is authorized to increase the limits applicable to graduate and professional students who are pursuing programs which the Secretary of Education determines to be exceptionally expensive.

At the time that SLS loans were eliminated, the loan limits for unsubsidized Stafford loans to independent students, or dependent students whose parents cannot borrow a PLUS loan, were increased by amounts equal to the prior SLS loan limits.

Prior to the enactment of the Higher Education Amendments of 1992, an undergraduate student who had not successfully completed the first and second year of a program of undergraduate education could borrow Stafford loans in amounts up to $2,625 in an academic year. An undergraduate student who had successfully completed such first and second year, but who had not successfully completed the remainder of a program of undergraduate education could borrow up to $4,000 per academic year. The maximum for graduate and professional students was $7,500 per academic year. The maximum aggregate amount of Stafford loans which a borrower could have outstanding, including that portion of a consolidation loan used to repay such loans, was $17,250. The maximum aggregate amount for a graduate or professional student, including loans for undergraduate education, was $54,750. Prior to the 1986 changes, the annual limits were generally lower.

PLUS Loans. For PLUS loans made on or after July 1, 1993, the amounts of PLUS loans are limited only by the student's unmet need. Prior to that time PLUS loans were subject to limits similar to those to which SLS loans were then subject (see "SLS Loans" below), applied with respect to each student on behalf of whom the parent borrowed.

SLS Loans. A student who had not successfully completed the first and second year of a program of undergraduate education could borrow an SLS loan in an amount of up to $4,000. A student who had successfully completed such first and second year, but who had not successfully completed the remainder of a program of undergraduate education could borrow up to $5,000 per year. Graduate and professional students could borrow up to $10,000 per year. SLS Loans were subject to an aggregate maximum of $23,000 for undergraduate students and $73,000 for graduate and professional students. Prior to the 1992 changes, SLS loans were available in amounts of $4,000 per academic year, up to a $20,000 aggregate maximum. Prior to the 1986 changes, a graduate or professional student could borrow $3,000 of SLS Loans per academic year, up to a $15,000 maximum, and an independent undergraduate student could borrow $2,500 of SLS loans per academic year minus the amount of all other FFEL program loans to such student for such academic year, up to a maximum amount of all FFEL program loans to that student of $12,500. In 1989, the amount of SLS loans for students enrolled in programs of less than an academic year in length were limited similarly to the limits of Stafford loans.

Repayment

Loans, other than consolidated loans, made under the FFEL program must provide for repayment of principal in periodic installments over a period of not less than five nor more than ten years. A consolidation loan must be repaid during a period not more than 30 years, agreed to by the borrower and lender, subject to maximum repayment periods which vary depending upon the principal amount of the borrower's outstanding student loans. For consolidation loans for which the application was received prior to January 1, 1993, the repayment period could not exceed 25 years. The repayment period commences

- (a) not more than twelve months after the borrower ceases to pursue at least a half-time course of study with respect to Stafford loans for which the applicable rate of interest is 7% per annum;
- (b) not more than six months after the borrower ceases to pursue at least a half-time course of study with respect to other Stafford loans and unsubsidized Stafford loans (the six month or twelve month periods are the grace periods); and
- (c) on the date of final disbursement of the loan in the case of SLS, PLUS and consolidation loans, except that the borrower of an SLS loan who also has a Stafford or unsubsidized Stafford loan may defer repayment of the SLS loan to coincide with the commencement of repayment of the Stafford or unsubsidized Stafford loan.

During periods in which repayment of principal is required, payments of principal and interest must in general be made at a rate of not less than the greater of $600 per year or the interest that accrues during the year, except that a borrower and lender may agree at any time before or during the repayment period, that repayment may be at a lesser rate. A borrower may agree, with concurrence of the lender, to repay the loan in less than five years with the right subsequently to extend his minimum repayment period to five years. Borrowers may accelerate, without penalty, the repayment of all or any part of the loan.

In addition, since 1992, lenders of consolidation loans have been required to establish graduated or income-sensitive repayment schedules and lenders of Stafford and SLS loans have been required to offer borrowers the option of repaying in accordance with graduated or income-sensitive repayment schedules. The depositor may implement graduated repayment schedules and income-sensitive repayment schedules. Use of income-sensitive repayment schedules may extend the ten-year maximum term for up to five years. In addition, if the repayment schedule on a loan that has been converted to a variable interest rate does not provide for adjustments to the amount of the monthly installment payments, the ten-year maximum term may be extended for up to three years.

No principal repayments need be made during certain deferment periods prescribed by the Higher Education Act. For loans to a borrower who first obtained a loan which was disbursed before July 1, 1993, deferments are available

- (1) during a period not exceeding three years while the borrower is a member of the armed forces, an officer in the Commissioned Corps of the Public Health Service or, with respect to a borrower who first obtained a student loan disbursed on or after July 1, 1987, or a student loan to cover the cost of instruction for a period of enrollment beginning on or after July 1, 1987, an active duty member of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration Corps;
- (2) during a period not in excess of three years while the borrower is a volunteer under the Peace Corps Act;

- (3) during a period not in excess of three years while the borrower is a full-time volunteer under the Domestic Volunteer Act of 1973;
 - (4) during a period not exceeding three years while the borrower is in service, comparable to the service referred to in clauses (2) and (3), as a full-time volunteer for an organization which is exempt from taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the code;
 - (5) during a period not exceeding two years while the borrower is serving an internship, the successful completion of which is required to receive professional recognition required to begin professional practice or service, or a qualified internship or residency program;
 - (6) during a period not exceeding three years while the borrower is temporarily totally disabled, as established by sworn affidavit of a qualified physician, or while the borrower is unable to secure employment by reason of the care required by a dependent who is so disabled;
 - (7) during a period not to exceed 24 months while the borrower is seeking and unable to find full-time employment;
 - (8) during any period that the borrower is pursuing a full-time course of study at an eligible institution (or, with respect to a borrower who first obtained a student loan disbursed on or after July 1, 1987, or a student loan to cover the cost of instruction for a period of enrollment beginning on or after July 1, 1987, is pursuing at least a half-time course of study for which the borrower has obtained a loan under the FFEL program), or is pursuing a course of study pursuant to a graduate fellowship program or a rehabilitation training program for disabled individuals approved by the Secretary of Education;
 - (9) during a period, not in excess of six months, while the borrower is on parental leave; and
 - (10) only with respect to a borrower who first obtained a student loan disbursed on or after July 1, 1987, or a student loan to cover the cost of instruction for a period of enrollment beginning on or after July 1, 1987;
- (A) during a period not in excess of three years while the borrower is a full-time teacher in a public or nonprofit private elementary or secondary school in a "teacher shortage area" (as prescribed by the Secretary of Education), and
 - (B) during a period not in excess of 12 months for mothers, with preschool age children, who are entering or re-entering the work force and who are compensated at a rate not exceeding $1 per hour in excess of the federal minimum wage. For loans to a borrower who first obtains a loan on or after July 1, 1993, deferments are available:
 - (a) during any period that the borrower is pursuing at least a half-time course of study at an eligible institution or a course of study pursuant to a graduate fellowship program or rehabilitation training program approved by the Secretary,
 - (b) during a period not exceeding three years while the borrower is seeking and unable to find full-time employment, and
 - (c) during a period not in excess of three years for any reason which the lender determines, in accordance with regulations under the Higher Education Act, has caused or will cause the borrower economic hardship. Economic hardship includes working full time and earning an amount not in excess of the greater of the minimum wage or the poverty line for a family of two. Additional categories of economic hardship are based on the relationship between a borrower's educational debt burden and his or her income.

Prior to the 1992 changes, only the deferment periods described above in clauses (6) and (7) (with respect to the parent borrower) and the deferment period described in clause (8) (with respect to the parent borrower or a student on whose behalf the parent borrowed) were available to PLUS loan borrowers, and only the deferment periods described above in clauses (6), (7) and (8) were available to consolidation loan borrowers. Prior to the 1986 changes, PLUS loan borrowers were not entitled to deferment periods. Deferment periods extend the ten-year maximum term.

The Higher Education Act also provides for forbearance periods during which the borrower, in case of temporary financial hardship, may defer any payments. A borrower is entitled to forbearance for a period not to exceed three years while the borrower's debt burden under Title IV of the Higher Education Act, which includes the FFEL program, equals or exceeds 20% of the borrower's gross income, and also is entitled to forbearance while he or she is serving in a qualifying medical or dental internship program or in a "national service position" under the National and Community Service Trust Act of 1993.

In addition, mandatory administrative forbearances are provided when exceptional circumstances such as a local or national emergency or military mobilization exist; or when the geographical area in which the borrower or endorser resides has been designated a disaster area by the President of the United States or Mexico, the Prime Minister of Canada, or by the governor of a state. In other circumstances, forbearance is at the lender's option. Such forbearance also extends the ten year maximum term.

As described under the heading "— Contracts with Guarantee Agencies — Federal Interest Subsidy Payments" below, the Secretary of Education makes interest payments on behalf of the borrower of certain eligible loans while the borrower is in school and during grace and deferment periods. Interest that accrues during forbearance periods and, if the loan is not eligible for interest subsidy payments, while the borrower is in school and during the grace and deferment periods, may be paid monthly or quarterly or capitalized (added to the principal balance) not more frequently than quarterly.

Disbursement

All loans, except consolidation loans, made under the FFEL program generally must be disbursed in two or more installments, none of which may exceed 50% of the total principal amount of the loan.

Fees

Guarantee Fee. A guarantee agency is authorized to charge a premium, or guarantee fee, of up to 1% of the principal amount of the loan, which must be deducted proportionately from each installment payment of the proceeds of the loan to the borrower. Guarantee fees may not currently be charged to borrowers of consolidation loans. However, lenders may be charged an insurance fee to cover the costs of increased or extended liability with respect to consolidation loans. For loans made prior to July 1, 1994, the maximum guarantee fee was 3% of the principal amount of the loan, but no such guarantee fee was authorized to be charged with respect to unsubsidized Stafford loans.

Origination Fee. An eligible lender is authorized to charge the borrower of a Stafford or unsubsidized Stafford loan an origination fee in an amount not to exceed 3% of the principal amount of the loan, and is required to charge the borrower of a PLUS loan an origination fee in the amount of 3% of the principal amount of the loan. These fees must be deducted proportionately from each installment payment of the loan proceeds prior to payment to the borrower and are not retained by the lender, but must be passed on to the Secretary of Education. For loans made prior to July 1, 1994, the maximum authorized fee for Stafford, PLUS and SLS loans was 5% and the required fee for unsubsidized Stafford loans was 6.5% of the principal amount of the loan.

Lender Origination Fee. The lender of any loan under the FFEL Program made on or after October 1, 1993 is required to pay to the Secretary of Education an origination fee equal to 0.5% of the initial principal amount of such loan.

Rebate Fee on Consolidation Loans. The holder of any consolidation loan is required to pay to the Secretary of Education a monthly fee at an annualized rate of 1.05% (.62% for applications received between October 1, 1998 and January 31, 1999) of the principal amount of, and accrued interest on, such consolidation loan.

Loan Guarantees

Under the FFEL program, guarantee agencies are required to guarantee the payment of not less than 103% of the principal amount of loans made prior to October 1, 1993 and covered by their respective guarantee programs. For a description of the requirements for loans to be covered by such guarantees, see "The Guarantee Agencies." For loans made on or after October 1, 1993, the minimum percentage of the principal amount of loans which a guarantee agency must pay is 98% and the Department of Education has taken the position that a guarantee agency may not pay more than 98% of the principal amount of and accrued interest on such a loan. The 1998 Reauthorization Bill further reduces the maximum reinsurance rate to guarantee agencies from 98% to 95% for loans made on or after October 1, 1998. Under certain circumstances, guarantees may be assumed by the Secretary of Education or another guarantee agency. See "Contracts with Guarantee Agencies."

Contracts with Guarantee Agencies

Under the FFEL program, the Secretary of Education is authorized to enter into guaranty and interest subsidy agreements with guarantee agencies. The FFEL program provides for reimbursements to guarantee agencies for default claims paid by guarantee agencies, support payments to guarantee agencies for administrative and other expenses, advances for a guarantee agency's reserve funds, and interest subsidy payments and Special Allowance Payments to the holders of qualifying student loans made pursuant to the FFEL program.

The Secretary of Education has certain oversight powers over guarantee agencies. Guarantee agencies are required to maintain their reserves at certain levels based on the amount of outstanding loans that they have guaranteed. If a guarantee agency falls below the required level in two consecutive years, or its claims rate exceeds 5% in any year, or if the Secretary of Education determines that the agency's administrative or financial condition jeopardizes its ability to meet its obligations, the Secretary of Education can require the guarantee agency to submit and implement a plan by which it will correct such problem(s). If a guarantee agency fails to timely submit an acceptable plan or fails to improve its condition, or if the Secretary of Education determines that the guarantee agency is in danger of financial collapse, the Secretary of Education may terminate the guarantee agency's reimbursement contract. The circumstances under which the Secretary of Education may terminate such reimbursement contracts also includes a determination that such action is necessary to protect the federal fiscal interest or to ensure continued availability of student loans. See "Direct Loans."

The Secretary of Education is authorized to assume the guarantee obligations of a guarantee agency. The Higher Education Act provides that, if the Secretary of Education terminates a guarantee agency's agreements under the FFEL program, the Secretary of Education shall assume responsibility for all functions of the guarantee agency under its program. To that end, the Secretary of Education is authorized to, among other options, transfer the guarantees to another guarantee agency or assume the guarantees. It also provides that in the event the Secretary of Education has determined that a guarantee agency is unable to meet its guarantee obligations, holders of loans guaranteed by such guarantee agency may submit claims directly to the Secretary of Education for payment, unless the Secretary of Education has provided for the assumption of such guarantees by another guarantee agency.

Federal Reimbursement

A guarantee agency's right to receive federal reimbursements for various guarantee claims paid by such guarantee agency is governed by the Higher Education Act and various contracts entered into between guarantee agencies and the Secretary of Education. See "The Guarantee Agencies — Federal Agreements." Under the Higher Education Act and the federal reimbursement contracts, the Secretary of Education currently agrees to reimburse a guarantee agency for the amounts expended by the guarantee agency in the discharge of its guarantee obligation (i.e., the unpaid principal balance of and accrued interest on loans guaranteed by the guarantee agency as a result of the default of the borrower).

With respect to loans made prior to October 1, 1993, the Secretary of Education currently agrees to reimburse the guarantee agency for up to 100% of the amounts so expended. For loans made on or after October 1, 1993, the Secretary of Education currently agrees to reimburse the guarantee agency for a maximum of 98% of the amount expended with respect to guaranteed loans. The 1998 Reauthorization Bill further reduced the maximum reinsurance rate to guarantee agencies from 98% to 95% for loans made on or after October 1, 1998. Depending on the claims rate experience of a guarantee agency, such 100%, 98% or 95% reimbursement may be reduced as discussed in the formula described below.

The Secretary of Education also agrees to repay 100% of the unpaid principal plus applicable accrued interest expended by a guarantee agency in discharging its guarantee obligation as a result of the bankruptcy, death, or total and permanent disability of a borrower, and in the case of a PLUS loan, the death of the student on behalf of whom the loan was borrowed. In the instance of school closures, reimbursements are not to be included in the calculations of the guarantee agency's claims rate experience for the purpose of federal reimbursement under the federal reimbursement contracts.

The formula for computing the percentage of federal reimbursement under the federal reimbursement contracts is not accumulated over a period of years, but is measured by the amount of federal reimbursement payments in any one federal fiscal year as a percentage of the original principal amount of loans under the FFEL program guaranteed by the guarantee agency and in repayment at the end of the preceding fiscal year. Under the formula, federal reimbursement payments to a guarantee agency in any one fiscal year not exceeding 5% of the original principal amount of loans in repayment at the end of the preceding fiscal year, are to be paid by the Secretary of Education at 100%. The amount of payment is 98% for loans made on or after October 1, 1993 and 95% for loans made on or after October 1, 1998.

Beginning at any time during any fiscal year that federal reimbursement payments exceed 5%, and until such time as they may exceed 9%, of the original principal amount of loans in repayment at the end of the preceding fiscal year, then reimbursement payments on claims submitted during that period are to be paid at 90% or 88% for loans made on or after October 1, 1993, or 85% for loans made on or after October 1, 1998. Beginning at any time during any fiscal year that federal reimbursement payments exceed 9% of the original principal amount of loans in repayment at the end of the preceding fiscal year, then such payments for the balance of that fiscal year will be paid at 80%. This amount is 78% for loans made on or after October 1, 1993 and 75% for loans made on or after October 1, 1998. The original principal amount of loans in repayment for purposes of computing reimbursement payments to a guarantee agency means the original principal amount of all loans guaranteed by such guarantee agency less:

- (1) guarantee payments on such loans;
- (2) the original principal amount of such loans that have been fully repaid; and
- (3) the original principal amount of such loans for which the first principal installment payment has not become due or such first installment need not be paid because of a deferment period.

Under present practice, after the Secretary of Education reimburses a guarantee agency for a default claim paid on a guaranteed loan, the guarantee agency continues to seek repayment from the borrower. The guarantee agency returns to the Secretary of Education payments that it receives from a borrower after deducting and retaining:

- (1) a percentage amount equal to the complement of the reimbursement percentage in effect at the time the loan was reimbursed; and
- (2) an amount equal to 24% (23% beginning October 1, 2003) or 18-1/2% in the case of a payment from the proceeds of a consolidation loan of such payments for certain administrative costs.

The Secretary of Education may, however, require the assignment to the Secretary of Education of defaulted guaranteed loans, in which event no further collections activity need be undertaken by the guarantee agency, and no amount of any recoveries shall be paid to the guarantee agency. Prior to the 1998 changes, the percentage of collections which guarantee agencies could retain was 27%.

A guarantee agency may enter into an addendum to its interest subsidy agreement, which addendum provides for the guarantee agency to refer to the Secretary of Education certain defaulted guaranteed loans. Such loans are then reported to the IRS to offset any tax refunds which may be due any defaulted borrower. To the extent that the guarantee agency has originally received less than 100% reimbursement from the Secretary of Education with respect to such a referred loan, the guarantee agency will not recover any amounts subsequently collected by the federal government which are attributable to that portion of the defaulted loan for which the guarantee agency has not been reimbursed.

Rehabilitation of Defaulted Loans

Under Section 428F of the Higher Education Act, each guarantee agency is required to enter into an agreement with the Secretary of Education pursuant to which the guarantee agency shall sell defaulted loans that are eligible for rehabilitation to an eligible lender. The guarantee agency shall repay the Secretary of Education an amount equal to 81.5% of the then current principal balance of such loan, multiplied by the reimbursement percentage in effect at the time the loan was reimbursed. The amount of such repayment shall be deducted from the amount of federal reimbursement payments for the fiscal year in which such repayment occurs, for purposes of determining the reimbursement rate for that fiscal year.

For a loan to be eligible for rehabilitation, the guarantee agency must have received consecutive payments for 12 months of amounts owed on such loan. Upon rehabilitation, a loan is eligible for all the benefits under the Higher Education Act for which it would have been eligible had no default occurred.

Eligibility for Federal Reimbursement

To be eligible for federal reimbursement payments, guaranteed loans must be made by an eligible lender under the applicable guarantee agency's guarantee program, which must meet requirements prescribed by the rules and regulations promulgated under the Higher Education Act. These rules and regulations include borrower eligibility, loan amount, disbursement, interest rate, repayment period and guarantee fee provisions described herein and the other requirements set forth in Section 428(b) of the Higher Education Act.

Under the Higher Education Act, a guaranteed loan must be delinquent for 180 days (or 270 days for loans on which the first day of delinquency occurs on or after October 7, 1998) if it is repayable in monthly installments or 330 days if it is payable in less frequent installments before a lender may obtain payment on a guarantee from the guarantee agency. The guarantee agency must pay the lender for the defaulted loan prior to submitting a claim to the Secretary of Education for reimbursement. The guarantee agency must submit a reimbursement claim to the Secretary of Education within 45 days after it has paid the lender's default claim.

As a prerequisite to entitlement to payment on the guarantee by the guarantee agency, and in turn payment of reimbursement by the Secretary of Education, the lender must have exercised reasonable care and diligence in making, servicing and collecting the guaranteed loan. Generally, these procedures require that completed loan applications be processed, a determination of whether an applicant is an eligible borrower attending an eligible institution under the Higher Education Act be made, the borrower's responsibilities under the loan be explained to him or her, the promissory note evidencing the loan be executed by the borrower and that the loan proceeds be disbursed by the lender in a specified manner. After the loan is made, the lender must establish repayment terms with the borrower, properly administer deferments and forbearances and credit the borrower for payments made. If a borrower becomes delinquent in repaying a loan, a lender must perform certain collection procedures that vary depending upon the length of time a loan is delinquent.

Federal Interest Subsidy Payments

Interest subsidy payments are interest payments paid with respect to an eligible loan during the period prior to the time that the loan enters repayment and during grace and deferment periods. The Secretary of Education and the guarantee agencies entered into the interest subsidy agreements as described in "The Guarantee Agencies — Federal Agreements," whereby the Secretary of Education agrees to pay interest subsidy payments to the holders of eligible guaranteed loans for the benefit of students meeting certain requirements, subject to the holders' compliance with all requirements of the Higher Education Act. Only Stafford loans, and consolidation loans for which the application was received on or after January 1, 1993, are eligible for interest subsidy payments.

Consolidation loans made after August 10, 1993 are eligible for interest subsidy payments only if all loans consolidated thereby are Stafford loans. However, consolidation loans for which the application is received by an eligible lender on or after November 13, 1997 and before October 1, 1998, are eligible for interest subsidy payments on that portion of the consolidation loan that repays Stafford loans or similar subsidized loans made under the direct loan program. In addition, to be eligible for interest subsidy payments, guaranteed loans must be made by an eligible lender under the applicable guarantee agency's guarantee program, and must meet requirements prescribed by the rules and regulations promulgated under the Higher Education Act, including the borrower eligibility, loan amount, disbursement, interest rate, repayment period and guarantee fee provisions described herein and the other requirements set forth in Section 428(b) of the Higher Education Act.

The Secretary of Education makes interest subsidy payments quarterly on behalf of the borrower to the holder of a guaranteed loan in a total amount equal to the interest which accrues on the unpaid principal amount prior to the commencement of the repayment period of the loan or during any deferment period. A borrower may elect to forego interest subsidy payments, in which case the borrower is required to make interest payments.

Federal Administrative Expense Allowances

Prior to the adoption of the 1993 Amendments, each guarantee agency was entitled to receive from the Secretary of Education an administrative cost allowance equal to 1% of the total principal amount of the loans other than consolidation loans guaranteed by the guarantee agency in any fiscal year, for the purposes of administrative costs of pre-claims assistance for default prevention and collection of defaulted guaranteed loans, administrative costs of promoting commercial lender participation, administrative costs of monitoring the enrollment and repayment status of students, and for other such costs related to the guarantee agency's guarantee program. The 1993 Amendments repealed such entitlement, effective October 1, 1993. The 1993 Amendments, however, authorized payments for transition support to guarantee agencies, in connection with the transition to direct lending. See "Direct Loans."

Budget legislation adopted since that time has provided for the payment to guarantee agencies of an administrative expense allowance equal to 0.85% of the agency's annual new guarantee volume, which has been extended through the fiscal year ending September 30, 2002. After the fiscal year ending September 30, 1997, such amounts are subject to decreasing aggregate limits.

Under the 1998 Reauthorization Bill, the administrative cost allowance was replaced by two new payments:

- (1) a student loan processing fee equal to 65 basis points (40 basis points for loans made on or after October 1, 2003) paid at the time a loan is guaranteed, and
- (2) an account maintenance fee of 12 basis points (10 basis points for fiscal years 2001-2003) paid annually on outstanding guaranteed student loans.

Federal Advances

Pursuant to agreements entered into between the guarantee agencies and the Secretary of Education under Sections 422 and 422(c) of the Higher Education Act, the Secretary of Education was authorized to advance moneys from time to time to the guarantee agencies for the purpose of establishing and strengthening the guarantee agencies' reserves. Section 422(c) currently authorizes the Secretary of Education to make advances to guarantee agencies in various circumstances, on terms and conditions satisfactory to the Secretary of Education, including if the Secretary of Education is seeking to terminate the guarantee agency's reimbursement contract or assume the guarantee agency's functions, to assist the guarantee agency in meeting its immediate cash needs or to ensure the uninterrupted payment of claims.

Federal Special Allowance Payments

The Higher Education Act provides for the payment by the Secretary of Education of additional subsidies, called Special Allowance Payments, to holders of qualifying student loans. The amount of the Special Allowance Payments, which are made on a quarterly basis, is computed by reference to the average of the bond equivalent rates of the 91-day Treasury Bills auctioned during the preceding quarter (the "Treasury Bill rate") or, in the case of loans disbursed on or after January 1, 2000 and before July 1, 2003, the 90-day Commercial Paper (financial) rates in effect for each of the days in such quarter as reported by the Federal Reserve in publication H-15 (the "CP Rate"). The quarterly rate for Special Allowance Payments for student loans made on or after October 1, 1981, and generally before November 16, 1986, is computed by subtracting the applicable interest rate on such loans from the Treasury Bill rate or the CP Rate as applicable, adding 3.5% to the resulting per centum, and dividing the resulting per centum by four. For loans disbursed on or after November 16, 1986, or loans to cover the costs of instruction for periods of enrollment beginning on or after November 16, 1986, 3.25% has been substituted for 3.5% in the foregoing formula. For loans disbursed on or after October 1, 1992, 3.1% has been substituted for 3.5% in such formula. For Stafford and unsubsidized Stafford loans made on or after July 1, 1995, 2.5% has been substituted for 3.1% in such formula prior to the time such loans enter repayment and during any deferment periods. For Stafford and unsubsidized Stafford loans made on or after July 1, 1998, the 1998 amendments to the Higher Education Act substitute 2.2% for 3.1% in such formula prior to the time such loans enter repayment and during any deferment periods, and substitute 2.8% for 3.1% in such formula while such loans are in repayment. Special allowance rates for Stafford and unsubsidized Stafford loans disbursed between January 1, 2000 and July 1, 2003 are calculated to provide the holder with a minimum yield equal to CP Rate plus 1.74% during in-school, grace and deferment periods, of 2.34% during repayment periods.

For PLUS and SLS loans which bear interest at rates adjusted annually, Special Allowance Payments are made only in years during which the interest rate ceiling on such loans operates to reduce the rate that would otherwise apply based upon the applicable formula. See "Loan Terms — Interest Rates — PLUS Loans" and "— SLS Loans." Special allowance payments are paid with respect to PLUS loans made on or after July 1, 1994 only if the rate that would otherwise apply exceeds 10% per annum, notwithstanding that the interest rate ceiling on such loans is 9% per annum. Special allowance payment on PLUS loans made on or after January 1, 2000 and before July 1, 2003 are paid in an amount equal to the amount by which the CP Rate plus 2.64% exceeds the borrower's interest rate. Special allowance payments are made on consolidation loans whenever the bond equivalent rate of 91-day Treasury Bills plus 3.1% (or the CP Rate plus 2.64% in the case of loans made between January 1, 2000 and July 1, 2003) exceeds the borrower's interest rate. The portion, if any, of a consolidation loan that repaid a loan made under Title VII, §§700-721 of the Public Health Services Act, as amended, is ineligible for Special Allowance Payments.

The Higher Education Act provides that if Special Allowance Payments or interest subsidy payments have not been made within 30 days after the Secretary of Education receives an accurate, timely and complete request therefor, the special allowance payable to such holder shall be increased by an amount equal to the daily interest accruing on the special allowance and interest subsidy payments due the holder.

Special allowance payments and interest subsidy payments are reduced by the amount which the lender is authorized or required to charge the borrower as an origination fee, as described above under "Loan Terms — Fees — Origination Fee". In addition, the amount of the lender origination fee described above under "Loan Terms — Fees — Lender Origination Fees" is collected by offset to Special Allowance Payments and interest subsidy payments.

Education Loans Generally Not Subject to Discharge in Bankruptcy

Under the United States Bankruptcy Code, educational loans are not generally dischargeable. Title 11 of the United States Code at Section 523(a)(8) provides as follows:

(a) A discharge under Section 727, 1141, 1228(a), 1228(b), or 1328(b) of this title does not discharge an individual debtor from any debt —

(8) for an educational benefit overpayment or loan made, insured, or guaranteed by a governmental unit or made under any program funded in whole or in part by a governmental unit or a nonprofit institution, or for an obligation to repay funds received as an educational benefit, scholarship or stipend unless excepting such debt from discharge under this paragraph will impose an undue hardship on the debtor and the debtor's dependents.

Direct Loans

The 1993 Amendments authorized a program of direct loans, to be originated by schools with funds provided by the Secretary of Education. Under the Federal Direct Student Loan Program, the Secretary of Education is directed to enter into agreements with schools, or origination agents in lieu of schools, to disburse loans with funds provided by the Secretary of Education. Participation in the program by schools is voluntary. The goals set forth in the 1993 Amendments call for the Federal Direct Student Loan Program to constitute 5% of the total volume of loans made under the FFEL program and the Federal Direct Student Loan Program for academic year 1994-1995, 40% for academic year 1995-1996, 50% for academic years 1996-1997 and 1997-1998 and 60% for academic year 1998-1999. No provision is made for the size of the Federal Direct Student Loan Program thereafter. Based upon available information, participation by schools in the Federal Direct Student Loan Program has not been sufficient to meet the goals for the 1995-1996, 1996-1997, 1997-1998 or 1998-1999 academic years.

The loan terms are generally the same under the Federal Direct Student Loan Program as under the FFEL program, though more flexible repayment provisions are available under the Federal Direct Student Loan program. At the discretion of the Secretary of Education, students attending schools that participate in the Federal Direct Student Loan Program, or their parents, may still be eligible for participation in the FFEL program, though no borrower could obtain loans under both programs.

It is difficult to predict the impact of the Federal Direct Student Loan Program. There is no way to accurately predict the number of schools that will participate in future years, or, if the Secretary of Education authorizes students attending participating schools to continue to be eligible for FFEL program loans, how many students will seek loans under the Federal Direct Student Loan Program instead of the FFEL program. In addition, it is impossible to predict whether future legislation will eliminate, limit or expand the Federal Direct Student Loan Program or the FFEL program.

Auction Agent

Bankers Trust Company is appointed in the Indenture as Initial Auction Agent to serve as agent for the Corporation in connection with Auctions. The Corporation shall enter into the Initial Auction Agent Agreement with Bankers Trust Company, as the Initial Auction Agent. Any Substitute Auction Agent will be (i) a bank or trust company duly organized under the laws of the United States of America or any state or territory thereof having its principal place of business in the Borough of Manhattan, New York, or such other location as approved by the Trustee, the Corporation and the Market Agent in writing and having a combined capital stock or surplus of at least $50,000,000, or (ii) a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. having a capitalization of at least $50,000,000, and, in either case, authorized by law to perform all the duties imposed upon it under the Indenture and under the Auction Agent Agreement. The Auction Agent may at any time resign and be discharged of the duties and obligations created by the Indenture by giving at least 90 days' notice to the Trustee, the Corporation and the Market Agent. The Auction Agent may be removed at any time by the Corporation or the Holders of at least 66-2/3% of the aggregate principal amount of the Auction Rate Securities then Outstanding, and if by the Holders, by an instrument signed by such Holders or their attorneys and filed with the Auction Agent, the Corporation, the Trustee and the Market Agent upon at least 90 days' notice. Neither resignation nor removal of the Auction Agent pursuant to the preceding two sentences will be effective until and unless a Substitute Auction Agent has been appointed and has accepted such appointment. A Substitute Auction Agent Agreement will be entered into with a Substitute Auction Agent. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Auction Agent may terminate the Auction Agent Agreement if, within 30 days after notifying the Trustee, the Corporation and the Market Agent in writing that it has not received payment of any Auction Agent Fee due it in accordance with the terms of the Auction Agent Agreement, the Auction Agent does not receive such payment.

If the Auction Agent should resign or be removed or be dissolved, or if the property or affairs of the Auction Agent will be taken under the control of any state or federal court or administrative body because of bankruptcy or insolvency, or for any other reason, the Corporation will use its best efforts to appoint a Substitute Auction Agent.

The Auction Agent is acting as agent for the Corporation in connection with Auctions. In the absence of bad faith or negligence on its part, the Auction Agent will not be liable for any action taken, suffered or omitted or any error of judgment made by it in the performance of its duties under the Auction Agent Agreement and will not be liable for any error of judgment made in good faith unless the Auction Agent will have been negligent in ascertaining (or failing to ascertain) the pertinent facts necessary to make such judgment.

The Trustee will pay the Auction Agent the Auction Agent Fee in accordance with the Auction Agent Agreement and will reimburse the Auction Agent upon its request for all reasonable expenses, disbursements and advances incurred or made by the Auction Agent in accordance with any provision of the Auction Agent Agreement or the Broker-Dealer Agreements (including the reasonable compensation and the expenses and disbursements of its agents and counsel). Such amounts are payable from the Revenue Account. The Corporation will indemnify and hold harmless the Auction Agent for and against any loss, liability or expense incurred without negligence or bad faith on the Auction Agent's part, arising out of or in connection with its agency under the Auction Agent Agreement and the Broker-Dealer Agreements, including the reasonable costs and expenses (including the reasonable fees and expenses of its counsel) of defending itself against any such claim or liability in connection with its exercise or performance of any of its duties under the Indenture, the Auction Agent Agreement and the Broker-Dealer Agreement and of enforcing this indemnification provision; provided that the Corporation will not indemnify the Auction Agent as described in this paragraph for any fees and expenses incurred by the Auction Agent in the normal course of performing its duties under the Auction Agent Agreement and under the Broker-Dealer Agreements, such fees and expenses being payable as described above.

Broker-Dealer

Existing Holders and Potential Holders may participate in Auctions only by submitting orders (in the manner described below) through a "Broker-Dealer", including Salomon Smith Barney Inc. as the sole initial Broker-Dealer or any other broker or dealer (each as defined in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended), commercial bank or other entity permitted by law to perform the functions required of a Broker-Dealer set forth below which (i) is a Participant or an affiliate of a Participant, (ii) has been selected by the Corporation and (iii) has entered into a Broker-Dealer Agreement with the Auction Agent that remains effective in which the Broker-Dealer agrees to participate in Auctions as described in the Auction Procedures, as from time to time amended or supplemented.

The Broker-Dealers are entitled to a Broker-Dealer Fee, which is payable by the Auction Agent from moneys received from the Trustee.

Market Agent

Under the Market Agent Agreement, and in connection with the Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds, the "Market Agent", initially Salomon Smith Barney Inc., will act solely as agent of the Corporation and will not assume any obligation or relationship of agency or trust for or with any of the Beneficial Owners. The Initial Market Agent will not receive any compensation for the performance of its duties under the Market Agent Agreement.

Auction Procedures

General

Auctions to establish the Auction Rate will be held on each Auction Date, except as described above under the caption "DESCRIPTION OF THE OFFERED OBLIGATIONS -- Interest Rates on the Offered Obligations", by application of the Auction Procedures described in the Indenture. For a period beginning on the date of initial delivery thereof and ending a specified number of days thereafter, inclusive, each Series of Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds will bear interest at the interest rate for such Series of Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds determined generally on the Business Day immediately preceding such delivery date. Thereafter, the "Auction Date" for each Series of Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds will be the Business Day immediately preceding the first day of each related Auction Period, other than: (i) an Auction Period which commences on a Conversion Date; (ii) each Auction Period commencing after the ownership of the Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds is no longer maintained in Book-Entry Form; (iii) each Auction Period commencing after the occurrence and during the continuance of a Payment Default; or (iv) any Auction Period commencing less than two Business Days after the cure or waiver of a Payment Default. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Auction Date for one or more Auction Periods may be changed as described below under "Changes in Auction Terms".

Calculation of Maximum Rate, All-Hold Rate, Non-Payment Rate and "Aa" Composite Commercial Paper Rate

The Auction Agent will calculate the Maximum Rate and the All-Hold Rate on each Auction Date. Upon receipt of notice from the Trustee of a failed Conversion as described in the Indenture, the Auction Agent will calculate the Maximum Rate as of such failed Conversion Date and give notice thereof as provided and to the parties specified in the Auction Agent Agreement. If the ownership of the Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds is no longer maintained in Book-Entry Form, the Trustee will calculate the Maximum Rate on the Business Day immediately preceding each Auction Rate Adjustment Date after delivery of certificates representing the Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds. If a Payment Default has occurred, the Trustee will calculate the Non-Payment Rate on the first day of (i) each Auction Period commencing after the occurrence and during the continuance of such Payment Default and (ii) any Auction Period commencing less than two Business Days after the cure of any Payment Default. The Auction Agent will determine the "Aa" Composite Commercial Paper Rate for each Auction Period; provided, that if the ownership of the Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds is no longer maintained in Book-Entry Form, or if a Payment Default has occurred, then the Trustee will determine the "Aa" Composite Commercial Paper Rate for each such Auction Period. The determination by the Trustee or the Auction Agent, as the case may be, of the Maximum Rate, the All-Hold Rate, the Non-Payment Rate and the "Aa" Composite Commercial Paper Rate will (in the absence of manifest error) be final and binding upon the Registered Owners and all other parties. If calculated or determined by the Auction Agent, the Auction Agent will promptly advise the Trustee and the Corporation of the Maximum Rate, the All-Hold Rate, the Non-Payment Rate and the "Aa" Composite Commercial Paper Rate.

Adjustment in Applicable Percentage Used to Determine Maximum, All-Hold and Non-Payment Rates

The Market Agent will adjust the percentage used in determining the All-Hold Rate, the Applicable Percentage used in determining the Maximum Rate and the percentage of the Index used in calculating the Non-Payment Rate, if any such adjustment is necessary, in the judgment of the Market Agent, to reflect any Change of Tax Law such that Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds bearing interest at the Maximum Rate, the All-Hold Rate or the Non-Payment Rate in each case shall have substantially equal market values before and after such Change of Tax Law. In making any such adjustment, the Market Agent will take the following factors, as in existence both before and after such Change of Tax Law, into account: (1) short-term taxable and tax-exempt market rates and indices of such short term rates; (2) the market supply and demand for short-term tax-exempt securities; (3) yield curves for short-term and long-term tax-exempt securities and auction rate obligations having a credit rating that is comparable to the Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds; (4) general economic conditions; and (5) economic and financial factors present in the securities industry that may affect or that may be relevant to the Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds.

The Market Agent will communicate its determination to adjust the percentage used in determining the All-Hold Rate, the Applicable Percentage used in determining the Maximum Rate and the percentage of the Index used in calculating the Non-Payment Rate by means of a written notice delivered at least 10 days prior to the Auction Date on which the Market Agent desires to effect the change to the Corporation, the Trustee and the Auction Agent. Such notice will be effective only if it is accompanied by an opinion of nationally-recognized bond counsel, in form and content acceptable to the Trustee, to the effect that the change will not adversely affect the exclusion of interest on the Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds from gross income for federal income tax purposes pursuant to Section 103 of the Code (a "Favorable Opinion").

An adjustment in the percentages used to determine the All-Hold Rate, the Maximum Rate and the Non-Payment Rate will take effect on an Auction Date only if the Trustee has confirmed that:

(i) the Trustee, the Auction Agent and the Corporation have received, by 11:00 a.m. on the Business Day immediately preceding such Auction Date, a certificate from the Market Agent by telex, telecopy or similar means, in substantially the form required under the Indenture, authorizing the adjustment of the percentage used to determine the All-Hold Rate, the Applicable Percentage used to determine the Maximum Rate and/or the percentage of the Index used in determining the Non-Payment Rate which shall be specified in such authorization, and confirming that a Favorable Opinion is expected to be received with respect thereto and written evidence from each Rating Agency confirming that such adjustment will not result in the withdrawal or reduction of any rating applicable to any Obligation; and

(ii) the Trustee and the Auction Agent have received by 9:30 a.m., eastern time, on such Auction Date a Favorable Opinion.

If any of the conditions referred to in (i) above are not met, the existing percentage used to determine the All-Hold Rate, the Applicable Percentage used to determine the Maximum Rate and the percentage of the Index used to determine the Non-Payment Rate shall remain in effect, and the interest rate on the Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds for the next succeeding Auction Period shall be determined in accordance with the Auction Procedures. If the condition referred to in (ii) above is not met, the existing percentage used to determine the All-Hold Rate, the percentage of the Index used to determine the Non-Payment Rate and/or the Applicable Percentage used to determine the Maximum Rate shall remain in effect and the interest rate for the next succeeding Auction Period shall equal the Maximum Rate computed as of the Auction Date.

Submission of Orders

An Existing Holder may sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds only (i) pursuant to a Bid or Sell Order placed in an Auction or (ii) through a Broker-Dealer, provided that, in the case of all transfers other than pursuant to Auctions, such Existing Holder, its Broker-Dealer or its Participant advises the Auction Agent of such transfer. Prior to a Conversion Date, Auctions for each Series of the Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds will be conducted on each Auction Date for such Series, if there is an Auction Agent on such Auction Date, in the following manner (such procedures apply separately to each Series of the Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds).

Prior to the Submission Deadline (defined as 12:30 p.m., eastern time, on any Auction Date or such other time on any Auction Date by which Broker-Dealers are required to submit Orders to the Auction Agent as specified by the Auction Agent from time to time) on each Auction Date:

(a) each Existing Holder of Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds may submit to a Broker-Dealer by telephone or otherwise information as to: (i) the principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Tax-Exempt

Bonds, if any, held by such Existing Holder which such Existing Holder desires to continue to hold without regard to the Auction Rate for the next succeeding Auction Period (a "Hold Order"); (ii) the principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds, if any, which such Existing Holder offers to sell if the Auction Rate for the next succeeding Auction Period will be less than the rate per annum specified by such Existing Holder (a "Bid"); and/or (iii) the principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds, if any, held by such Existing Holder which such Existing Holder offers to sell without regard to the Auction Rate for the next succeeding Auction Period (a "Sell Order"); and

(b) one or more Broker-Dealers may contact Potential Holders to determine the principal amount of Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds which each such Potential Holder offers to purchase, if the Auction Rate for the next succeeding Auction Period will not be less than the rate per annum specified by such Potential Holder (also a "Bid").

Each Hold Order, Bid and Sell Order will be an "Order". Each Existing Holder and each Potential Holder placing an Order is referred to as a "Bidder".

Subject to the provisions described below under "Validity of Orders", a Bid by an Existing Holder will constitute an irrevocable offer to sell: (i) the principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds specified in such Bid if the Auction Rate will be less than the rate specified in such Bid, (ii) such principal amount or a lesser principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds to be determined as described below under "Acceptance and Rejection of Orders", if the Auction Rate will be equal to the rate specified in such Bid or (iii) such principal amount or a lesser principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds to be determined as described below under "Acceptance and Rejection of Orders", if the rate specified therein will be higher than the Maximum Rate and Sufficient Clearing Bids (as defined below) have not been made.

Subject to the provisions described below under "Validity of Orders", a Sell Order by an Existing Holder will constitute an irrevocable offer to sell: (i) the principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds specified in such Sell Order or (ii) such principal amount or a lesser principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds as described below under "Acceptance and Rejection of Orders", if Sufficient Clearing Bids have not been made.

Subject to the provisions described below under "Validity of Orders", a Bid by a Potential Holder will constitute an irrevocable offer to purchase: (i) the principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds specified in such Bid if the Auction Rate will be higher than the rate specified in such Bid or (ii) such principal amount or a lesser principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds as described below in "Acceptance and Rejection of Orders", if the Auction Rate is equal to the rate specified in such Bid.

Each Broker-Dealer will submit in writing to the Auction Agent prior to the Submission Deadline on each Auction Date all Orders obtained by such Broker-Dealer and will specify with respect to each such Order: (i) the name of the Bidder placing such Order; (ii) the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds that are the subject of such Order; (iii) to the extent that such Bidder is an Existing Holder: (a) the principal amount of Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds, if any, subject to any Hold Order placed by such Existing Holder; (b) the principal amount of Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds, if any, subject to any Bid placed by such Existing Holder and the rate specified in such Bid; and (c) the principal amount of Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds, if any, subject to any Sell Order placed by such Existing Holder; and (iv) to the extent such Bidder is a Potential Holder, the rate specified in such Potential Holder's Bid.

If any rate specified in any Bid contains more than three figures to the right of the decimal point, the Auction Agent will round such rate up to the next higher one-thousandth (.001) of one percent.

If an Order or Orders covering all Outstanding Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds held by any Existing Holder are not submitted to the Auction Agent prior to the Submission Deadline, the Auction Agent will deem a Hold Order to have been submitted on behalf of such Existing Holder covering the principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds held by such Existing Holder and not subject to an Order submitted to the Auction Agent.

Neither the Corporation, the Trustee nor the Auction Agent will be responsible for any failure of a Broker-Dealer to submit an Order to the Auction Agent on behalf of any Existing Holder or Potential Holder.

An Existing Holder may submit multiple Orders, of different types and specifying different rates, in an Auction with respect to Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds then held by such Existing Holder. An Existing Holder that offers to purchase additional Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds is, for purposes of such offer, treated as a Potential Holder.

Any Bid specifying a rate higher than the Maximum Rate will (i) be treated as a Sell Order if submitted by a Existing Holder and (ii) not be accepted if submitted by a Potential Holder.

Validity of Orders

If any Existing Holder submits through a Broker-Dealer to the Auction Agent one or more Orders covering in the aggregate more than the principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds held by such Existing Holder, such Orders will be considered valid as follows and in the following order of priority:

Hold Orders. All Hold Orders will be considered valid, but only up to the aggregate principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds held by such Existing Holder, and if the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds subject to such Hold Orders exceeds the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds held by such Existing Holder, the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds subject to each such Hold Order will be reduced prorata so that the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds subject to all such Hold Orders equals the aggregate principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds held by such Existing Holder.

Bids. Any Bid will be considered valid up to an amount equal to the excess of the principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds held by such Existing Holder over the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds subject to any Hold Orders referred to above. Subject to the preceding sentence, if multiple Bids with the same rate are submitted on behalf of such Existing Holder and the aggregate principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds subject to such Bids is greater than such excess, such Bids will be considered valid up to the amount of such excess. Subject to the two preceding sentences, if more than one Bid with different rates is submitted on behalf of such Existing Holder, such Bids will be considered valid first in the ascending order of their respective rates until the highest rate is reached at which such excess exists and then at such rate up to the amount of such excess. In any event, the amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds, if any, subject to Bids not valid under the provisions described above will be treated as the subject of a Bid by a Potential Holder at the rate therein specified.

Sell Orders. All Sell Orders will be considered valid up to the amount of such excess of the principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds held by such Existing Holder over the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds subject to valid Hold Orders and valid Bids as referred to above.

If more than one Bid for Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds is submitted on behalf of any Potential Holder, each Bid submitted will be a separate Bid with the rate and principal amount therein specified. Any Bid or Sell Order submitted by an Existing Holder covering an aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds not equal to an Authorized Denomination will be rejected and will be deemed a Hold Order with respect to all Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds held by such Existing Holder, subject to any valid Bids or Sell Orders submitted by such Existing Holder. Any Bid submitted by a Potential Holder covering an aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds not equal to an Authorized Denomination will be rejected.

A Hold Order, a Bid or a Sell Order that has been determined valid pursuant to the procedures described above is referred to as a "Submitted Hold Order", a "Submitted Bid" and a "Submitted Sell Order", respectively (collectively, "Submitted Orders").

Determination of Sufficient Clearing Bids and Winning Bid Rate

Not earlier than the Submission Deadline on each Auction Date, the Auction Agent will assemble all valid Submitted Orders and will determine:

(a) the excess of the total principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds over the sum of the aggregate principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds subject to Submitted Hold Orders (such excess being hereinafter referred to as the "Available Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds"); and

(b) from such Submitted Orders whether the aggregate principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds subject to Submitted Bids by Potential Holders specifying one or more rates equal to or lower than the Maximum Rate exceeds or is equal to the sum of (i) the aggregate principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds subject to Submitted Bids by Existing Holders specifying one or more rates higher than the Maximum Rate and (ii) the aggregate principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds subject to Submitted Sell Orders (in the event such excess or such equality exists other than because all of the Outstanding Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds are subject to Submitted Hold Orders, such Submitted Bids by Potential Holders described above will be hereinafter referred to collectively as "Sufficient Clearing Bids"); and

(c) if Sufficient Clearing Bids exist, the "Winning Bid Rate" will be the lowest rate specified in such Submitted Bids such that if:

(i) each such Submitted Bid from Existing Holders specifying such lowest rate and all other Submitted Bids from Existing Holders specifying lower rates were rejected (thus entitling such Existing Holders to continue to hold the principal amount of Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds subject to such Submitted Bids); and

(ii) each such Submitted Bid from Potential Holders specifying such lowest rate and all other Submitted Bids from Potential Holders specifying lower rates were accepted, the result would be that such Existing Holders described in subparagraph (i) above would continue to hold an aggregate principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds which, when added to the aggregate principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds to be purchased by such Potential Holders described in subparagraph (ii) above, would equal not less than the Available Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds.

Notice of Auction Rate

Promptly after the Auction Agent has made the determinations described above, the Auction Agent will advise the Trustee and the Corporation of the Maximum Rate and the All-Hold Rate and the components thereof on the Auction Date, and based on such determinations, the Auction Rate for the next succeeding Auction Period as follows:

(a) if Sufficient Clearing Bids exist, that the Auction Rate for the next succeeding Auction Period will be equal to the Winning Bid Rate so determined;

(b) if Sufficient Clearing Bids do not exist (other than because all of the Outstanding Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds are subject to Submitted Hold Orders), that the Auction Rate for the next succeeding Auction Period will be equal to the Maximum Rate; or

(c) if all Outstanding Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds are subject to Submitted Hold Orders, that the Auction Rate for the next succeeding Auction Period will be equal to the All-Hold Rate.

Not later than the second Business Day of each Auction Period, the Trustee will notify the Registered Owners of the Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds of the Auction Rate for such Auction Period.

Acceptance and Rejection of Orders

Existing Holders will continue to hold the principal amount of Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds that are subject to Submitted Hold Orders. Submitted Bids and Submitted Sell Orders will be accepted or rejected, and the Auction Agent will take such other action as set forth below:

Sufficient Clearing Bids. If Sufficient Clearing Bids have been made, all Submitted Sell Orders will be accepted and, subject to the denomination requirements described below, Submitted Bids will be accepted or rejected as follows in the following order of priority and all other Submitted Bids will be rejected:

(a) Existing Holders' Submitted Bids specifying any rate that is higher than the Winning Bid Rate will be accepted, thus requiring each such Existing Holder to sell the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds subject to such Submitted Bids;

(b) Existing Holders' Submitted Bids specifying any rate that is lower than the Winning Bid Rate will be rejected, thus entitling each such Existing Holder to continue to hold the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds subject to such Submitted Bids;

(c) Potential Holders' Submitted Bids specifying any rate that is lower than the Winning Bid Rate will be accepted;

(d) Each Existing Holder's Submitted Bid specifying a rate that is equal to the Winning Bid Rate will be rejected, thus entitling such Existing Holder to continue to hold the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds subject to such Submitted Bid, unless the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds subject to such Submitted Bids will be greater than the principal amount of Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds (the "remaining principal amount") equal to the excess of the Available Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds over the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds subject to Submitted Bids described in subparagraphs (b) and (c) above, in which event such Submitted Bid of such Existing Holder will be rejected in part and such Existing Holder will be entitled to continue to hold the principal amount of Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds subject to such Submitted Bid, but only in an amount equal to the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds obtained by multiplying the remaining principal amount by a fraction, the numerator of which will be the principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds held by such Existing Holder subject to such Submitted Bid and the denominator of which will be the sum of the principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds subject to such Submitted Bids made by all such Existing Holders that specified a rate equal to the Winning Bid Rate;

(e) Each Potential Holder's Submitted Bid specifying a rate that is equal to the Winning Bid Rate will be accepted, but only in an amount equal to the principal amount of Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds obtained by multiplying the excess of the aggregate principal amount of Available Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds over the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds subject to Submitted Bids described in subparagraphs (b), (c) and (d) above by a fraction, the numerator of which will be the aggregate principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds subject to such Submitted Bid and the denominator of which will be the sum of the principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds subject to Submitted Bids made by all such Potential Holders that specified a rate equal to the Winning Bid Rate; and

(f) Each Potential Holder's Submitted Bid specifying a rate that is higher than the Winning Bid Rate will be rejected.

Insufficient Clearing Bids. If Sufficient Clearing Bids have not been made (other than because all of the Outstanding Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds are subject to Submitted Hold Orders), subject to the denomination requirements described below, Submitted Orders will be accepted or rejected as follows in the following order of priority and all other Submitted Bids will be rejected:

(a) Existing Holders' Submitted Bids specifying any rate that is equal to or lower than the Maximum Rate will be rejected, thus entitling such Existing Holders to continue to hold the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds subject to such Submitted Bids;

(b) Potential Holders' Submitted Bids specifying any rate that is equal to or lower than the Maximum Rate will be accepted, and specifying any rate that is higher than the Maximum Rate will be rejected; and

(c) each Existing Holder's Submitted Bid specifying any rate that is higher than the Maximum Rate and the Submitted Sell Order of each Existing Holder will be accepted, thus entitling each Existing Holder that submitted any such Submitted Bid or Submitted Sell Order to sell the Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds subject to such Submitted Bid or Submitted Sell Order, but in both cases only in an amount equal to the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds obtained by multiplying the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds subject to Submitted Bids described in subparagraph (b) above by a fraction, the numerator of which will be the aggregate principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds held by such Existing Holder subject to such Submitted Bid or Submitted Sell Order and the denominator of which will be the aggregate principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds subject to all such Submitted Bids and Submitted Sell Orders.

All Hold Orders. If all Outstanding Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds are subject to Submitted Hold Orders, all Submitted Bids will be rejected.

Authorized Denominations Requirement. If, as a result of the procedures described above regarding Sufficient Clearing Bids and Insufficient Clearing Bids, any Existing Holder would be entitled or required to sell, or any Potential Holder would be entitled or required to purchase, a principal amount of Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds that is not equal to an Authorized Denomination, the Auction Agent will, in such manner as in its sole discretion it will determine, round up or down the principal amount of Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds to be purchased or sold by any Existing Holder or Potential Holder so that the principal amount of Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds purchased or sold by each Existing Holder or Potential Holder will be equal to an Authorized Denomination. If, as a result of the procedures described above regarding Sufficient Clearing Bids or Insufficient Clearing Bids, any Potential Holder would be entitled or required to purchase a principal amount of Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds which is not in an Authorized Denomination, the Auction Agent will, in such manner as in its sole discretion it will determine, allocate Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds for purchase among Potential Holders so that only Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds in an Authorized Denomination are purchased by any Potential Holder, even if such allocation results in one or more of such Potential Holders not purchasing any Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds.

Based on the results of each Auction, the Auction Agent will determine the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds to be purchased and the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds to be sold by Potential Holders and Existing Holders on whose behalf each Broker-Dealer submitted Bids or Sell Orders and, with respect to each Broker-Dealer, to the extent that such aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds to be sold differs from such aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds to be purchased, determine to which other Broker-Dealer or Broker-Dealers acting for one or more purchasers such Broker-Dealer will deliver, or from which Broker-Dealers acting for one or more sellers such Broker-Dealer will receive, as the case may be, Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds.

The Corporation may not submit an Order in any Auction.

Any calculation by the Auction Agent (or the Trustee, if applicable) of the Auction Rate, the "Aa" Composite Commercial Paper Rate, the Maximum Rate, the All-Hold Rate and the Non-Payment Rate will, in the absence of manifest error, be binding on all other parties.

Settlement Procedures

The Auction Agent is required to advise each Broker-Dealer that submitted an Order in an Auction of the Auction Rate for the next Auction Period, whether there were Sufficient Clearing Bids in such Auction and, if such Order was a Bid or Sell Order, whether such Bid or Sell Order was accepted or rejected, in whole or in part, by telephone not later than 3:00 p.m., eastern time, on the Auction Date. Each Broker-Dealer that submitted an Order on behalf of a Bidder is required to then advise such Bidder of the Auction Rate for the next Auction Period and, if such Order was a Bid or a Sell Order, whether such Bid or Sell Order was accepted or rejected, in whole or in part, confirm purchases and sales with each Bidder purchasing or selling Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds as a result of the Auction and advise each Bidder purchasing or selling Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds as a result of the Auction to give instructions to its Participant to pay the purchase price against delivery of such Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds or to deliver such Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds against payment therefor, as appropriate. Pursuant to the Auction Agent Agreement, the Auction Agent will record each transfer of Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds on the Existing Holder Registry to be maintained by the Auction Agent.

In accordance with DTC's normal procedures, on the Business Day after the Auction Date, the transactions described above will be executed through DTC, so long as DTC is the Securities Depository, and the accounts of the respective Participants at DTC will be debited and credited and Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds delivered as necessary to effect the purchases and sales of Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds as determined in the Auction. Purchasers are required to make payment through their Participants in same day funds to DTC against delivery through their Participants. DTC will make payment in accordance with its normal procedures, which now provide for payment against delivery by its Participants in immediately available funds.

If any Existing Holder selling Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds in an Auction fails to deliver such Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds, the Broker-Dealer of any person that was to have purchased Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds in such Auction may deliver to such person a principal amount of Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds that is less than the principal amount of Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds that otherwise was to be purchased by such person but in any event equal to an Authorized Denomination. In such event, the principal amount of Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds to be delivered will be determined by such Broker-Dealer. Delivery of such lesser principal amount of Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds will constitute good delivery. Neither the Trustee nor the Auction Agent will have any responsibility or liability with respect to the failure of a Potential Holder, Existing Holder or their respective Broker-Dealer or Participant to deliver the principal amount of Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds or to pay for the Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds purchased or sold pursuant to an Auction or otherwise. For a further description of the settlement procedures, see APPENDIX F, "SETTLEMENT PROCEDURES FOR AUCTION RATE TAX-EXEMPT BONDS AND AUCTION RATE TAXABLE NOTES".

Trustee and Corporation Not Responsible for Auction Agent, Market Agent and Broker-Dealers

Neither the Trustee nor the Corporation will be liable or responsible for the actions of or failure to act by the Auction Agent, the Market Agent or any Broker-Dealer under the Indenture or under the Auction Agent Agreement, the Market Agent Agreement or any Broker-Dealer Agreement. The Trustee and the Corporation may conclusively rely upon any information required to be furnished by the Auction Agent, the Market Agent or any Broker-Dealer without undertaking any independent review or investigation of the truth or accuracy of such information.

Changes in Auction Terms

Changes in Auction Period or Periods

While any of the Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds are Outstanding, the Corporation, from time to time, may change the length of one or more Auction Periods in order to conform with then current market practice with respect to similar securities or to accommodate economic and financial factors that may affect or be relevant to the length of the Auction Period and the interest rate borne by the Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds (an "Auction Period Adjustment"). The Corporation will not initiate such change in the length of the Auction Period unless it will have (i) provided each Rating Agency with a Cash Flow Certificate, (ii) received written confirmation from each Rating Agency that the change in the Auction Period will not cause any rating or ratings applicable to such Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds to be reduced or withdrawn and (iii) received written consent from the Market Agent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, not less than three days nor more than 20 days prior to the effective date for such Auction Period. The Corporation will initiate an Auction Period Adjustment by giving written notice thereof in the form set forth in the Indenture to the Trustee, the Auction Agent, the Market Agent and the Securities Depository at least three days prior to the Auction Date for such Auction Period.

No Auction Period Adjustment may result in an Auction Period shorter than seven days or longer than one year.

If any Auction Period Adjustment will result in an Auction Period of less than 28 days, the notice described above will be effective only if it is accompanied by a written statement of the Trustee, the Auction Agent and the Securities Depository to the effect that they are capable of performing their duties, if any, under the Indenture, the Auction Agent Agreement and any Broker-Dealer Agreement with respect to such changed Auction Period.

No Auction Period Adjustment will be allowed unless Sufficient Clearing Bids existed or all Outstanding Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds were subject to Submitted Hold Orders at both the Auction immediately preceding the date on which the notice of the proposed change was given as described above and the Auction immediately preceding the proposed change.

An Auction Period Adjustment will take effect only if (A) the Trustee and the Auction Agent receive, by 11:00 a.m., eastern time, on the Business Day before the Auction Date for the first such changed Auction Period, a written consent from the Corporation authorizing an Auction Period Adjustment specified in such written consent, along with a copy of the written consent of the Market Agent and, if applicable, the written statement of the Trustee, the Auction Agent and the Securities Depository referred to above, and (B) Sufficient Clearing Bids exist or all Outstanding Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds were subject to Submitted Hold Orders at the Auction on the Auction Date for such first Auction Period. If the condition referred to in (A) is not met, the Auction Rate will be determined pursuant to the Auction Procedures and the length of the Auction Period will be determined without reference to the proposed change. If the condition referred to in (A) is met, but the condition referred to in (B) above is not met, the Auction Rate applicable for the next Auction Period will be the Maximum Rate and the length of the Auction Period will be the Auction Period determined without reference to the proposed change.

Changes in the Auction Date

So long as any of the Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds are Outstanding, the Market Agent, with the written consent of the Corporation, may specify an earlier Auction Date (but in no event more than five Business Days earlier) than the Auction Date that would otherwise be determined in accordance with the definition of "Auction Date" in APPENDIX B with respect to one or more specified Auction Periods in order to conform with then current market practice with respect to similar securities or to accommodate economic and financial factors that may affect or be relevant to the day of the week constituting an Auction Date and the interest rate borne by the Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds. The Corporation will not consent to such change in the Auction Date unless the Corporation shall have received from the Market Agent not less than three days nor more than 20 days prior to the effective date of such change a written request for consent together with a certificate demonstrating the need for change in reliance on such factors. The Market Agent will provide notice of its determination to specify an earlier Auction Date for one or more Auction Periods by means of a written notice delivered at least 10 days prior to the proposed changed Auction Date to the Trustee, the Auction Agent, the Corporation and the Securities Depository. Such notice will be substantially in the form of, or contain substantially the information specified in, the Indenture.

Changes in the Interest Payment Dates

The Corporation may change the Interest Payment Date with respect to a Series of the Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds in order to conform with then current market practice with respect to similar securities or to accommodate economic and financial factors that may affect or be relevant to the dates on which interest should be paid and the interest rate borne on the Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds. The Corporation shall not initiate such change in the Interest Payment Date unless it shall have received the written consent of the Market Agent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, not less than three days nor more than 20 days prior to the effective date of such change. The Corporation shall initiate the change in the Interest Payment Date of any Series of the Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds by giving written notice to the Trustee, the Auction Agent, the Market Agent and the Securities Depository in substantially the form set forth (or containing substantially the information required) in the Indenture at least 10 days prior to the Auction Date for such Auction Period.

A change in the Interest Payment Dates for any Series of the Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds shall not be allowed unless Sufficient Clearing Bids existed at both the Auction for such Series of the Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds before the date on which the notice of the proposed change was given as provided in the Indenture and the Auction for such Series of the Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds immediately succeeding the notice of the proposed change.

The changes in Auction terms described above may be made with respect to any Series of the Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds (but in such latter case separate notices will be prepared and delivered as provided above and, with respect to changes in the length of Auction Periods, the conditions specified above will be applied to each Series separately). In connection with any change in Auction terms described above, the Auction Agent will provide such further notice to such parties as is specified in the Auction Agent Agreement.

Additional Requirements

A change (a) in the length of one or more Auction Periods pursuant to an Auction Period Adjustment, (b) in the Auction Date or (c) in the Interest Payment Dates will not be allowed unless the Corporation receives (i) written confirmation from each Rating Agency that such change in the length of an Auction Period will not result in the withdrawal or reduction of its rating then applicable to any Obligation and (ii) an opinion of Bond Counsel in form and content acceptable to the Trustee to the effect that the proposed adjustment will not adversely affect the exclusion of interest on any of the Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds from gross income for federal income tax purposes pursuant to Section 103 of the Code.

Existing Holders and Potential Holders

Participants in each Auction will include: Existing Holders and Potential Holders.

By purchasing Auction Rate Taxable Notes, whether in an Auction or otherwise, each prospective purchaser of the Auction Rate Taxable Notes or its Broker-Dealer must agree and will be deemed to have agreed: (i) to participate in Auctions on the terms described in the Indenture; (ii) so long as the beneficial ownership of the Auction Rate Taxable Notes is maintained in Book-Entry Form to sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of Auction Rate Taxable Notes, only pursuant to a Bid or a Sell Order (each as defined below) in an Auction, or through a Broker-Dealer, provided that in the case of all transfers other than those pursuant to an Auction, the Existing Holder of Auction Rate Taxable Notes so transferred, its Participant or Broker-Dealer must advise the Auction Agent of such transfer; (iii) to have its beneficial ownership of the Auction Rate Taxable Notes maintained at all times in Book-Entry Form for the account of its Participant, which in turn will maintain records of such beneficial ownership, and to authorize such Participant to disclose to the Auction Agent such information with respect to such beneficial ownership as the Auction Agent may request; (iv) that a Sell Order placed by an Existing Holder will constitute an irrevocable offer to sell the principal amount of Auction Rate Taxable Notes specified in such Sell Order; (v) that a Bid placed by an Existing Holder will constitute an irrevocable offer to sell the principal amount of Auction Rate Taxable Notes specified in such Bid if the rate specified in such Bid is greater than, or in some cases equal to, the Auction Rate, determined in the Auction; (vi) that a Bid placed by a Potential Holder will constitute an irrevocable offer to purchase the principal amount, or a lesser principal amount, of the Auction Rate Taxable Notes specified in such Bid if the rate specified in such Bid is, respectively, less than or equal to the Auction Rate, determined in the Auction; and (vii) to tender its Auction Rate Taxable Notes for purchase at 100% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued but unpaid interest and unpaid Carry-over Amount, if any, and interest accrued thereon, on a Conversion Date.

The principal amount of the Auction Rate Taxable Notes purchased or sold may be subject to proration procedures on the Auction Date. Each purchase or sale of the Auction Rate Taxable Notes on the Auction Date will be made for settlement on the first day of the Auction Period immediately following such Auction Date at a price equal to 100% of the principal amount thereof plus accrued interest, if any. The Auction Agent is entitled to rely upon the terms of any Order submitted to it by a Broker-Dealer.

Auction Agent

Bankers Trust Company is appointed in the Indenture as Initial Auction Agent to serve as agent for the Corporation in connection with Auctions. The Corporation shall enter into the Initial Auction Agent Agreement with Bankers Trust Company, as the Initial Auction Agent. Any Substitute Auction Agent will be (i) a bank or trust company duly organized under the laws of the United States of America or any state or territory thereof having its principal place of business in the Borough of Manhattan, New York, or such other location as approved by the Trustee, the Corporation and the Market Agent in writing and having a combined capital stock or surplus of at least $50,000,000, or (ii) a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. having a capitalization of at least $50,000,000, and, in either case, authorized by law to perform all the duties imposed upon it under the Indenture and under the Auction Agent Agreement. The Auction Agent may at any time resign and be discharged of the duties and obligations created by the Indenture by giving at least 90 days' notice to the Trustee, the Corporation and the Market Agent. The Auction Agent may be removed at any time by the Corporation or the Holders of at least 66-2/3% of the aggregate principal amount of the Auction Rate Securities then Outstanding, and if by the Holders, by an instrument signed by such Holders or their attorneys and filed with the Auction Agent, the Corporation, the Trustee and the Market Agent upon at least 90 days' notice. Neither resignation nor removal of the Auction Agent pursuant to the preceding two sentences will be effective until and unless a Substitute Auction Agent has been appointed and has accepted such appointment. A Substitute Auction Agent Agreement will be entered into with a Substitute Auction Agent. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Auction Agent may terminate the Auction Agent Agreement if, within 30 days after notifying the Trustee, the Corporation and the Market Agent in writing that it has not received payment of any Auction Agent Fee due it in accordance with the terms of the Auction Agent Agreement, the Auction Agent does not receive such payment.

If the Auction Agent should resign or be removed or be dissolved, or if the property or affairs of the Auction Agent will be taken under the control of any state or federal court or administrative body because of bankruptcy or insolvency, or for any other reason the Corporation will use its best efforts to appoint a Substitute Auction Agent

The Auction Agent is acting as agent for the Corporation in connection with Auctions. In the absence of bad faith or negligence on its part, the Auction Agent will not be liable for any action taken, suffered or omitted or any error of judgment made by it in the performance of its duties under the Auction Agent Agreement and will not be liable for any error of judgment made in good faith unless the Auction Agent will have been negligent in ascertaining (or failing to ascertain) the pertinent facts necessary to make such judgment.

The Trustee will pay the Auction Agent the Auction Agent Fee in accordance with the Auction Agent Agreement and will reimburse the Auction Agent upon its request for all reasonable expenses, disbursements and advances incurred or made by the Auction Agent in accordance with any provision of the Auction Agent Agreement or the Broker-Dealer Agreements (including the reasonable compensation and the expenses and disbursements of its agents and counsel). Such amounts are payable from the Revenue Account. The Corporation will indemnify and hold harmless the Auction Agent for and against any loss, liability or expense incurred without negligence or bad faith on the Auction Agent's part, arising out of or in connection with its agency under the Auction Agent Agreement and the Broker-Dealer Agreements including the reasonable costs and expenses (including the reasonable fees and expenses of its counsel) of defending itself against any such claim or liability in connection with its exercise or performance of any of its duties under the Indenture, the Auction Agent Agreement and the Broker-Dealer Agreements and of enforcing this indemnification provision; provided that the Corporation will not indemnify the Auction Agent as described in this paragraph for any fees and expenses incurred by the Auction Agent in the normal course of performing its duties under the Auction Agent Agreement and under the Broker-Dealer Agreements, such fees and expenses being payable as described above.

Broker-Dealer

Existing Holders and Potential Holders may participate in Auctions only by submitting orders (in the manner described below) through a "Broker-Dealer", including Salomon Smith Barney Inc. as the sole initial Broker-Dealer or any other broker or dealer (each as defined in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended), commercial bank or other entity permitted by law to perform the functions required of a Broker-Dealer set forth below which (i) is a Participant or an affiliate of a Participant, (ii) has been selected by the Corporation and (iii) has entered into a Broker-Dealer Agreement with the Auction Agent that remains effective, in which the Broker-Dealer agrees to participate in Auctions as described in the Auction Procedures, as from time to time amended or supplemented.

The Broker-Dealers are entitled to a Broker-Dealer Fee, which is payable by the Auction Agent from moneys received from the Trustee.

Market Agent

Under the Market Agent Agreement, and in connection with the Auction Rate Taxable Notes, the "Market Agent", initially Salomon Smith Barney Inc., will act solely as agent of the Corporation and will not assume any obligation or relationship of agency or trust for or with any of the Beneficial Owners. The Initial Market Agent will not receive any compensation for the performance of its duties under the Market Agent Agreement.

Auction Procedures

General

Auctions to establish the Auction Rate for the Auction Rate Taxable Notes will be held on each Auction Date, except as described under "DESCRIPTION OF THE OFFERED OBLIGATIONS - Interest Rates on the Offered Obligations" by application of the Auction Procedures described in the Indenture. For a period beginning on the date of initial delivery thereof and ending on a specified number of days thereafter, inclusive, each Series of Auction Rate Taxable Notes will bear interest at the interest rate determined generally on the Business Day immediately preceding such delivery date. Thereafter, the "Auction Date" means, with respect to the Auction Rate Taxable Notes, the Business Day immediately preceding the first day of each Auction Period, other than: (i) an Auction Period which commences on a Conversion Date; (ii) each Auction Period commencing after the ownership of such Auction Rate Taxable Notes is no longer maintained in Book-entry Form; (iii) each Auction Period commencing after and during the continuance of a Payment Default; or (iv) any Auction Period commencing less than two Business Days after the cure or waiver of a Payment Default. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Auction Date for one or more Auction Periods may be changed as described below under "Changes in Auction Terms".

Calculation of Net Loan Rate, Maximum Rate, All-Hold Rate, the Applicable LIBOR-Based Rate and the Non-Payment Rate

The Auction Agent will calculate the Base Net Loan Rate, the Maximum Rate, the All-Hold Rate, and the Applicable LIBOR-Based Rate on each Auction Date. Upon receipt of notice from the Trustee of a failed Conversion as described in the Indenture, the Auction Agent will calculate the Maximum Rate and the Net Loan Rate as of such failed Conversion Date and give notice thereof as provided and to the parties specified in the Auction Agent Agreement. If the ownership of the Auction Rate Taxable Notes is no longer maintained in Book-Entry Form, the Trustee will calculate the Maximum Rate and the Net Loan Rate on the Business Day immediately preceding each Auction Rate Adjustment Date after delivery of certificates representing the Auction Rate Taxable Notes. If a Payment Default has occurred, the Trustee will calculate the Non-Payment Rate on the first day of (i) each Auction Period commencing after the occurrence and during the continuance of such Payment Default and (ii) any Auction Period commencing less than two Business Days after the cure of any Payment Default. The Auction Agent will determine the Base Net Loan Rate and the Net Loan Rate for each Auction Period; provided, that, if a Payment Default has occurred, then the Trustee will determine the Base Net Loan Rate and the Net Loan Rate for each such Auction Period. The determination by the Trustee or the Auction Agent, as the case may be, of the Applicable LIBOR-Based Rate, the Net Loan Rate, the Base Net Loan Rate, the Maximum Rate and the Non-Payment Rate will (in the absence of manifest error) be final and binding upon the Registered Owners and all other parties. If calculated or determined by the Auction Agent, the Auction Agent will promptly advise the Trustee of the Applicable LIBOR-Based Rate. If calculated or determined by the Auction Agent, the Auction Agent shall promptly advise the Trustee and the Corporation of the Maximum Rate, the All Hold Rate, the Non-Payment Rate, the Applicable LIBOR-Based Rate, the Base Net Loan Rate and the Net Loan Rate.

If the Market Agent has advised the Corporation and the Trustee, not later than the third Business Day prior to an Auction Date, that the interest rate per annum established in an auction of securities comparable to the Auction Rate Taxable Notes during the seven day period preceding such notice exceeded the Base Net Loan Rate, computed as though the date of auction of such comparable securities was an Auction Date hereunder, the Corporation will calculate the Adjusted Net Loan Rate and give notice to the Auction Agent and the Trustee specifying such Adjusted Net Loan Rate, not later than the Business Day prior to such Auction Date.

If Sufficient Clearing Bids have not been received (other than because all of such Auction Rate Taxable Notes were subject to Hold Orders) at the immediately preceding Auction, the Corporation will calculate the Adjusted Net Loan Rate and give notice to the Auction Agent and the Trustee specifying such Adjusted Net Loan Rate, not later than the Business Day prior to the next Auction Date.

The determination by the Corporation of the Adjusted Net Loan Rate will (in the absence of manifest error) be final and binding upon the Registered Owners and all other parties.

Submission of Orders

An Existing Holder may sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of Auction Rate Taxable Notes only (i) pursuant to a Bid or Sell Order placed in an Auction or (ii) through a Broker-Dealer, provided that, in the case of all transfers other than pursuant to Auctions, such Existing Holder, its Broker-Dealer or its Participant advises the Auction Agent of such transfer. Prior to a Conversion Date, Auctions for each Series of Auction Rate Taxable Notes will be conducted on each Auction Date for such Series, if there is an Auction Agent on such Auction Date, in the following manner (such procedures apply separately to each Series of the Auction Rate Taxable Notes).

Prior to the Submission Deadline (defined as 12:30 p.m., eastern time, on any Auction Date or such other time on any Auction Date by which Broker-Dealers are required to submit Orders to the Auction Agent as specified by the Auction Agent from time to time) on each Auction Date:

(a) each Existing Holder of Auction Rate Taxable Notes may submit to a Broker-Dealer by telephone or otherwise information as to: (i) the principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Taxable Notes, if any, held by such Existing Holder which such Existing Holder desires to continue to hold without regard to the Auction Rate for the next succeeding Auction Period (a "Hold Order"); (ii) the principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Taxable Notes, if any, which such Existing Holder offers to sell if the Auction Rate for the next succeeding Auction Period will be less than the rate per annum specified by such Existing Holder (a "Bid"); and/or (iii) the principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Taxable Notes, if any, held by such Existing Holder which such Existing Holder offers to sell without regard to the Auction Rate for the next succeeding Auction Period (a "Sell Order"); and

(b) one or more Broker-Dealers may contact Potential Holders to determine the principal amount of Auction Rate Taxable Notes which each such Potential Holder offers to purchase, if the Auction Rate for the next succeeding Auction Period will not be less than the rate per annum specified by such Potential Holder (also a "Bid").

Each Hold Order, Bid and Sell Order will be an "Order". Each Existing Holder and each Potential Holder placing an Order is referred to as a "Bidder".

Subject to the provisions described below under "Validity of Orders", a Bid by an Existing Holder will constitute an irrevocable offer to sell: (i) the principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Taxable Notes specified in such Bid if the Auction Rate will be less than the rate specified in such Bid, (ii) such principal amount or a lesser principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Taxable Notes to be determined as described below under "Acceptance and Rejection of Orders", if the Auction Rate will be equal to the rate specified in such Bid or (iii) such principal amount or a lesser principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Taxable Notes to be determined as described below under "Acceptance and Rejection of Orders", if the rate specified therein will be higher than the Maximum Rate and Sufficient Clearing Bids (as defined below) have not been made.

Subject to the provisions described below under "Validity of Orders", a Sell Order by an Existing Holder will constitute an irrevocable offer to sell: (i) the principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Taxable Notes specified in such Sell Order or (ii) such principal amount or a lesser principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Taxable Notes as described below under "Acceptance and Rejection of Orders", if Sufficient Clearing Bids have not been made.

Subject to the provisions described below under "Validity of Orders", a Bid by a Potential Holder will constitute an irrevocable offer to purchase: (i) the principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Taxable Notes specified in such Bid if the Auction Rate will be higher than the rate specified in such Bid or (ii) such principal amount or a lesser principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Taxable Notes as described below in "Acceptance and Rejection of Orders", if the Auction Rate is equal to the rate specified in such Bid.

Each Broker-Dealer will submit in writing to the Auction Agent prior to the Submission Deadline on each Auction Date all Orders obtained by such Broker-Dealer and will specify with respect to each such Order: (i) the name of the Bidder placing such Order; (ii) the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Taxable Notes that are the subject of such Order; (iii) to the extent that such Bidder is an Existing Holder: (a) the principal amount of Auction Rate Taxable Notes, if any, subject to any Hold Order placed by such Existing Holder; (b) the principal amount of Auction Rate Taxable Notes, if any, subject to any Bid placed by such Existing Holder and the rate specified in such Bid; and (c) the principal amount of Auction Rate Taxable Notes, if any, subject to any Sell Order placed by such Existing Holder; and (iv) to the extent such Bidder is a Potential Holder, the rate specified in such Potential Holder's Bid.

If any rate specified in any Bid contains more than three figures to the right of the decimal point, the Auction Agent will round such rate up to the next higher one-thousandth (.001) of one percent.

If an Order or Orders covering all Outstanding Auction Rate Taxable Notes held by any Existing Holder are not submitted to the Auction Agent prior to the Submission Deadline, the Auction Agent will deem a Hold Order to have been submitted on behalf of such Existing Holder covering the principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Taxable Notes held by such Existing Holder and not subject to an Order submitted to the Auction Agent.

Neither the Corporation, the Trustee nor the Auction Agent will be responsible for any failure of a Broker-Dealer to submit an Order to the Auction Agent on behalf of any Existing Holder or Potential Holder.

An Existing Holder may submit multiple Orders, of different types and specifying different rates, in an Auction with respect to Auction Rate Taxable Notes then held by such Existing Holder. An Existing Holder that offers to purchase additional Auction Rate Taxable Notes is, for purposes of such offer, treated as a Potential Holder.

Any Bid specifying a rate higher than the Maximum Rate will (i) be treated as a Sell Order if submitted by a Existing Holder and (ii) not be accepted if submitted by a Potential Holder.

Validity of Orders

If any Existing Holder submits through a Broker-Dealer to the Auction Agent one or more Orders covering in the aggregate more than the principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Taxable Notes held by such Existing Holder, such Orders will be considered valid as follows and in the following order of priority:

Hold Orders. All Hold Orders will be considered valid, but only up to the aggregate principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Taxable Notes held by such Existing Holder, and if the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Taxable Notes subject to such Hold Orders exceeds the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Taxable Notes held by such Existing Holder, the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Taxable Notes subject to each such Hold Order will be reduced pro rata so that the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Taxable Notes subject to all such Hold Orders equals the aggregate principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Taxable Notes held by such Existing Holder.

Bids. Any Bid will be considered valid up to an amount equal to the excess of the principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Taxable Notes held by such Existing Holder over the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Taxable Notes subject to any Hold Orders referred to above. Subject to the preceding sentence, if multiple Bids with the same rate are submitted on behalf of such Existing Holder and the aggregate principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Taxable Notes subject to such Bids is greater than such excess, such Bids will be considered valid up to the amount of such excess. Subject to the two preceding sentences, if more than one Bid with different rates is submitted on behalf of such Existing Holder, such Bids will be considered valid first in the ascending order of their respective rates until the highest rate is reached at which such excess exists and then at such rate up to the amount of such excess. In any event, the amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Taxable Notes, if any, subject to Bids not valid under the provisions described above will be treated as the subject of a Bid by a Potential Holder at the rate therein specified.

Sell Orders. All Sell Orders will be considered valid up to the amount of such excess of the principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Taxable Notes held by such Existing Holder over the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Taxable Notes subject to valid Hold Orders and valid Bids as referred to above.

If more than one Bid for Auction Rate Taxable Notes is submitted on behalf of any Potential Holder, each Bid submitted will be a separate Bid with the rate and principal amount therein specified. Any Bid or Sell Order submitted by an Existing Holder covering an aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Taxable Notes not equal to an Authorized Denomination will be rejected and will be deemed a Hold Order with respect to all Auction Rate Taxable Notes held by such Existing Holder, subject to any valid Bids or Sell Orders submitted by such Existing Holder. Any Bid submitted by a Potential Holder covering an aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Taxable Notes not equal to an Authorized Denomination will be rejected.

A Hold Order, a Bid or a Sell Order that has been determined valid pursuant to the procedures described above is referred to as a "Submitted Hold Order", a "Submitted Bid" and a "Submitted Sell Order", respectively (collectively, "Submitted Orders").

Determination of Sufficient Clearing Bids and Winning Bid Rate

Not earlier than the Submission Deadline on each Auction Date, the Auction Agent will assemble all valid Submitted Orders and will determine:

(a) the excess of the total principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Taxable Notes over the sum of the aggregate principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Taxable Notes subject to Submitted Hold Orders (such excess being hereinafter referred to as the "Available Auction Rate Taxable Notes"); and

(b) from such Submitted Orders whether the aggregate principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Taxable Notes subject to Submitted Bids by Potential Holders specifying one or more rates equal to or lower than the Maximum Rate exceeds or is equal to the sum of (i) the aggregate principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Taxable Notes subject to Submitted Bids by Existing Holders specifying one or more rates higher than the Maximum Rate and (ii) the aggregate principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Taxable Notes subject to Submitted Sell Orders (in the event such excess or such equality exists other than because all of the Outstanding Auction Rate Taxable Notes are subject to Submitted Hold Orders, such Submitted Bids by Potential Holders described above will be hereinafter referred to collectively as "Sufficient Clearing Bids"); and

(c) if Sufficient Clearing Bids exist, the "Winning Bid Rate" will be the lowest rate specified in such Submitted Bids such that if:

(i) each such Submitted Bid from Existing Holders specifying such lowest rate and all other Submitted Bids from Existing Holders specifying lower rates were rejected (thus entitling such Existing Holders to continue to hold the principal amount of Auction Rate Taxable Notes subject to such Submitted Bids); and

(ii) each such Submitted Bid from Potential Holders specifying such lowest rate and all other Submitted Bids from Potential Holders specifying lower rates, were accepted,

the result would be that such Existing Holders described in subparagraph (i) above would continue to hold an aggregate principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Taxable Notes which, when added to the aggregate principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Taxable Notes to be purchased by such Potential Holders described in subparagraph (ii) above, would equal not less than the Available Auction Rate Taxable Notes.

Notice of Auction Rate

Promptly after the Auction Agent has made the determinations described above, the Auction Agent will advise the Trustee and the Corporation of the Net Loan Rate, the Applicable LIBOR-Based Rate, the Maximum Rate, and the All-Hold Rate and the components thereof on the Auction Date, and based on such determinations, the Auction Rate for the next succeeding Auction Period as follows:

(a) if Sufficient Clearing Bids exist, that the Auction Rate for the next succeeding Auction Period will be equal to the Winning Bid Rate so determined;

(b) if Sufficient Clearing Bids do not exist (other than because all of the Outstanding Auction Rate Taxable Notes are subject to Submitted Hold Orders), that the Auction Rate for the next succeeding Auction Period will be equal to the Maximum Rate; or

(c) if all Outstanding Auction Rate Taxable Notes are subject to Submitted Hold Orders, that the Auction Rate for the next succeeding Auction Period will be equal to the All-Hold Rate.

In the event that the Auction Rate with respect of a Series of Auction Rate Taxable Rates is greater than the Net Loan Rate, the Auction Agent shall also, promptly after determining the Auction Rate, advise the Trustee of the Net Loan Rate and that the interest rate on the Auction Rate Obligations will be the Net Loan Rate.

Not later than the second Business Day of each Auction Period, the Trustee will notify the Registered Owners of the Auction Rate Taxable Notes of the Auction Rate or other rate of interest applicable to such Auction Period.

Acceptance and Rejection of Orders

Existing Holders will continue to hold the principal amount of Auction Rate Taxable Notes that are subject to Submitted Hold Orders. Submitted Bids and Submitted Sell Orders will be accepted or rejected and the Auction Agent will take such other action as set forth below:

Sufficient Clearing Bids. If Sufficient Clearing Bids have been made and the Net Loan Rate is equal to or greater than the Winning Bid Rate (in which case the Interest Rate on the Auction Rate Taxable Notes for the Auction Period will be the Winning Bid Rate), all Submitted Sell Orders will be accepted and, subject to the denomination requirements described below, Submitted Bids will be accepted or rejected as follows in the following order of priority and all other Submitted Bids will be rejected:

(a) Existing Holders' Submitted Bids specifying any rate that is higher than the Winning Bid Rate will be accepted, thus requiring each such Existing Holder to sell the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Taxable Notes subject to such Submitted Bids;

(b) Existing Holders' Submitted Bids specifying any rate that is lower than the Winning Bid Rate will be rejected, thus entitling each such Existing Holder to continue to hold the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Taxable Notes subject to such Submitted Bids;

(c) Potential Holders' Submitted Bids specifying any rate that is lower than the Winning Bid Rate will be accepted;

(d) Each Existing Holder's Submitted Bid specifying a rate that is equal to the Winning Bid Rate will be rejected, thus entitling such Existing Holder to continue to hold the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Taxable Notes subject to such Submitted Bid, unless the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Taxable Notes subject to such Submitted Bids will be greater than the principal amount of Auction Rate Taxable

Notes (the "remaining principal amount") equal to the excess of the Available Auction Rate Taxable Notes over the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Taxable Notes subject to Submitted Bids described in subparagraphs (b) and (c) above, in which event such Submitted Bid of such Existing Holder will be rejected in part and such Existing Holder will be entitled to continue to hold the principal amount of Auction Rate Taxable Notes subject to such Submitted Bid, but only in an amount equal to the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Taxable Notes obtained by multiplying the remaining principal amount by a fraction, the numerator of which will be the principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Taxable Notes held by such Existing Holder subject to such Submitted Bid and the denominator of which will be the sum of the principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Taxable Notes subject to such Submitted Bids made by all such Existing Holders that specified a rate equal to the Winning Bid Rate;

(e) Each Potential Holder's Submitted Bid specifying a rate that is equal to the Winning Bid Rate will be accepted, but only in an amount equal to the principal amount of Auction Rate Taxable Notes obtained by multiplying the excess of the aggregate principal amount of Available Auction Rate Taxable Notes over the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Taxable Notes subject to Submitted Bids described in subparagraphs (b), (c) and (d) above by a fraction, the numerator of which will be the aggregate principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Taxable Notes subject to such Submitted Bid and the denominator of which will be the sum of the principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Taxable Notes subject to Submitted Bids made by all such Potential Holders that specified a rate equal to the Winning Bid Rate; and

(f) Each Potential Holder's Submitted Bid specifying a rate that is higher than the Winning Bid Rate will be rejected.

Insufficient Clearing Bids. If Sufficient Clearing Bids have not been made (other than because all of the Outstanding Auction Rate Taxable Notes are subject to Submitted Hold Orders), subject to the denomination requirements described below, Submitted Orders will be accepted or rejected as follows in the following order of priority and all other Submitted Bids will be rejected:

(a) Existing Holders' Submitted Bids specifying any rate that is equal to or lower than the Maximum Rate will be rejected, thus entitling such Existing Holders to continue to hold the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Taxable Notes subject to such Submitted Bids;

(b) Potential Holders' Submitted Bids specifying any rate that is equal to or lower than the Maximum Rate will be accepted, and specifying any rate that is higher than the Maximum Rate will be rejected; and

(c) each Existing Holder's Submitted Bid specifying any rate that is higher than the Maximum Rate and the Submitted Sell Order of each Existing Holder will be accepted, thus entitling each Existing Holder that submitted any such Submitted Bid or Submitted Sell Order to sell the Auction Rate Taxable Notes subject to such Submitted Bid or Submitted Sell Order, but in both cases only in an amount equal to the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Taxable Notes obtained by multiplying the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Taxable Notes subject to Submitted Bids described in subparagraph (b) above by a fraction, the numerator of which will be the aggregate principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Taxable Notes held by such Existing Holder subject to such Submitted Bid or Submitted Sell Order and the denominator of which will be the aggregate principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Taxable Notes subject to all such Submitted Bids and Submitted Sell Orders.

All Hold Orders. If all Outstanding Auction Rate Taxable Notes are subject to Submitted Hold Orders, all Submitted Bids will be rejected.

Authorized Denominations Requirement. If, as a result of the procedures described above regarding Sufficient Clearing Bids and Insufficient Clearing Bids, any Existing Holder would be entitled or required to sell, or any Potential Holder would be entitled or required to purchase, a principal amount of Auction Rate Taxable Notes that is not equal to an Authorized Denomination, the Auction Agent will, in such manner as in its sole discretion it will determine, round up or down the principal amount of Auction Rate Taxable Notes to be purchased or sold by any Existing Holder or Potential Holder so that the principal amount of Auction Rate Taxable Notes purchased or sold by each Existing Holder or Potential Holder will be equal to an Authorized Denomination.

If, as a result of the procedures described above regarding Sufficient Clearing Bids or Insufficient Clearing Bids, any Potential Holder would be entitled or required to purchase a principal amount of Auction Rate Taxable Notes which is not in an Authorized Denomination, the Auction Agent will, in such manner as in its sole discretion it will determine, allocate Auction Rate Taxable Notes for purchase among Potential Holders so that only Auction Rate Taxable Notes in an Authorized Denomination are purchased by any Potential Holder, even if such allocation results in one or more of such Potential Holders not purchasing any Auction Rate Taxable Notes.

Based on the results of each Auction, the Auction Agent will determine the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Taxable Notes to be purchased and the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Taxable Notes to be sold by Potential Holders and Existing Holders on whose behalf each Broker-Dealer submitted Bids or Sell Orders and, with respect to each Broker-Dealer, to the extent that such aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Taxable Notes to be sold differs from such aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Taxable Notes to be purchased, determine to which other Broker-Dealer or Broker-Dealers acting for one or more purchasers such Broker-Dealer will deliver, or from which Broker-Dealers acting for one or more sellers such Broker-Dealer will receive, as the case may be, Auction Rate Taxable Notes.

The Corporation may not submit an Order in any Auction.

Any calculation by the Auction Agent (or the Trustee, if applicable) of the Auction Rate, the Applicable LIBOR-Based Rate, the Maximum Rate, the All-Hold Rate, the Net Loan Rate and the Non-Payment Rate will, in the absence of manifest error, be binding on all other parties.

Settlement Procedures

The Auction Agent is required to advise each Broker-Dealer that submitted an Order in an Auction of the Auction Rate for the next Auction Period, whether there were Sufficient Clearing Bids in such Auction and, if such Order was a Bid or Sell Order, whether such Bid or Sell Order was accepted or rejected, in whole or in part, by telephone not later than 3:00 p.m., eastern time, on the Auction Date if the interest rate is the Auction Rate and not later than 4:00 p.m., eastern time, on the Auction Date if the interest rate is the Net Loan Rate. Each Broker-Dealer that submitted an Order on behalf of a Bidder is required to then advise such Bidder of the Auction Rate for the next Auction Period and if such Order was a Bid or a Sell Order, whether such Bid or Sell Order was accepted or rejected, in whole or in part, confirm purchases and sales with each Bidder purchasing or selling Auction Rate Taxable Notes as a result of the Auction and advise each Bidder purchasing or selling Auction Rate Taxable Notes as a result of the Auction to give instructions to its Participant to pay the purchase price against delivery of such Auction Rate Taxable Notes or to deliver such Auction Rate Taxable Notes against payment therefor, as appropriate. Pursuant to the Auction Agent Agreement, the Auction Agent will record each transfer of Auction Rate Taxable Notes on the Existing Holder Registry to be maintained by the Auction Agent.

In accordance with DTC's normal procedures, on the Business Day after the Auction Date, the transactions described above will be executed through DTC, so long as DTC is the Securities Depository, and the accounts of the respective Participants at DTC will be debited and credited and Auction Rate Taxable Notes delivered as necessary to effect the purchases and sales of Auction Rate Taxable Notes as determined in the Auction. Purchasers are required to make payment through their Participants in same-day funds to DTC against delivery through their Participants. DTC will make payment in accordance with its normal procedures, which now provide for payment against delivery by its Participants in immediately available funds.

If any Existing Holder selling Auction Rate Taxable Notes in an Auction fails to deliver such Auction Rate Taxable Notes, the Broker-Dealer of any person that was to have purchased Auction Rate Taxable Notes in such Auction may deliver to such person a principal amount of Auction Rate Taxable Notes that is less than the principal amount of Auction Rate Taxable Notes that otherwise was to be purchased by such person but in any event equal to an Authorized Denomination. In such event, the principal amount of Auction Rate Taxable Notes to be delivered will be determined by such Broker-Dealer. Delivery of such lesser principal amount of Auction Rate Taxable Notes will constitute good delivery. Neither the Trustee nor the Auction Agent will have any responsibility or liability with respect to the failure of a Potential Holder, Existing Holder or their respective Broker-Dealer or Participant to deliver the principal amount of Auction Rate Taxable Notes or to pay for the Auction Rate Taxable Notes purchased or sold pursuant to an Auction or otherwise. For a further description of the settlement procedures, see APPENDIX F, "SETTLEMENT PROCEDURES FOR AUCTION RATE TAX-EXEMPT BONDS AND AUCTION RATE TAXABLE NOTES".

Trustee and Corporation Not Responsible for Auction Agent, Market Agent and Broker-Dealers

Neither the Trustee nor the Corporation will be liable or responsible for the actions of or failure to act by the Auction Agent, the Market Agent or any Broker-Dealer under the Indenture or under the Auction Agent Agreement, the Market Agent Agreement or any Broker-Dealer Agreement. The Trustee and the Corporation may conclusively rely upon any information required to be furnished by the Auction Agent, the Market Agent or any Broker-Dealer without undertaking any independent review or investigation of the truth or accuracy of such information.

Changes in Auction Terms

Changes in Auction Period or Periods

While any of the Auction Rate Taxable Notes are Outstanding, the Corporation, from time to time, may change the length of one or more Auction Periods in order to conform with then current market practice with respect to similar securities or to accommodate economic and financial factors that may affect or be relevant to the length of the Auction Period and the interest rate borne by the Auction Rate Taxable Notes (an "Auction Period Adjustment"). The Corporation will not initiate such change in the length of the Auction Period unless it will have (i) provided each Rating Agency with a Cash Flow Certificate, (ii) received written confirmation from each Rating Agency that the change in the Auction Period will not cause any rating or ratings applicable to such Auction Rate Taxable Notes to be reduced or withdrawn, and (iii) received written consent from the Market Agent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, not less than three days nor more than 20 days prior to the effective date for such Auction Period. The Corporation will initiate an Auction Period Adjustment by giving written notice thereof in the form set forth in the Indenture to the Trustee, the Auction Agent, the Market Agent and the Securities Depository at least three days prior to the Auction Date for such Auction Period.

No Auction Period Adjustment may result in an Auction Period shorter than seven days or longer than one year.

If any Auction Period Adjustment will result in an Auction Period of less than 28 days, the notice described above will be effective only if it is accompanied by a written statement of the Trustee, the Auction Agent and the Securities Depository to the effect that they are capable of performing their duties, if any, under the Indenture, the Auction Agent Agreement and any Broker-Dealer Agreement with respect to such changed Auction Period.

No Auction Period Adjustment will be allowed unless Sufficient Clearing Bids existed (or all Outstanding Auction Rate Taxable Notes were subject to Submitted Hold Orders) at both the Auction immediately preceding the date on which the notice of the proposed change was given as described above and the Auction immediately preceding the proposed change.

An Auction Period Adjustment will take effect only if (A) the Trustee and the Auction Agent receive, by 11:00 A.M., eastern time, on the Business Day before the Auction Date for the first such Auction Period, a written consent from the Corporation authorizing an Auction Period Adjustment specified in such written consent, along with a copy of the written consent of the Market Agent and, if applicable, the written statement of the Trustee, the Auction Agent and the Securities Depository referred to above, and (B) Sufficient Clearing Bids exist (or all Outstanding Auction Rate Taxable Notes were subject to Submitted Hold Orders) at the Auction on the Auction Date for such first Auction Period. If the condition referred to in (A) is not met, the Auction Rate applicable for the next Auction Period will be determined pursuant to the Auction Procedures and the length of the Auction Period will be the Auction Period determined without reference to the proposed change. If the condition referred to in (A) is met, but the condition referred to in (B) above is not met, the Auction Rate will be the Maximum Rate and the length of the Auction Period will be the Auction Period determined without reference to the proposed change.

Changes in the Auction Date

So long as any Auction Rate Taxable Notes are Outstanding, the Market Agent, with the written consent of the Corporation, may specify an earlier Auction Date (but in no event more than five Business Days earlier) than the Auction Date that would otherwise be determined in accordance with the definition of "Auction Date" in APPENDIX B with respect to one or more specified Auction Periods in order to conform with then current market practice with respect to similar securities or to accommodate economic and financial factors that may affect or be relevant to the day of the week constituting an Auction Date and the interest rate borne by the Auction Rate Taxable Notes. The Corporation will not consent to such change in the Auction Date unless the Corporation shall have received from the Market Agent not less than 3 days nor more than 20 days prior to the effective date of such change a written request for consent together with a certificate demonstrating the need for change in reliance on such factors. The Market Agent will provide notice of its determination to specify an earlier Auction Date for one or more Auction Periods by means of a written notice delivered at least 10 days prior to the proposed changed Auction Date to the Trustee, the Auction Agent, the Corporation, and the Securities Depository. Such notice will be substantially in the form of, or contain substantially the information specified in, the Indenture.

Changes in the Interest Payment Dates

The Corporation may change the Interest Payment Date with respect to a Series of the Auction Rate Taxable Notes in order to conform with then current market practice with respect to similar securities or to accommodate economic and financial factors that may affect or be relevant to the dates on which interest should be paid and the interest rate borne on the Auction Rate Taxable Notes. The Corporation shall not initiate such change in the Interest Payment Date unless it shall have received the written consent of the Market Agent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, not less than three days nor more than 20 days prior to the effective date of such change. The Corporation shall initiate the change in the Interest Payment Date of any Series of the Auction Rate Taxable Notes by giving written notice to the Trustee, the Auction Agent, the Market Agent and the Securities Depository in substantially the form set forth (or containing substantially the information required) in the Indenture at least 10 days prior to the Auction Date for such Auction Period.

A change in the Interest Payment Dates for any Series of the Auction Rate Taxable Notes shall not be allowed unless Sufficient Clearing Bids existed at both the Auction for such Series of the Auction Rate Taxable Notes before the date on which the notice of the proposed change was given as provided in the Indenture and the Auction for such Series of the Auction Rate Taxable Notes immediately succeeding the notice of the proposed change.

The changes in Auction terms described above may be made with respect to any Series of the Auction Rate Taxable Notes (but in such latter case separate notices will be prepared and delivered as provided above and, with respect to changes in the length of Auction Periods, the conditions specified above will be applied to each Series separately). In connection with any change in Auction terms described above, the Auction Agent will provide such further notice to such parties as is specified in the Auction Agent Agreement.

Additional Requirements

A change (a) in the length of one or more Auction Periods pursuant to an Auction Period Adjustment, (b) in the Auction Date or (c) in the Interest Payment Dates will not be allowed unless the Corporation receives (i) written confirmation from each Rating Agency that such change in the length of an Auction Period will not result in the withdrawal or reduction of its rating then applicable to any Obligation and (ii) an opinion of Bond Counsel in form and content acceptable to the Trustee to the effect that the proposed adjustment will not adversely affect the exclusion of interest on any of the Auction Rate Tax-Exempt Bonds from gross income for federal income tax purposes pursuant to Section 103 of the Code.

(iii) in the case of a Broker-Dealer that is a Seller's Broker-Dealer, instruct each Existing Holder on whose behalf such Seller's Broker-Dealer submitted a Sell Order that was accepted, in whole or in part, or a Bid that was accepted, in whole or in part, to instruct such Existing Holder's Participant to deliver to such Seller's Broker-Dealer (or its Participant) through the Securities Depository the principal amount of Auction Rate Securities to be sold pursuant to such Order against payment therefor;

(c) On the basis of the information provided to it pursuant to paragraph (a) above, each Broker-Dealer that submitted a Bid or Sell Order in an Auction is required to allocate any funds received by it in connection with such Auction pursuant to paragraph (b)(ii) above, and any Auction Rate Securities received by it in connection with such Auction pursuant to paragraph (b)(iii) above, among the Potential Holders, if any, on whose behalf such Broker-Dealer submitted Bids, the Existing Holders, if any, on whose behalf such Broker-Dealer submitted Bids or Sell Orders in such Auction, and any Broker-Dealers identified to it by the Auction Agent following such Auction pursuant to paragraph (a)(v) or (a)(vi) above.

(i) each Potential Holder and Existing Holder with an Order in the Auction on such Auction Date will instruct its Participant as provided in (b)(ii) or (b)(iii) above, as the case may be;

Securities Depository to a Buyer's Broker-Dealer (or its Participant) identified to such Seller's Broker-Dealer pursuant to (a)(v) above against payment therefor; and

(iii) each Buyer's Broker-Dealer that is not an Participant in the Securities Depository will instruct its Participant to pay through the Securities Depository to the Seller's Broker-Dealer (or its Participant) identified following such Auction pursuant to (a)(vi) above the amount necessary, including accrued interest, if any, to purchase the Auction Rate Securities to be purchased pursuant to (b)(ii) above against receipt of such Auction Rate Securities.

(e) On the Business Day following each Auction Date:

(i) each Participant for a Bidder in the Auction on such Auction Date referred to in (d)(i) above will instruct the Securities Depository to execute the transactions described under (b)(ii) or (b)(iii) above for such Auction, and the Securities Depository will execute such transactions;

(ii) each Seller's Broker-Dealer or its Participant will instruct the Securities Depository to execute the transactions described in (d)(ii) above for such Auction, and the Securities Depository will execute such transactions; and

(iii) each Buyer's Broker-Dealer or its Participant will instruct the Securities Depository to execute the transactions described in (d)(iii) above for such Auction, and the Securities Depository will execute such transactions.

(f) If an Existing Holder selling Auction Rate Securities in an Auction fails to deliver such Auction Rate Securities (by authorized book-entry), a Broker-Dealer may deliver to the Potential Holder on behalf of which it submitted a Bid that was accepted a principal amount of Auction Rate Securities that is less than the principal amount of Auction Rate Securities that otherwise was to be purchased by such Potential Holder. In such event, the principal amount of Auction Rate Securities to be so delivered will be determined solely by such Broker-Dealer (but only in Authorized Denominations). Delivery of such lesser principal amount of Auction Rate Securities will constitute good delivery. Notwithstanding the foregoing terms of this paragraph (f), any delivery or nondelivery of Auction Rate Securities which will represent any departure from the results of an Auction, as determined by the Auction Agent, will be of no effect unless and until the Auction Agent will have been notified of such delivery or nondelivery in accordance with the provisions of the Auction Agent Agreement and the Broker-Dealer Agreements. Neither the Trustee nor the Auction Agent will have any responsibility or liability with respect to the failure of a Potential Holder, Existing Holder or their respective Broker-Dealer or Participant to take delivery of or deliver, as the case may be, the principal amount of the Auction Rate Securities or to pay for the Auction Rate Securities purchased or sold pursuant to an Auction or otherwise.

APPENDIX G

CASH FLOW ASSUMPTIONS AND OTHER CONSIDERATIONS

HOLDERS SHOULD CONSIDER THE FACTORS BELOW IN LIGHT OF THE PAYMENT PRIORITIES OF THE SENIOR OBLIGATIONS, ANY ADDITIONAL SENIOR OBLIGATIONS AND AMOUNTS DUE TO ANY OTHER SENIOR BENEFICIARIES OVER THE SUBORDINATE OBLIGATIONS, ANY ADDITIONAL SUBORDINATE OBLIGATIONS AND AMOUNTS DUE TO ANY OTHER SUBORDINATE BENEFICIARIES. SEE "SECURITY AND SOURCES OF PAYMENT FOR THE OFFERED OBLIGATIONS -- CERTAIN PAYMENT PRIORITIES", AND APPENDIX B, "CERTAIN DEFINITIONS AND SUMMARY OF CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF THE INDENTURE -- EVENTS OF DEFAULT AND REMEDIES".

The following presents the Corporation's principal assumptions used in the preparation of its cash flow projections for the Offered Obligations and the structuring of the stated maturities and payment dates of the Offered Obligations. The Corporation believes, based on its analyses of multiple cash flow projections, which have been based on various stressful cash flow assumptions and scenarios, including the assumptions described herein, that revenues to be received pursuant to the Indenture will be sufficient to pay principal of and interest on the Offered Obligations and all other presently Outstanding Obligations when due and also to pay when due all Administrative Expenses, Bond Fees and any required rebate payments to the United States Treasury. The cash flow projections for the Offered Obligations and the Corporation's belief that revenues to be received pursuant to the Indenture will be sufficient to pay, among other things, Debt Service on the Offered Obligations and all other presently Outstanding Obligations each constitutes a forward-looking statement, and actual results may vary from such projections and belief for a variety of reasons discussed immediately below and above under the caption "RISK FACTORS".

Factors Affecting Sufficiency and Timing of Receipt of Revenues in the Trust Estate

As stated in the immediately preceding paragraph, the Corporation expects that the revenues to be received pursuant to the Indenture will be sufficient to pay principal of and interest on the Offered Obligations and all other presently Outstanding Obligations when due and also to pay the annual cost of all Trustee fees, servicing costs and other expenses related to the Offered Obligations, all other presently Outstanding Obligations and the Pledged Eligible Loans until the final maturity of the Offered Obligations. These projections use assumptions, which the Corporation believes are reasonable, regarding the current and future composition of and yield on the Corporation's student loan portfolio held and expected to be held pursuant to the Indenture, the rate of return on moneys to be invested in various Accounts and Subaccounts under the Indenture, and the occurrence of future events and conditions. These assumptions are derived from the Corporation's experience in the administration of the Program. There can be no assurance, however, that interest and principal payments from the Pledged Eligible Loans will be received as anticipated, that the reinvestment rates assumed on the amounts in various Accounts and Subaccounts will be realized, or that Special Allowance Payments will be received in the amounts and at the times anticipated. Furthermore, future events over which the Corporation has no control may adversely affect the Corporation's actual receipt of revenues pursuant to the Indenture.

Receipt of principal and interest on Pledged Eligible Loans may be accelerated due to various factors, including, among others: (1) default claims or claims due to the disability, death or bankruptcy of the borrowers; (2) actual principal amortization periods which are shorter than those assumed based upon the current analysis of the Corporation's expected student loan portfolio; (3) the commencement of principal repayment by borrowers on earlier dates than are assumed based upon the current analysis of the Corporation's expected student loan portfolio; and (4) economic conditions that induce borrowers to refinance or repay their loans prior to maturity. Eligible lenders, including the Corporation, may make Consolidation Loans to borrowers for the purpose of retiring certain borrowers' existing loans under various federal higher education loan programs. To the extent that Pledged Eligible Loans are repaid with Consolidation Loans, the Corporation will realize payment of such loans earlier than projected.

The assumptions used by the Corporation relating to the receipt of principal payments, moreover, resulted in projections of receipt of principal which are later than the Corporation expects. Because the Corporation relied on such assumptions for purposes of scheduling the principal amount of Offered Obligations of each Stated Maturity and payment dates, the receipt of principal payments earlier than projected may result in redemption of Offered Obligations pursuant to the redemption provision described in "REDEMPTION -- Optional Redemption of Offered Obligations".

Additionally, if the actual rates of return on the Pledged Eligible Loans and the actual investment rates on the Investment Securities equal or exceed those assumed by the Corporation, the Corporation expects that moneys will be deposited into the Surplus Account. Moneys in the Surplus Account may be used, at the Corporation's option, to redeem Offered Obligations pursuant to the special redemption provision described in "REDEMPTION -- Optional Redemption of Offered Obligations".

Delay in the receipt of principal of and interest on Pledged Eligible Loans may adversely affect payment of principal of and interest on the Offered Obligations when due. Principal of and interest on Pledged Eligible Loans may be delayed due to numerous factors, including, without limitation: (1) borrowers entering deferment periods due to a return to school or other eligible purposes; (2) forbearance being granted to borrowers; (3) loans becoming delinquent for periods longer than assumed; (4) actual loan principal amortization periods which are longer than those assumed based upon the current analysis of the Corporation's student loan portfolio to be held pursuant to the Indenture; and (5) the commencement of principal repayment by borrowers at dates later than those assumed based upon the current analysis of the student loan portfolio to be held pursuant to the Indenture.

If actual receipt of revenues under the Indenture or actual expenditures vary greatly from those projected, the Corporation may be unable to pay the principal of and interest on the Offered Obligations and all other presently Outstanding Obligations when due. In the event that revenues to be received under the Indenture are insufficient to pay the principal of and interest on the Offered Obligations, all other presently Outstanding Obligations and amounts owing to any other Beneficiaries when due, the Indenture authorizes, and under certain circumstances requires, the Trustee to declare an Event of Default and accelerate the payment of the Outstanding Obligations, including the Offered Obligations. See APPENDIX B, "CERTAIN DEFINITIONS AND SUMMARY OF CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF THE INDENTURE -- Events of Defaults and Remedies" and "--Direction of Proceedings by Acting Beneficiaries Upon Default". It is possible, however, that the Trustee would not be able to sell the Pledged Eligible Loans and the other assets comprising the Trust Estate for an amount sufficient to pay the principal of and accrued interest on all Outstanding Obligations, including the Offered Obligations.

In preparing certain cash flow projections for purposes of achieving the ratings of (i) "Aaa" from Moody's and "AAA" from Fitch on each Senior Series of the Offered Obligations and (ii) "A2" from Moody's and "A" from Fitch on each Subordinate Series of the Offered Obligations, the Corporation assumed various default rates and Guarantee Agencies' reimbursement rates in accordance with each Rating Agency's specific Stress Tests scenarios. Although the Guarantee Agencies are obligated to make not less than 95% insurance claim payments to the Corporation and to other lenders, the Guarantee Agencies must then rely on reimbursement from the Secretary of Education. The Guarantee Agencies' ability to meet not less than 95% insurance claim payments may be impaired if insurance claim payments exceed expectations or if its guarantee fund is inadequate. See "THE GUARANTEE AGENCIES AND THE GUARANTEED STUDENT LOAN PROGRAM" and APPENDIX C, "DESCRIPTION OF THE FEDERAL FAMILY EDUCATION LOAN PROGRAM".

Changes In Federal Law

There can be no assurance that relevant federal laws, including the Higher Education Act, will not be changed in a manner that may adversely affect the receipt of funds by the Corporation. See the following sections above: "RISK FACTORS", "THE CORPORATION'S STUDENT LOAN PURCHASE PROGRAM" and APPENDIX C, "DESCRIPTION OF THE FEDERAL FAMILY EDUCATION LOAN PROGRAM".

Pledged Eligible Loan Portfolio Assumptions

With the proceeds of the Offered Obligations, the Corporation expects to finance or refinance approximately $119.6 million outstanding principal amount of, and accrued borrower interest and purchase premium on, Eligible Loans.

The Corporation expects to recycle borrower principal repayments to finance or refinance Eligible Loans until February 1, 2005 (or such later date to which such period is extended in accordance with the Indenture). The Corporation may also issue additional obligations, all or a portion of which will be expended to finance or refinance Eligible Loans prior to expenditure of all proceeds of the Offered Obligations. See APPENDIX H, "ACTUAL PORTFOLIO DATA FOR PLEDGED ELIGIBLE LOANS HELD OR TO BE HELD IN THE TRUST ESTATE".

Assumptions related to Administrative Expenses and Other Fees

The Corporation has estimated based on past experience, and included in the cash flows prepared for each of the Rating Agencies, an annual administrative expense based upon the administrative budget relating to its Student Loan portfolio (including the Pledged Eligible Loans). The Corporation's total administrative budget is allocated among its various bond issues based on the outstanding principal amount of Student Loans held under each financing, the number of Student Loans acquired, and the number of financings outstanding. In addition it has assumed in the cash flows, (i) servicing fees based initially on the actual fees to be paid under the various Servicing Agreements through their current expiration date, and thereafter the servicing fees inflated at 2% per year; (ii) Trustee's fees based on the actual Trustee's fees paid annually in advance under the Indenture; (iii) Auction Agent's fees and the Broker-Dealer fees based on actual fee provisions in the Auction Agent Agreement. Such fees and expenses may be higher than projected.

Other Assumptions

In preparing the cash flow projections for purposes of achieving the ratings of (i) "Aaa" from Moody's and "AAA" from Fitch on each Senior Series of the Offered Obligations and (ii) "A2" from Moody's and "A" from Fitch on each Subordinate Series of the Offered Obligations, the Corporation also assumed, with the agreement of the applicable Rating Agency, the following cash flow factors as applicable in various interest rate scenarios for all Outstanding Obligations, including the Offered Obligations: (i) the 91-Day T-Bill Rate; (ii) Auction Rates for the Senior Tax-Exempt Bonds; (iii) Auction Rates for the Subordinate Tax-Exempt Bonds; (iv) Auction Rates for the Senior Taxable Notes; (v) Auction Rates for the Subordinate Taxable Notes, (vi) three failed Auctions; (vii) student loan yields during the In-School, Grace or Deferment periods for each of PLUS/SLS loans, Consolidation Loans, Stafford Variable Rate Loans (based upon origination date and including Special Allowance Payments); (viii) lags on all principal and interest payments on Pledged Eligible Loans from borrowers, lags on defaulted loan reimbursements, as well as lags on all federal interest subsidy payments and Special Allowance Payments; (ix) an acquisition price for Eligible Loans that the Corporation determines is appropriate; and (x) rebate payments on Consolidation Loans.

Investment Rates

Balances in the various Accounts of the Trust Estate Fund are assumed to be invested in an Investment Security at a rate or rates required by the Rating Agencies.

FORM OF BOND COUNSEL OPINION -- OFFERED TAX-EXEMPT BONDS

Mississippi Higher Education Assistance Corporation

RE: Mississippi Higher Education Assistance Corporation
Student Loan Revenue Bonds, Senior Series 2000-A-2, and Student Loan Revenue Bonds, Subordinate Series 2000-B-2

Gentlefolk:

We have acted as bond counsel in connection with the issuance of $28,400,000 aggregate principal amount of Student Loan Revenue Bonds, Senior Series 2000-A-2 and $12,000,000 aggregate principal amount of Student Loan Revenue Bonds, Subordinate Series 2000-B-2 (collectively the "Bonds") of Mississippi Higher Education Assistance Corporation, a Mississippi nonprofit corporation (the "Issuer"), pursuant to a Trust Indenture (the "Trust Indenture") dated as of July 1, 1999, between the Issuer and Trustmark National Bank (the "Trustee"), a national banking association, as supplemented by a Series 2000-A-1 and 2000-B-1 Supplement thereto (the "Series 2000-A-1&B-1 Supplement") dated as of January 1, 2000, and a Series 2000-A-2, 2000-A-3 and 2000-B-2 Supplement thereto (the "Series 2000-A-2&3&B-2 Supplement") dated as of March 1, 2000, each between the Issuer and the Trustee. In that capacity, we have examined the appropriate provisions of the constitution and statutes of the State of Mississippi, certified copies of one or more resolutions adopted by the governing body of the Issuer with respect to the issuance of the Bonds, an executed counterpart of the Trust Indenture, an executed counterpart of the Series 2000-A-1&B-1 Supplement, an executed counterpart of the Series 2000-A-2&3&B-2 Supplement and such other documents, opinions of counsel, certificates and other assurances from representatives of the Issuer and matters as we considered necessary to enable us to render this opinion. On the basis of the foregoing examination and in reliance thereon, and on all such other matters of fact and conclusions of law as we deem relevant under the circumstances, we are of the opinion that:

1. The Issuer has been duly organized and is validly existing as a private nonprofit corporation in good standing under the laws of the State of Mississippi, with all requisite corporate power and authority to own and operate its properties and to carry on its businesses as now being conducted and as contemplated by the Trust Indenture.
2. The Bonds have been duly and validly authorized and delivered pursuant to the authority granted by and in compliance with the provisions of the Trust Indenture, as supplemented by the Series 2000-A-1&B-1 Supplement and the Series 2000-A-2&3&B-2 Supplement.
3. The Bonds are valid, legal and binding limited obligations of the Issuer, enforceable in accordance with the terms thereof.
4. The Trust Indenture and the Series 2000-A-1&B-1 Supplement have each been duly and validly authorized, executed and delivered, and each constitutes a valid, legal and binding obligation of the Issuer, enforceable against the Issuer in accordance with the terms thereof.

5. The Series 2000-A-2&3&B-2 Supplement has been duly and validly authorized, executed and delivered, and constitutes a valid, legal and binding obligation of the Issuer, enforceable against the Issuer in accordance with the terms thereof.

6. Assuming continuing compliance with all covenants set forth in the Trust Indenture, as supplemented by the Series 2000-A-1&B-1 Supplement and the Series 2000-A-2&3&B-2 Supplement, and subject to the condition and exceptions set forth below, under existing statutes, regulations and court decisions as presently interpreted and construed, interest on the Bonds earned by the respective owners thereof is excludable from gross income for federal income tax purposes pursuant to Section 103 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). The opinion set forth above is subject to the condition that the Issuer comply with all requirements of the Code, compliance with which subsequent to the issuance of the Bonds is necessary in order that interest thereon be, and continue to be, excludable from gross income for federal income tax purposes. The Issuer has covenanted to comply with each such requirement, and failure of the Issuer to comply with such requirements may cause the inclusion of interest on the Bonds in gross income for federal income tax purposes, retroactive to the date of issuance of the Bonds. The Bonds are "private activity bonds," as defined in Section 141(a) of the Code, and "specified private activity bonds," as defined in Section 57(a)(5)(C) of the Code, and interest thereon is a specific item of tax preference which will be includable in computing alternative minimum tax imposed on all taxpayers by Section 55 of the Code. Interest on the Bonds will also be includable in computing the following: (a) the income adjustments for property and casualty insurers pursuant to Section 832 of the Code; (b) "modified alternative minimum taxable income" for purposes of computing the environmental tax on corporations (as defined for federal income tax purposes) imposed by Section 59A of the Code; (c) the branch profits tax imposed by Section 884 of the Code; and (d) the tax on excess "net passive income" imposed by Section 1375 of the Code on certain Subchapter S corporations that have Subchapter C earnings and profits.

Pursuant to the Trust Indenture and the Series 2000-A-2&3&B-2 Supplement, the Bonds initially bear interest at Auction Rates, as defined in the Trust Indenture. We express no opinion, and no opinion should be inferred from any conclusions set forth herein, with respect to any Bond at any time that such Bond does not bear interest at Auction Rates.

We express no opinion regarding other federal tax consequences arising with respect to the Bonds.

We have not undertaken to verify by independent investigation the facts contained in the certifications of representatives of the Issuer, and we express no opinion herein relating to the accuracy, completeness or sufficiency of any offering material relating to the Bonds.

It is to be understood that the enforceability of the Trust Indenture, the Series 2000-A-1&B-1 Supplement and the Series 2000-A-2&3&B-2 Supplement and the rights of the owners of the Bonds and the enforceability thereof may be subject to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium and other similar laws affecting creditors' rights heretofore or hereafter enacted and that their enforcement may be subject to the exercise of judicial discretion in accordance with general principles of equity.

Yours very truly,

Gentlefolk:

We have acted as bond counsel in connection with the issuance of $84,000,000 aggregate principal amount of Student Loan Asset-Backed Notes, Senior Series 2000-A-3 (the "Notes") of Mississippi Higher Education Assistance Corporation, a Mississippi nonprofit corporation (the "Issuer"), pursuant to a Trust Indenture (the "Trust Indenture") dated as of July 1, 1999, between the Issuer and Trustmark National Bank (the "Trustee"), a national banking association, as supplemented by a Series 2000-A-1 and 2000-B-1 Supplement thereto (the "Series 2000-A-1&B-1 Supplement") dated as of January 1, 2000, and a Series 2000-A-2, 2000-A-3 and 2000-B-2 Supplement thereto (the "Series 2000-A-2&3&B-2 Supplement") dated as of March 1, 2000, each between the Issuer and the Trustee. In that capacity, we have examined the appropriate provisions of the constitution and statutes of the State of Mississippi, certified copies of one or more resolutions adopted by the governing body of the Issuer with respect to the issuance of the Notes, an executed counterpart of the Trust Indenture, an executed counterpart of the Series 2000-A-1&B-1 Supplement, an executed counterpart of the Series 2000-A-2&3&B-2 Supplement and such other documents, opinions of counsel, certificates and other assurances from representatives of the Issuer and matters as we considered necessary to enable us to render this opinion. On the basis of the foregoing examination and in reliance thereon, and on all such other matters of fact and conclusions of law as we deem relevant under the circumstances, we are of the opinion that:

1. The Issuer has been duly organized and is validly existing as a private nonprofit corporation in good standing under the laws of the State of Mississippi, with all requisite corporate power and authority to own and operate its properties and to carry on its businesses as now being conducted and as contemplated by the Trust Indenture.

2. The Notes have been duly and validly authorized and delivered pursuant to the authority granted by and in compliance with the provisions of the Trust Indenture, as supplemented by the Series 2000-A-1&B-1 Supplement and the Series 2000-A-2&3&B-2 Supplement.

3. The Notes are valid, legal and binding limited obligations of the Issuer, enforceable in accordance with the terms thereof.

4. The Trust Indenture and the Series 2000-A-1&B-1 Supplement have each been duly and validly authorized, executed and delivered, and each constitutes a valid, legal and binding obligation of the Issuer, enforceable against the Issuer in accordance with the terms thereof.

5. The Series 2000-A-2&3&B-2 Supplement has been duly and validly authorized, executed and delivered, and constitutes a valid, legal and binding obligation of the Issuer, enforceable against the Issuer in accordance with the terms thereof.

Pursuant to the Trust Indenture and the Series 2000-A-2&3&B-2 Supplement, the Notes initially bear interest at Auction Rates, as defined in the Trust Indenture. We express no opinion, and no opinion should be inferred from any conclusions set forth herein, with respect to any Note at any time that such Note does not bear interest at Auction Rates.

We express no opinion regarding federal tax consequences arising with respect to the Notes.

We have not undertaken to verify by independent investigation the facts contained in the certifications of representatives of the Issuer, and we express no opinion herein relating to the accuracy, completeness or sufficiency of any offering material relating to the Notes.

It is to be understood that the enforceability of the Trust Indenture, the Series 2000-A-1&B-1 Supplement and the Series 2000-A-2&3&B-2 Supplement and the rights of the owners of the Notes and the enforceability thereof may be subject to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium and other similar laws affecting creditors' rights heretofore or hereafter enacted and that their enforcement may be subject to the exercise of judicial discretion in accordance with general principles of equity.

Yours very truly,

WATKINS LUDLAM WINTER & STENNIS, P.A.
